The '75 Cougar

Volume 36, 1975

*Bothell Senior High School
Bothell, Washington 98011*

*Can you see it? Do you feel it?
The world IS a beautiful place!*

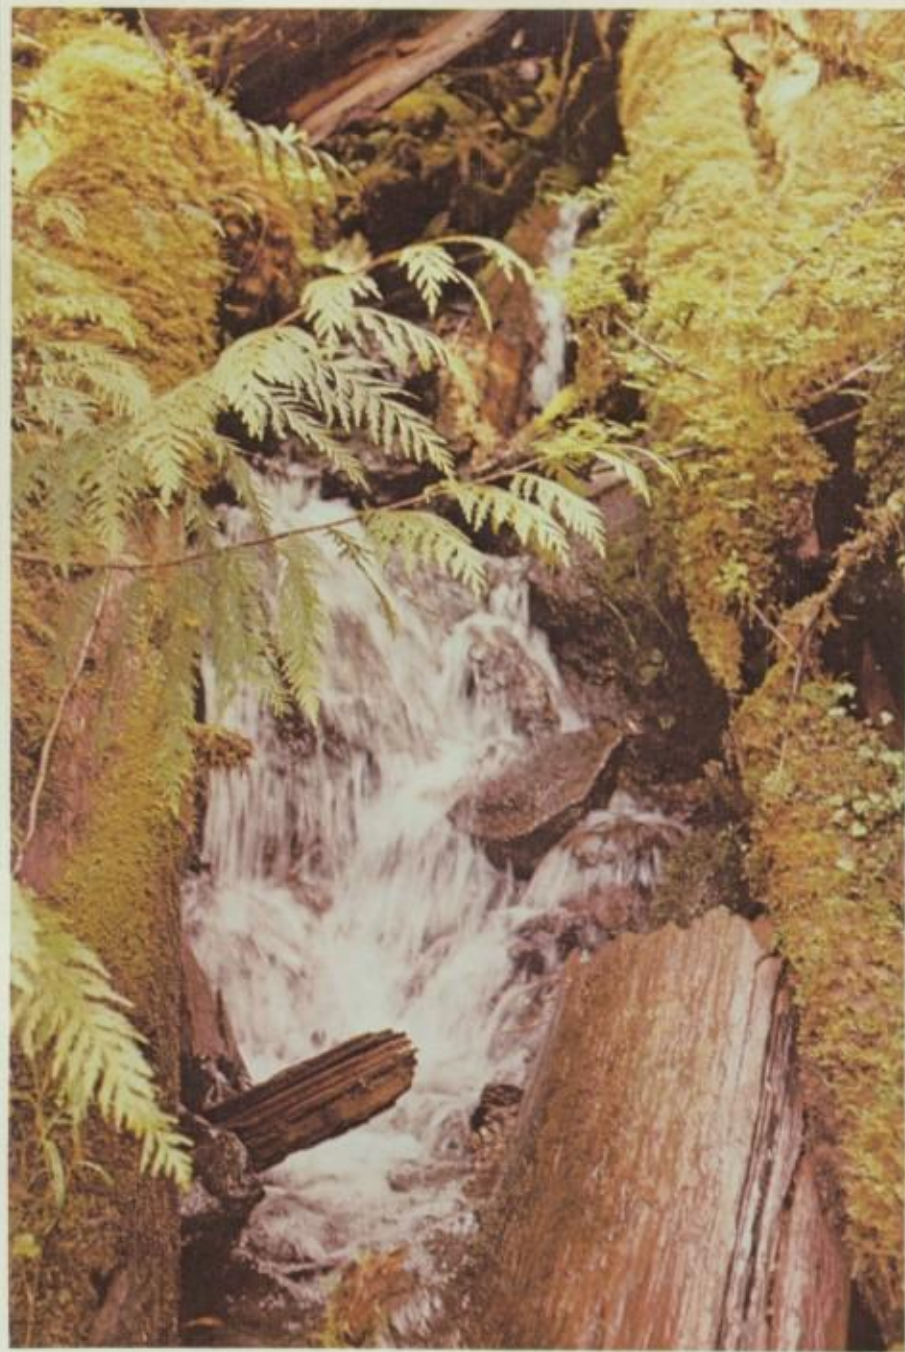

*There's so much to experience
so much to feel:
yet so much lies ahead*

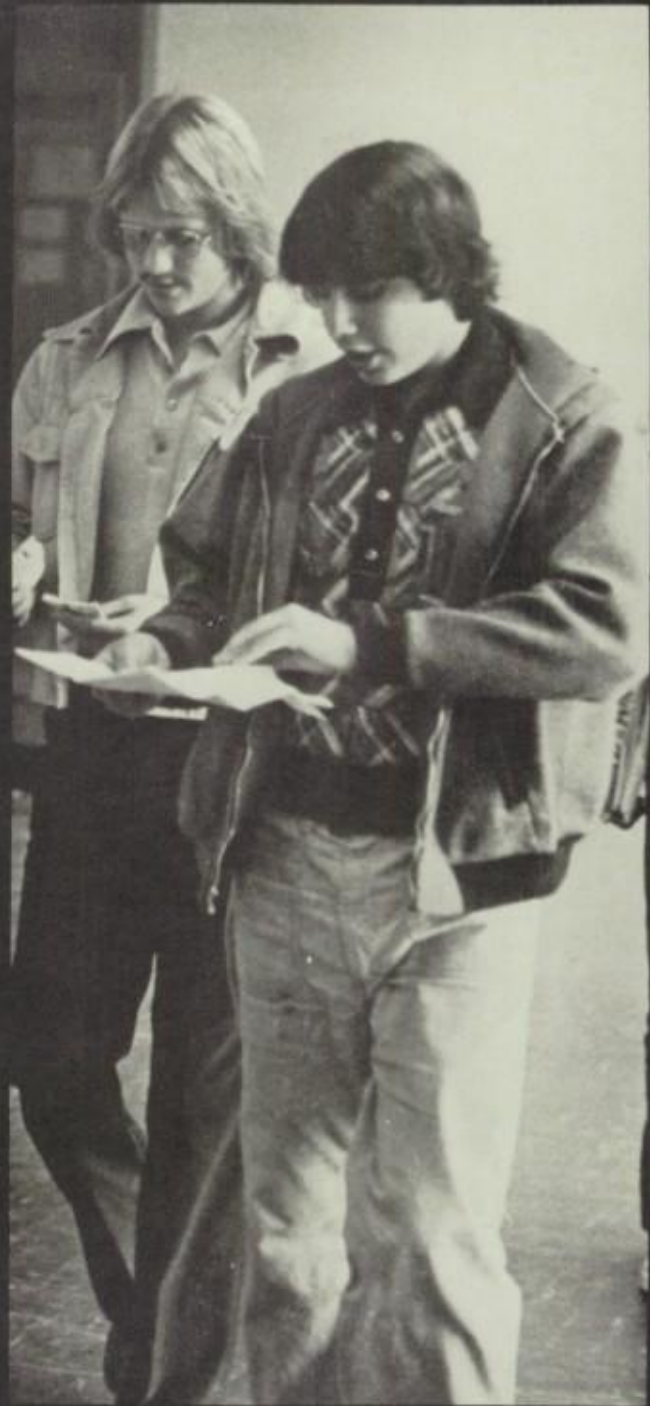

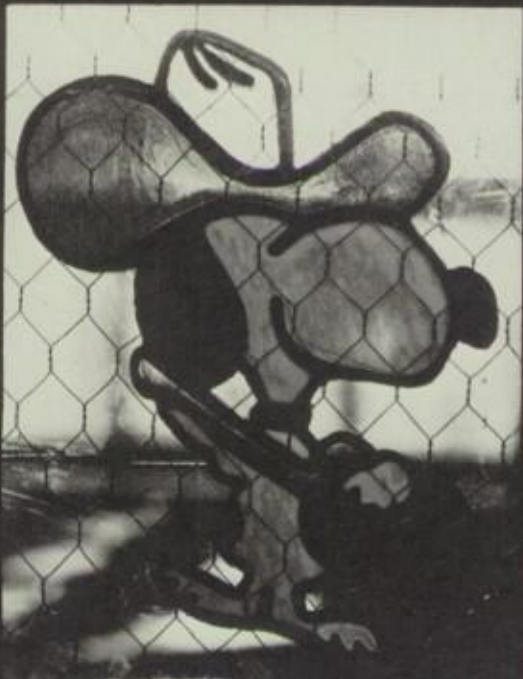

*We've been in the brook
long enough . . . It's time to take a leap . . . be someone!*

*So let's hit the "rowdy road," and learn
to go it on our own*

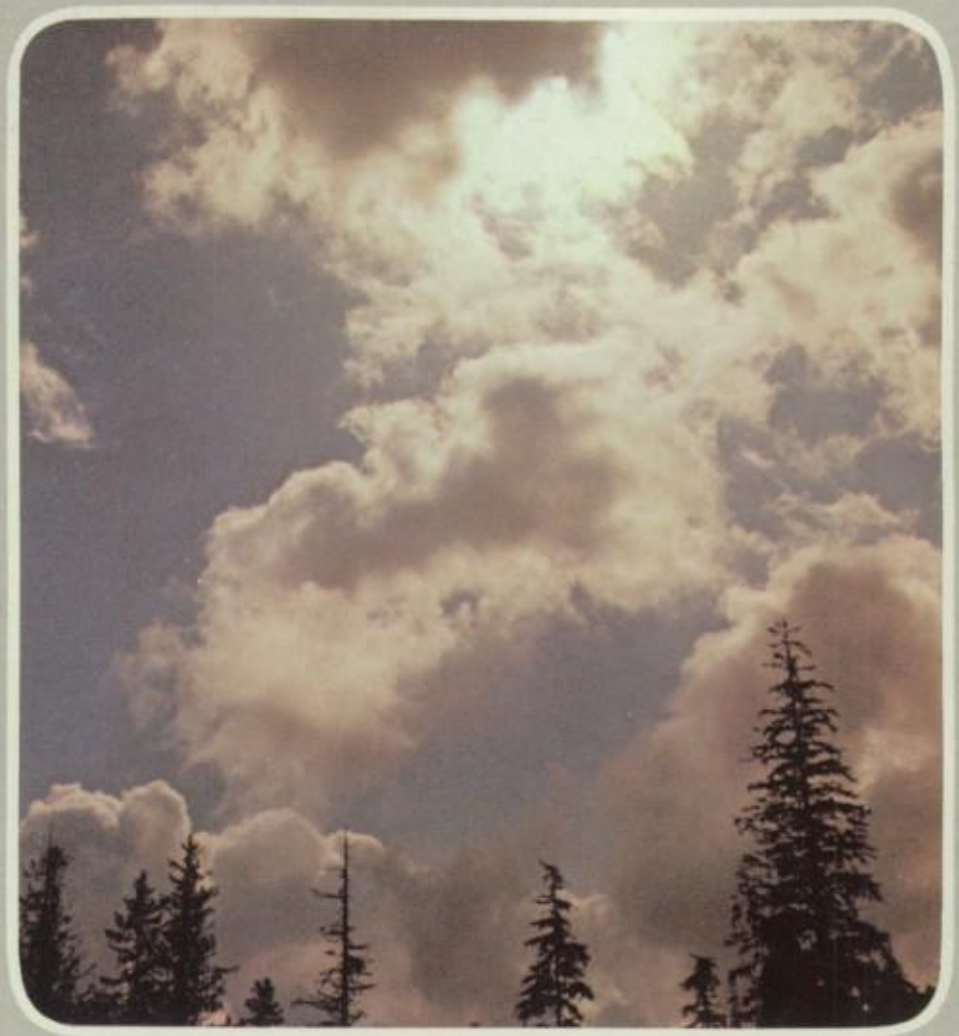

*At times I'm sure of things;
but too often I find myself puzzled...*

They say that heaven is ten zillion light years away,

*But I swear
I can feel it now!*

Wars...hunger... but improvements.

In many ways, Americans felt 1974 was a bad year. It was at least doubtful. Political scandals led to the first resignation of an American President, Richard Nixon, in August; Gerald Ford took over, with Nelson Rockefeller succeeding as Vice President—both men having been exhaustively screened by a Democratic Congress.

War ravaged Cyprus, Ireland and Indo-China, and threatened in the Mid-East where Arabs, Jews and "Palestinians" maneuvered for world approval. A drought caused starvation in many countries and even created crop shortages in the U.S. Food prices skyrocketed.

With all such events glooming the news, it was easy to forget the good things. Improvements were made and problems solved in many areas. Greece held its first free elections in 10 years. Sky-jacking in the U.S. almost disappeared. Gains for women continued, with managerial jobs opened, political posts won, and such areas as sports promising equal facilities. Minority problems eased. Pension plans were federally protected.

Environmental gains continued: Recycling, cleaner air and water, population slow-downs. Death rates fell, traffic fatalities dropped. School records were safeguarded and individual rights gained added recognition in federal courts.

"Recession" began to deepen as industry slowed, amidst economists' arguments. But all-in-all, it boiled down to an individual's attitude in determining the good and bad of 1974. We should not forget: "In God We Trust"!

Dr. Henry Kissinger continued to globetrot seeking solutions to war threats.

New President Gerald Ford introduced "Rocky" as his Vice-President.

Farmers in Minnesota slaughtered calves to protest low cattle, high feed prices; while across the world in starving Bangladesh a little boy cried for food.

Richard Nixon, alone on the San Clemente beach.

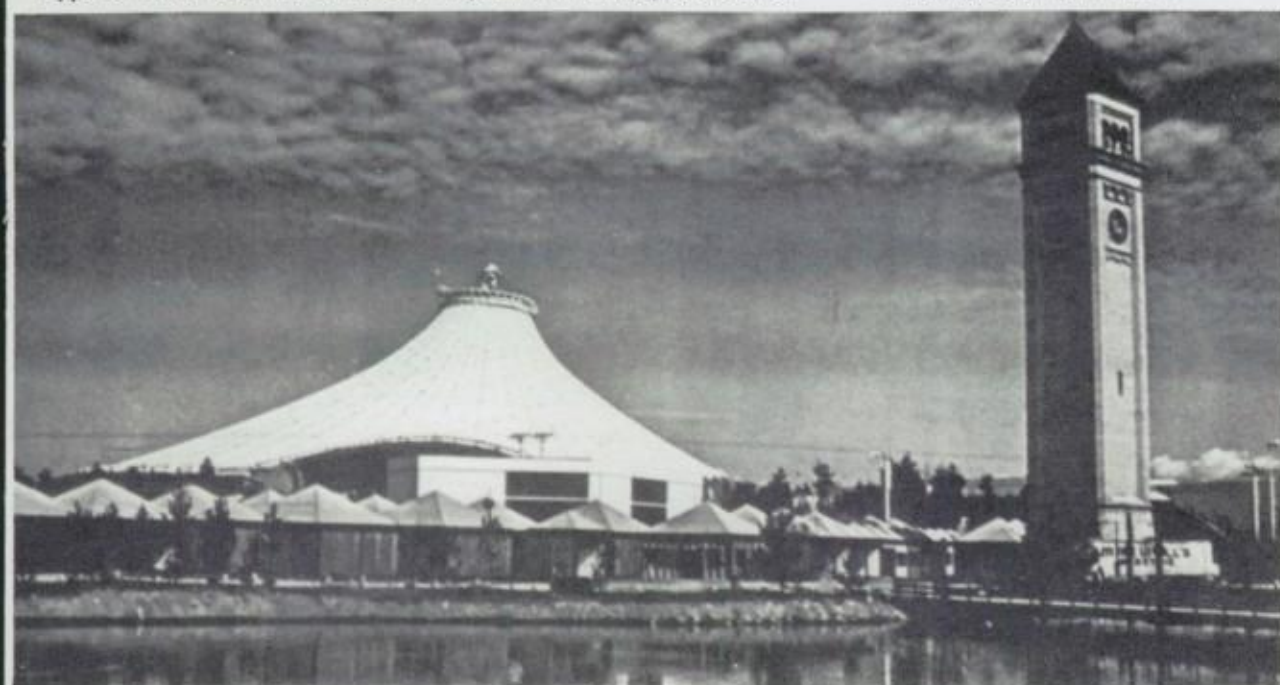

A Fedayeen commando dodged live ammunition, "to toughen him for war."

The coffin of U.S. Ambassador Roger Davies, murdered by Cyprus terrorists, was carried to a plane for transport home.

Dazed and desperately tired, Foreman attempted to get up, as Ali waited to resume his championship, in Zair.

"Expo '74", a world's fair, was held in Spokane throughout the summer, with its theme, the ecology.

Bothell's Art Fair had a successful second year.

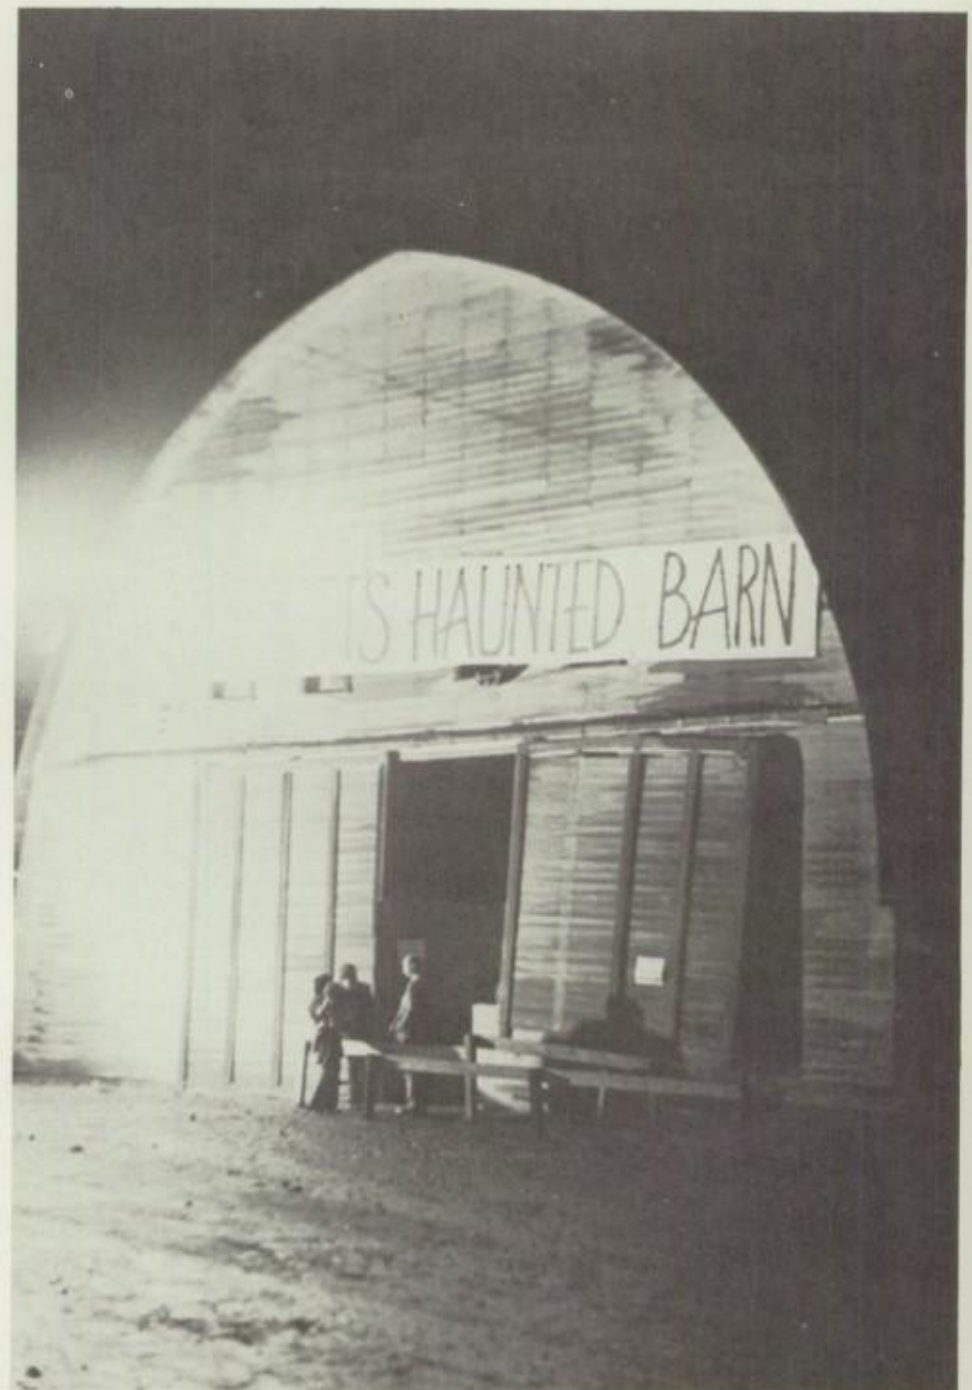

Spraying water everywhere, speed boats ripped along the Slough in April.

City Council and public hearings continued as ringside attractions, as the controversial conversion of Vitulli Farm to a shopping center raged on. As this book went to press, no decision had been reached. Bothell had a new mayor and form of government: Bill Schatz for Bud Ericksen, and Geoffrey Ethelstan named City Manager. Annual events made recurring appearances: the Sammamish Slough races; the "tallest living lighted Christmas tree"; the July 4 celebration; the successful Art Fair ... in its 2nd year, those with acquisitive artistic eyes, and artists with thin wallets were both satisfied as everything in the field of art was displayed. Bothell's first "Haunted Barn" was a big Hallowe'en attraction, raising $1500 to fund community projects, including the July 4th fireworks.

Northshore's own Kathleen Moore (BHS '70) was crowned Miss Washington in June; was in the national Top 10 for Miss America; and in November resigned her Miss Washington crown, torn by conflicts between her public and private responsibilities.

All in all, it was a typical small town year ... some good; some bad; but interesting.

Bothell's first haunted barn attracted big and little goblins from miles around. Its interior contained every horror imaginable by Designer Steve Cosgrove and a ghoulish crew.

Old events mixed with new in Northshore.

Vitulli's farm has been a major issue for more than a year: the beautiful farm and North Creek were forced by skyrocketing taxes into the hands of commerce.

Northshore's Kathleen Moore was the first Miss Washington to resign the crown and return the scholarship and other emoluments.

Businesses either started or were reconstructed to satisfy the growing population; Kenmore Lanes added eight more alleys; Schucks and Al's Auto were other new firms in the area; and Kenmore was designated for a County Police precinct headquarters.

Past Homecoming Queens were also included in the parade.

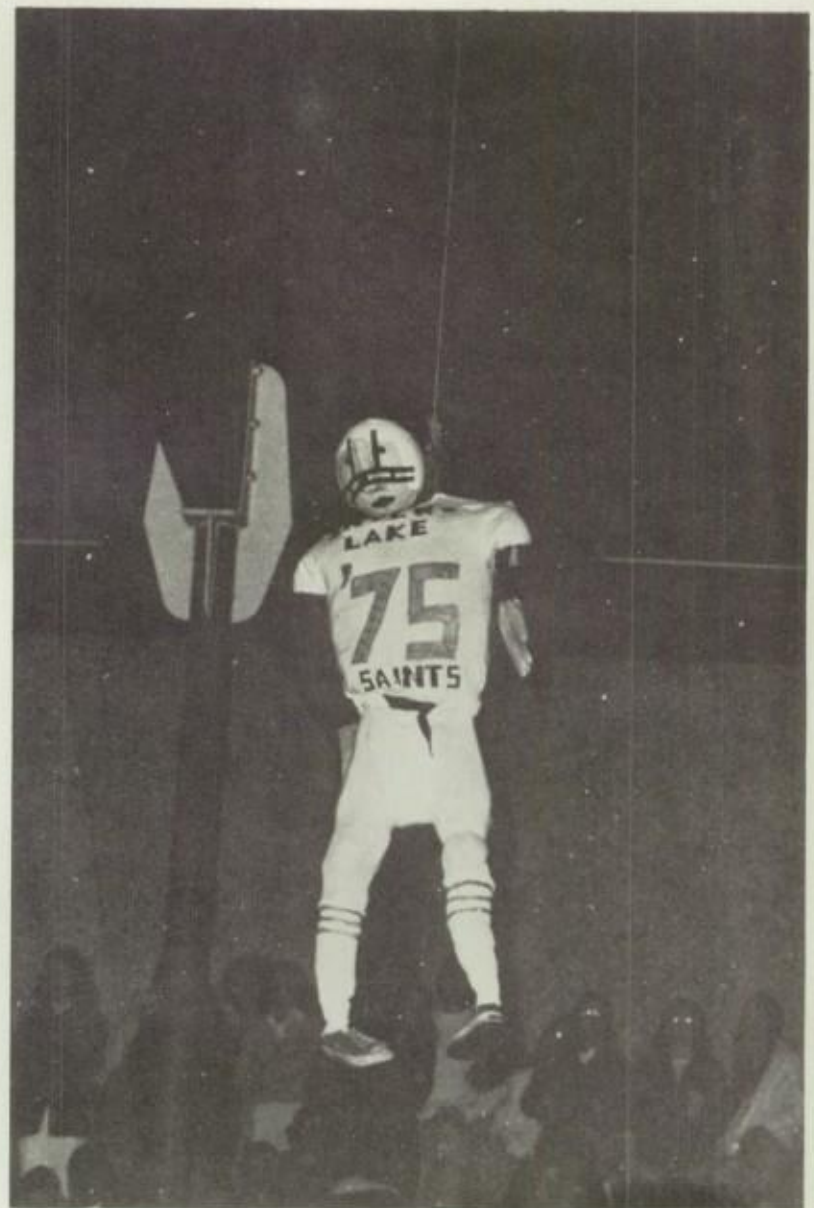

Sophomore window showed much creativity—and won first place.

'The way we were'....

The Saint hung high.

Mr. Ron Wayman—1974 Grand Marshal.

Sophomores kept outer-the-lake.

... And the Senior Float went on to win 1st place.

Students jived to music of "United Flyte".

Queen Debbie was overcome with surprise and delight.

Decalated T-shirts, "hot-dog" caps, and beach babies were the latest things in the halls for BHS's 1974 Homecoming festivities. Class competition added high spirits and suspense to the two-day celebration October 10 and 11. "The dogs Cougs love to bite" was the Seniors' winner.

Homecoming '74 marked the close of 9 years of dedicated service for Mrs. Bev Culpepper as advisor; Mr. Al Lutz will take her place after three years as co-advisor.

All three classes got off to faltering starts, being docked 30 points each for lateness; but the Sophomores made a surprise attack to clinch 2nd place with their "Push 'em Inter-the-Lake" theme.

The Cougs fought a hard battle against KingCo Champ Saints, but lost 6-27. The Marching Band supplied half-time entertainment complete with black-out show, fireworks, and three tumbling clowns—Charlie Fritschen, Jim Femling and Ron Zsigmondovics. The theme was "The World of Entertainment" carried out with music from "The Sting," "Circus" and "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue."

The after-game dance drew a capacity crowd in both cafeterias, with music by "United Flyte."

"The Way We Were" was a highly successful Homecoming.

1975 Homecoming Royalty

Wearing the Homecoming crown and robe was Her Majesty Debbie Jefferson; with Senior Princess Molly Barger, Junior Princess Linda Clutter and Sophomore Princess Kay Erickson. Other candidates were Seniors Theresa Jefferys, Devora

Johnston, Diana Nelson and Kathy Graves; Juniors Kolleen Kilpatrick and Patty Nolan; and Sophomores Heidi Kaas and Jill Gorman.

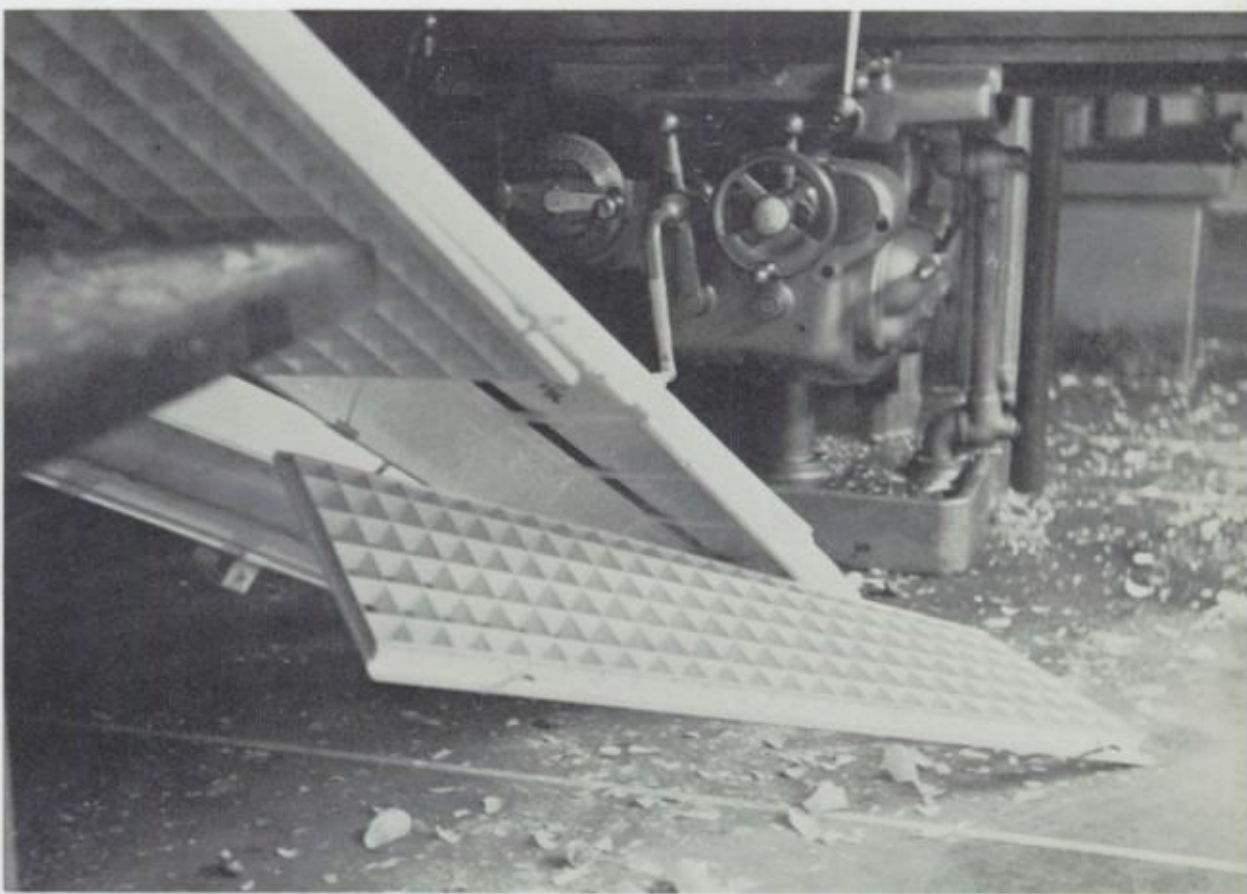

THE ALMA MATER

Bothell High, our Alma Mater . . .
We will guard thee, on an on.
Let us gather 'round and cheer her—
Shout her glories, sing her songs!
Shout the praises of her warriors—
Shout their glories to the skies . . .
On to victory urge our heroes,
Of our dear old Bothell High!

"Now proceed through the room to your left to have your picture taken." . . . "Sorry, my Advanced Typing is filled, but there's plenty of room in Beginning Shorthand." And this was just the beginning. After a summer of frisbies, tennis and swimming, it was time to get back to the routine of morning bulletins and smoke-filled lavatories.

No longer did you head for the front entrance on 92nd when you were late. Attendance Office moved to the Main Office on 180th—a move made to keep records and files together, to eliminate running back and forth.

A sunny Fall began it . . .

Bothell hosted the traditional rivalry game against Inglemoor September 27. Kiwanis served their spaghetti feed before the game, in Anderson cafeteria; and the Cougar staff sponsored the post-game hop in the gym, with Phaedra providing sound.

October 11 marked the day for teachers to be reinstated as students. It was Teachers' Professional Day, and all day they attended sessions updating knowledge and teaching abilities in their particular disciplines.

Open House October 22 wasn't the usual wandering from building to building for parents. Each department held meetings to explain their goals and methods, complete with displays.

October was filled with conferences and field trips for Publications, Drama, FBLA, VICA and many other classes and groups. It was a long, lovely, sunny Fall.

The great Metal Shop fall-out took place November 6, during a 15-minute interval in 2nd period when no one was manning the milling machines. A whole bank of lights collapsed, over where, several minutes later, three or more students would have been working. By great good fortune, no one was hurt.

And so the rains came.

Early November found stiff and sore arms frequent, as students (and faculty) brought their immunizations up to date in a Health Department Clinic in the Old Cafeteria.

"So what's new with you?"

Once again the Bothell High School Marching Band dazzled the eyes and delighted the ears of many football patrons with their creative formations, along with their rousing half-time songs.

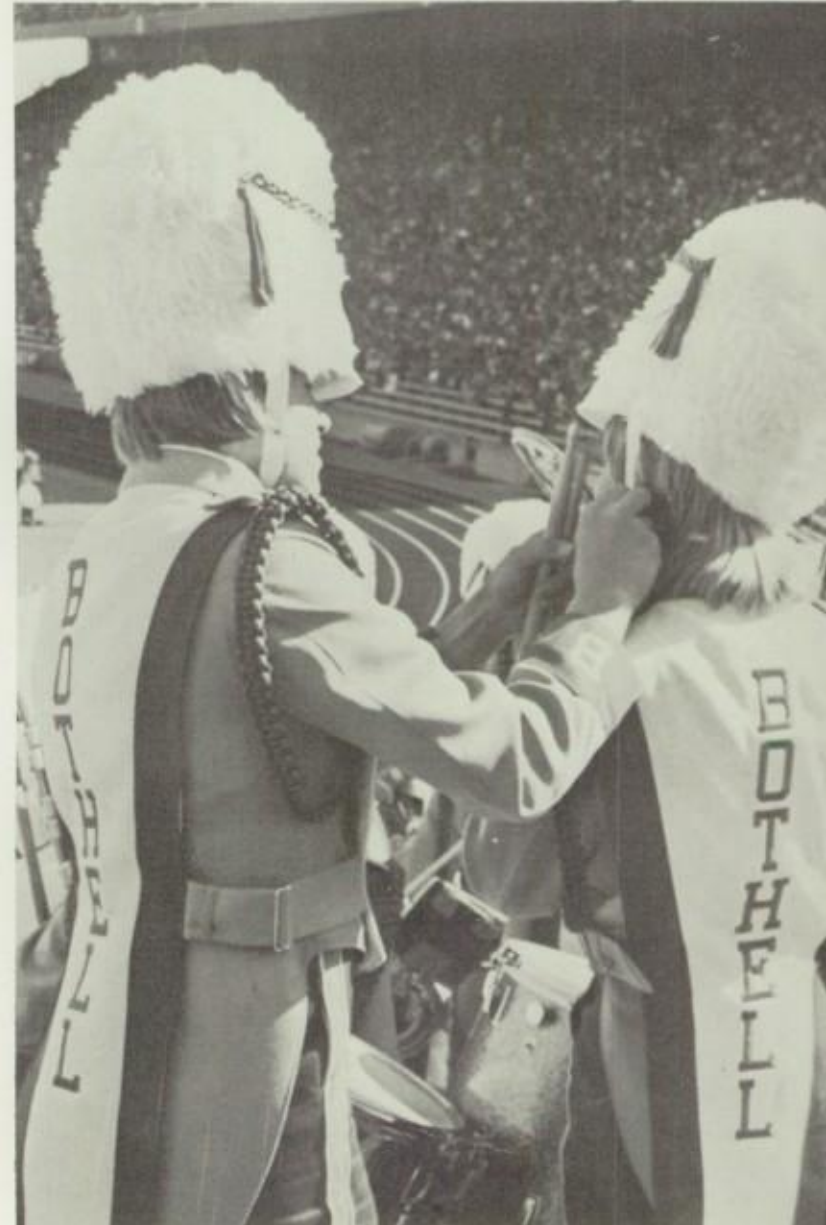

Senior Kevin Mueller held the honor of keeping time for the band as Drum Major. The highly-acclaimed Majorettes, Junior Karen Baptie and Seniors Tina Dixon and Debbie Jefferson, added to the overall excitement of all halftime performances, including the KingCo play-offs for 3rd place.

The brass let them hear it... loud and clear!

Tension mounted as performance time drew near.

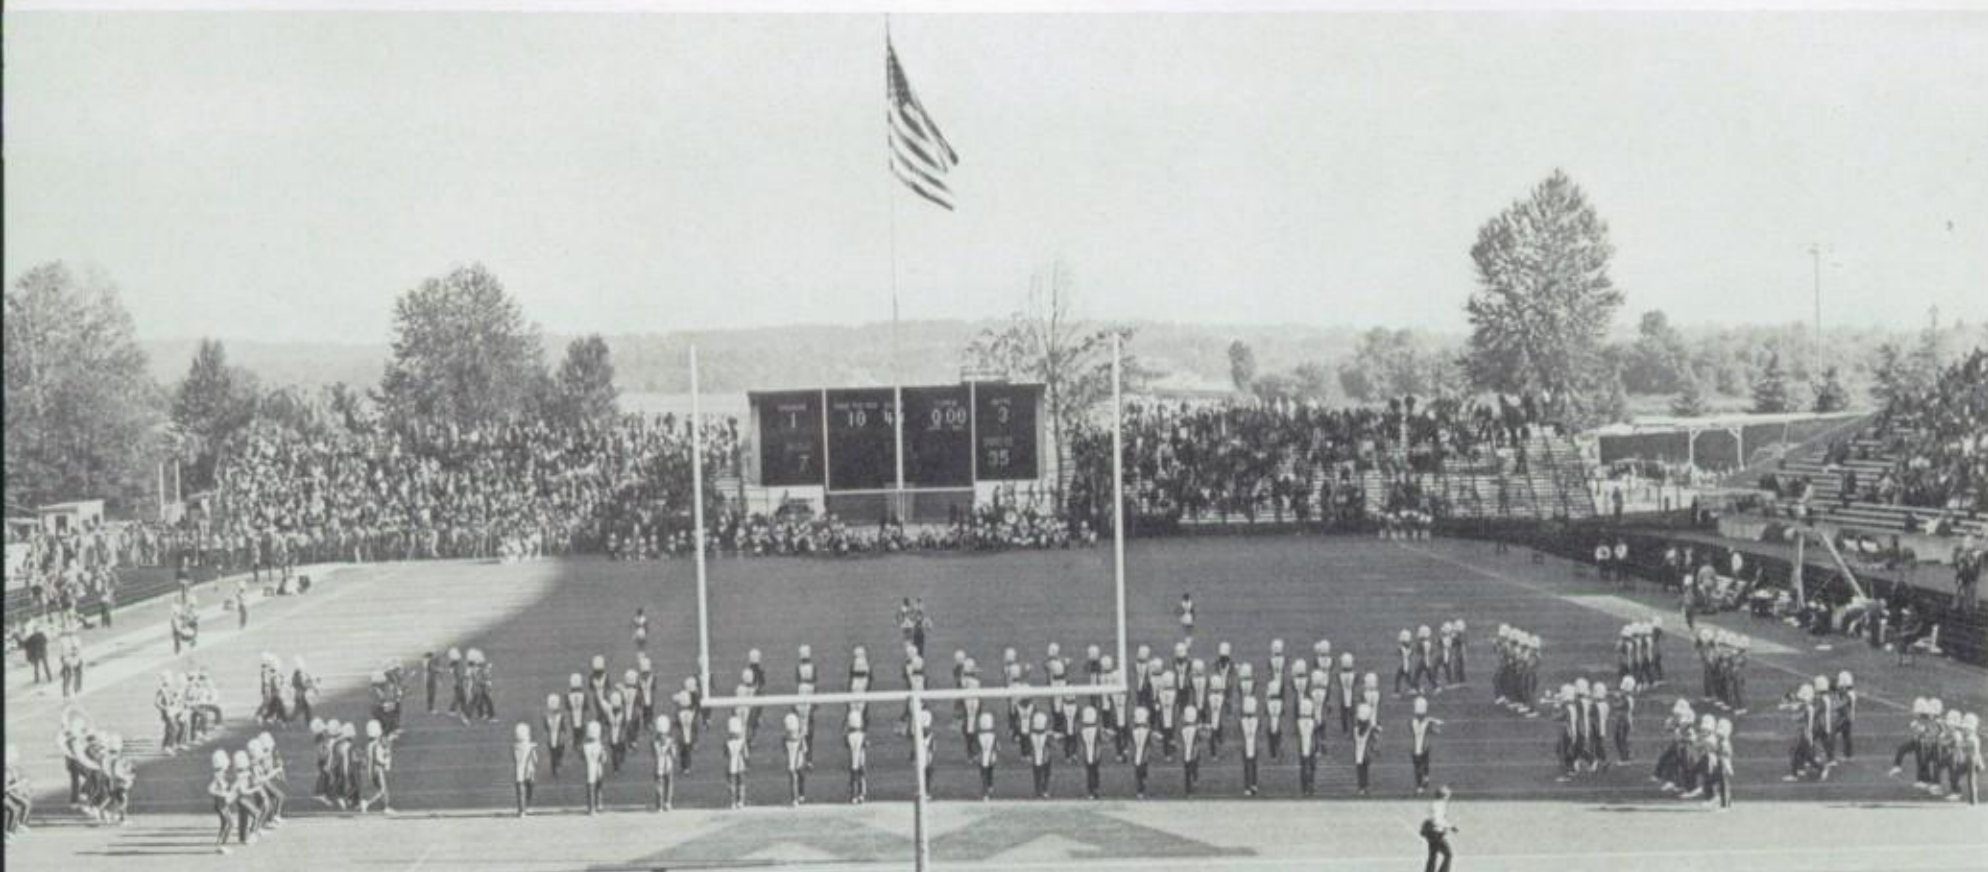

Hold still! We're next!

"Ladies and Gentlemen: The Cougar Marching Band!"

Bothell's accomplished Marching Band was especially honored to be selected to represent Ohio State U at their game with Washington State in the Husky stadium October 5. OSU walloped WSU 35-7, helped by the spirited 140-piece band. OSU alums wrote appreciative letters. At season's end, the band divided into Concert and Symphonic bands.

The 140-piece Cougar Marching Band, on display at Husky stadium—OSU 35; WSU 7.

"OK, gang! Let 'em hear us in KENMORE!"

"United we stand or..."—BHS & IHS majors at the rivalry game.

Not cold, nor rain, nor dark of night... stayed the doughty majorettes.

ASB AWARD

Lance Warrick and Kathy Thomas.

ASB AWARD—the highest honor the Bothell High student body can bestow. It recognizes three years of service to the entire school and community. Courtesy, personality, friendliness, dependability, good citizenship and a good academic standing are also required. Seniors select the finalists; the entire student body votes on the final ballot. Runners up were Don Henrikson and Evan Holzkecht; Molly Barger and Sandy Myers.

SENIOR INTELLECTUAL AWARD

Bambi Corruthers and Bruce Ansell.

MR. & MISS SENIOR CLASS

Evan Holzkecht and Sandra Myers.

INTELLECTUAL AWARD: Recognizing a strong interest in learning—an intellectual curiosity rather than simply a high g.p.a.—this award represents the serious students of Bothell High. Runners-up were Colin Funai and Todd Kreiger; Laura Austin and Janel Johnson. Only Seniors vote on these.

MR. & MISS SENIOR CLASS: "The typical BHS Senior" is represented by this award—personality, poise, friendliness, loyalty to school and class; willingness to serve when ever asked, and a reasonably good academic standing. Runners-up were Tim Erwin and Tom Paulson; Molly Barger and Carole Van den Akker.

SENIOR SERVICE AWARD

Jaiduk Jo and Joy Spear

SENIOR SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

Judy Crawford and Dave Luckenbach.

SENIOR SERVICE AWARD: Winners represent service to class throughout three years. They represent the students who are always on hand to make a project "go", and are working members of all they belong to. Class participation and dedication are important. Runners-up were Charlie Fritschen and Jon Steeb; Terry Littlefield and Kim Luhn.

SENIOR SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD: This honor represents the skilled competitive athletes of BHS, including both league and non-league sports. Emphasized is good overall sportsmanship, rather than the star athlete of any particular sport or season. Runners-up were Jim Arango and Jay Griesel; Sherri Hathaway and Kathy Kuebler.

SENIOR TALENT AWARD

Bill Martorano, Susan Dupar, Dianne Nelson and Don Henrikson

SENIOR TALENT AWARD: Setting a new precedent was the four-way tie for this honor—not surprising, considering the range of talented BHS students whom they represent: Music, art, drama, photography, writing, debate, skits—any activity requiring originality and creativity. Runners-up were Brian Carter, Barb Kaskes and Julie Knight.

Fall Fest kept toes a-tapping

The cafeteria was filled to the rafters with zippy jazz melodies during the second annual Fall Music Festival, November 14.

Jazz Ensemble and Arion singers kept the audience's toes a-tapping in time to their lively tunes.

This festival's purpose was not only to provide the large and enthusiastic audience with pleasing entertainment, but also to give the performers additional pre-concert experience. Mr. Judd Aetzel and Mr. Dennis Behrens directed the two groups.

Jazz band prepared to perform.

Mr. Judd Aetzel explained a little bit about the band.

Rick Lysen accompanied the Arions.

Special effects gave the Old Country Store style.

Country Store featured holidays.

The second annual Country Store, co-sponsored by BHS's Art department and PTSA, and held in the old cafeteria December 5 and 6, was again a great success and not just financially.

Many good sales were created by the students in their respective art classes and the rest of the items were graciously supplied by citizens of the community and interested parents of Bothell High Schoolers.

A significant proportion of the displays were centered around the idea of buying gifts for the Christmas season. Among the items displayed were such things as: plants, ceramics, baked goods, jewelry, hats, shoulder bags and other decorative items for the home.

A total of $731.39 was earned for the PTSA scholarship fund.

"There's so much to pick from", thought Patty Schmidt.

The cafeteria bustled with the excitement of Christmas.

Parents helped make this year's store a success.

"Mama" remembered in fall

"I Remember Mama", the heartwarming tale of Norwegian immigrants living in 1910 San Francisco, was presented by the Drama department in the Little Theater the nights of November 21, 22 and 23 at 8 p.m. A matinee was also given at 3 p.m. November 21; and morning shows the following week for the junior highs.

The play revolved around "Mama" and her efforts to preserve her home in the face of illness, strikes, prejudices, and a generally difficult life.

Sell-out audiences enjoyed the performances each night; Friday and Saturday were the first time in recent years that a BHS play had sold out in advance.

Drama Instructor Mrs. Joanne VanHorn directed the production through two long months of nightly rehearsals and week-end set building. Overall, since both cast members and spectators had fun, "I Remember Mama" was seen as a success.

"Vomen, Pff!" shouted Uncle Chris

Jenny and Sigrid discussed Trina's dowry.

Mr. Hyde read "A Tale of Two Cities."

"You drink the coffee, Lars," said Mama.

Donkeys paraded through the BHS gym during the second annual Publications-sponsored Donkey Basketball game November 19 — and there was no blackout!

Interclass competition combined with donkey stubbornness to provide an assortment of bruises, smiles and even laughs.

Juniors beat Sophomores for the first quarter; and tromped the Seniors for the second. Losers of the first two rounds played the third, with the Seniors winning —and going on to beat the Juniors in the final canto.

Don Wirta bit the floor.

Seniors took prized Donkey Cup.

Man against beast.

Diane Doerflein scored.

KJR dribbled to victory — just barely.

KJR's Charlie Brown sized up his opponent.

"It went that-a-way", exclaimed Gene Ristow.

Kevin O'Brien, lost in a sea of admirers.

KJR squeaked out a narrow victory over the BHS faculty in the final moments of basketball action on November 12. The win came as a disappointment to faculty, who, with hot shot shooting by Mike Hall, Ron Church, and Al Kollar, had stayed on top of the All-Stars throughout most of the game.

Faculty dribblers were led by: Kollar, Church, Hall, Mike Minor, Rob Bastasch, Dale Hedden, Mike Parker, "Rusty" Gene Ristow, Jim Sullivan, Cecilia Trujillo, and Joanne Van Horn.

The All-Americans were led by DJ's Charlie Brown, Scotty Brink, Gary Shannon, Steve Hamilton and Kevin O'Brien; with Ernie Dunston, Willie Campbell, Steve Looney and Robert Flowers.

Proceeds from the game went to the basketball fund.

Tolo sparkled in December

"A Time for Giving" was the theme for Bothell's annual Christmas Tolo, held December 21 in the gym. Queen Dianne Nelson reigned over the night's events, with Senior Princess Tina Dixon, Junior Princess Reath Fullmer, and Sophomore Princess Kathy Schaaf.

Couples danced to the music of "Shaker" until midnight, amid festive decorations which included two Christmas trees and a glittering diamond-like ornament that glinted, suspended from the ceiling.

Committee members for the Tolo included Debbie Jefferson, overall chairman; Sandy Meyers, decoration; Tina Dixon, refreshments; Randy Nicholls, tickets and band. The Class of '75 sponsored the Christmas Tolo, with Mr. Ron Church advising the committees.

The yo-yoing Dixon boys, Arne and Jeff, hammed it up.

Colleen, Sylvia and Danelle entertained the hungry crowd.

The Talenghetti appealed to all ages and appetites.

Mr. Peterson enjoyed his dinner.

Talenghetti brightened January.

The new cafeteria was the setting for the second annual combination spaghetti dinner/talent show, sponsored by the Class of '77. It was appropriately titled Talen-ghetti. Many people made a night out of it and attended the home basketball game against Sammamish after filling their stomachs with spaghetti, french bread, salad and ice cream.

A majority of the acts were musically oriented. The following people showed their talents off to the big audience:

Acts included: Tom Paulson, "Cats in Cradle"; Margie Peterson, "Your Song" and "Me and Bobby McGee"; Peggy Platt, "Better Late Than Never"; Debbie Schaeperkoetter, "The Stripper"; Noel Hunsaker, Jeff and Arne Dixon, "Yo-Yoing Dixon Boys";

Colleen Pike, "Poems, Prayers and Promises"; Diane Czwarkiel, "The Eagle and the Hawk"; Sylvia Gladstone, "Annie's Song"; Maria Plattino, "I'm

Only a Bird in a Gilded Cage"; Ronnie and Frank Roberts, "Fire" and "Dance Machine";

Lee Baxter and Jerry Slater, "Down by the River"; Penny Wells, Becky Liles and Dori Nelson, "Morning Has Broken"; Jerry Carter, Jim Titterington and Dave Donelson, "One Tin Soldier"; and "Sweet Surrender", and Dan Quinell, "Maple Leaf Rag", "J.D.'s Boogie" and "Lady Bird."

A gift to the community in many ways was the annual Christmas concert. Not only was no admission charged but the pieces played stirred Christmas dreams and memories for all present.

Pre-concert entertainment was supplied by the Jazz Ensemble and Arion Singers. Concert Band opened the program with a "Toboggan Ride". Then the Chorus, dressed as toys and children, to suit their program of songs, added nostalgia. The String Ensemble added a special glow with "Sleigh Ride" by Mozart. The Concert Choir enchanted the audience with their selections. After an intermission, Symphonic Band played the stirring "Russian Christmas Music".

The concert closed with the audience joining Chorus, Choir and Band, singing a medley of carols, ending with the traditional "Hallelujah Chorus", sung by the Chorus, Choir and music alumni, accompanied by Symphonic Band.

Rob Sande looked very involved in his music.

"Lollipop anyone?" inquired the chorus.

"The Days of Wine and Roses" was the theme that set the mood for the Junior Prom on the night of February 1. With the help of red roses, soft lights, and mood-setting murals surrounding the dance floor, the Old Cafeteria was transformed into a dance hall. Couples shared many romantic moments dancing to the sounds of "United Flyte" throughout the evening.

Couples who attended appeared to have an enjoyable evening.

"United Flyte's" music kept couples dancing most of the evening.

ASB committees worked for students.

These committees and chairman served the Associated Students of Bothell High during 1974-75:

ASSEMBLY: Headed by Darrell Lee and Greg Sage, this committee scheduled all-school assemblies.

BUDGET: Chairman Jon Steeb worked with Mr. Bill McKennon and ASB Accountant Mr. Bob Leifer on money matters.

CONSTITUTION: Chaired by Bruce Ansell, this group reviewed constitutions of all clubs and groups, and amendments to the ASB constitution.

DANCE: Under Chairman Patty Kinney and Advisor Lynn Nothdurft, this committee scheduled all sock-hops and special dances, including Spring Sports sock-hops, new this year. They also sponsored the Homecoming dance.

ELECTIONS: President Lance Warrick and representatives of each class scheduled and supervised ASB, Pep Staff, and the Class elections.

STUDENT/FACULTY: Headed by John Gamalielson, this committee functioned to hear grievances of students and/or faculty.

Faculty members were Mr. Bob Andrews, Mr. Mike Hill, Mrs. Bev Leonard, Mr. Tom McNutt, Mr. Doug Sanford and Mrs. Mary Sloan.

HOMECOMING CENTRAL: Chairman Kathy Thomas and Jaiduk Jo, with Advisors Bev Culpepper and Al Lutz, guided the committee to serve as the central force organizing all the activities of the two-day function.

Mr. Bill McKennon served as advisor to all ASB committees in general.

ASB officers planned for students

A very famous man once said that "life is a torrent of water, ever, rushing, ever changing and ever flowing."

Our lives here are but eddies and whirlpools pausing for an instant and then rushing on. We meet for an instant and then are swept down the torrent. Many of the friendships and the happinesses we have found at Bothell this year may be brief, but many more yet are lasting. And these that are lasting will sweep down that river of life together, not to be separated. Not knowing where the future will take us, we seek each other, and that is good.

— ASB President Lance Warrick

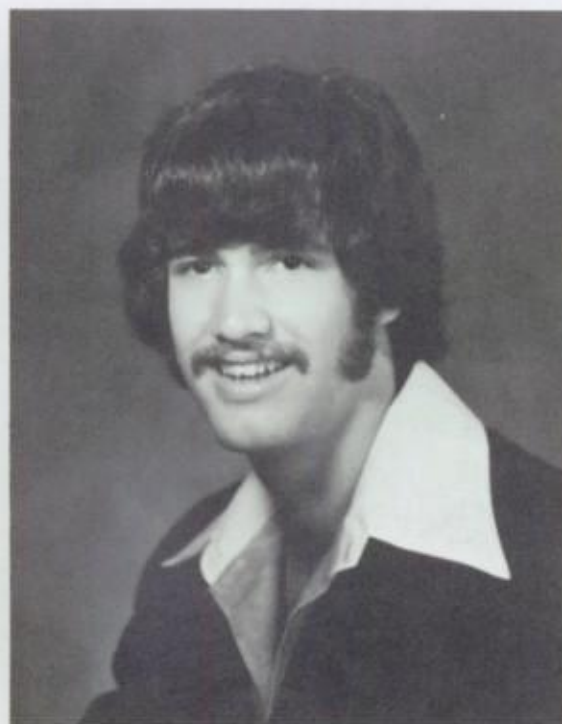

Vice President Brian Carter

Secretary Kathy Schaeperkoetter

Treasurer Jon Steeb

Activity Directors Darrell Lee and Greg Sage

"Not another amendment," groaned Kathy.

Carter pondered his presidential possibilities.

Our big spendin' Winter Quarter representatives.

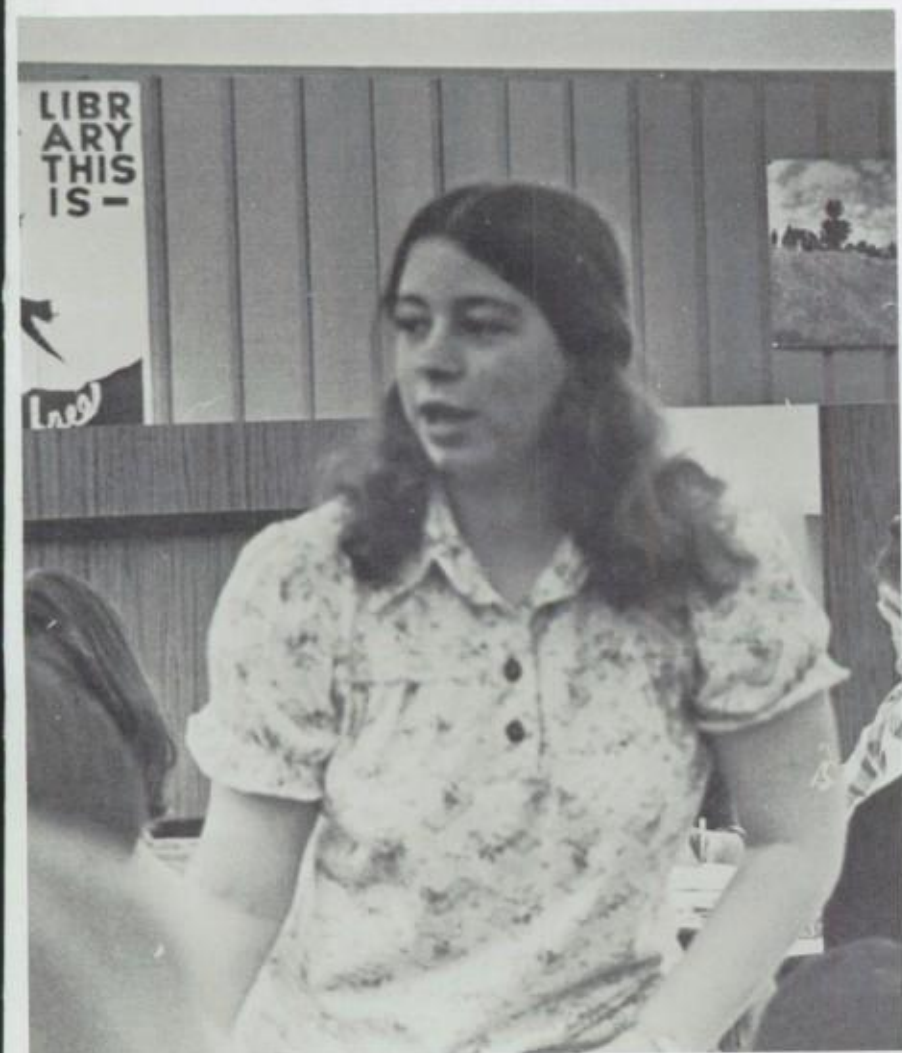

Legislative Council's Cup 'ranneth' over

Legislative Council representatives were chosen this year from 2nd period classes and the bulletin reading also was switched from 1st period to 2nd period roll rooms. Again this year, the main issues put before the Legislative Council members had to do with securing funds for the many clubs, teams and organizations within our school, such as a tennis ball machine for the Girls Tennis team, Washington Workshops, Chess and Debate.

Continuing issues most of the year were the vending machine; doing away with the morning bulletin, and the eternal smoking lounge. Student polls were taken and it was decided to keep the bulletin; and a majority of the students voted in favor of a smoking lounge.

Meetings were usually held every two weeks, on a staggered period schedule.

Kinney pointed out that the money was needed for...

Austin gawked at the awesome expenditure.

Krieger had a hypnotized harem.

... And it REALLY came to pass...

The "Cougar Kids" have done it again!

Amid the unceasing confusion of prints, negatives, AC cups and insane editors, they managed to put out the 1975 Bothell High "Cougar". Comprised of sophomores, juniors and seniors alike, the "Cougar Kids" resisted the urge to bend the pica rulers to unrecognition; and tried to recognize all pictures.

Mrs. Eleanor Wallis advised the confused and chaotic group despite her persistent state of one-armedness. She was aided fall quarter by Intern Mike Minor (BHS '68); and occasionally by non-staffers from Catamount or Communications Lab.

Major editors were Rob Dolan, editor-in-chief; Elaine Hopper and Gloria Santamaria, assistant editors; Char Raymond, sports editor; Don Henrikson, coordinating editor; Vivian Saunders, photo editor and Mike Ristow, chief photographer; while fund raising affairs were handled by Lori Keller, business manager.

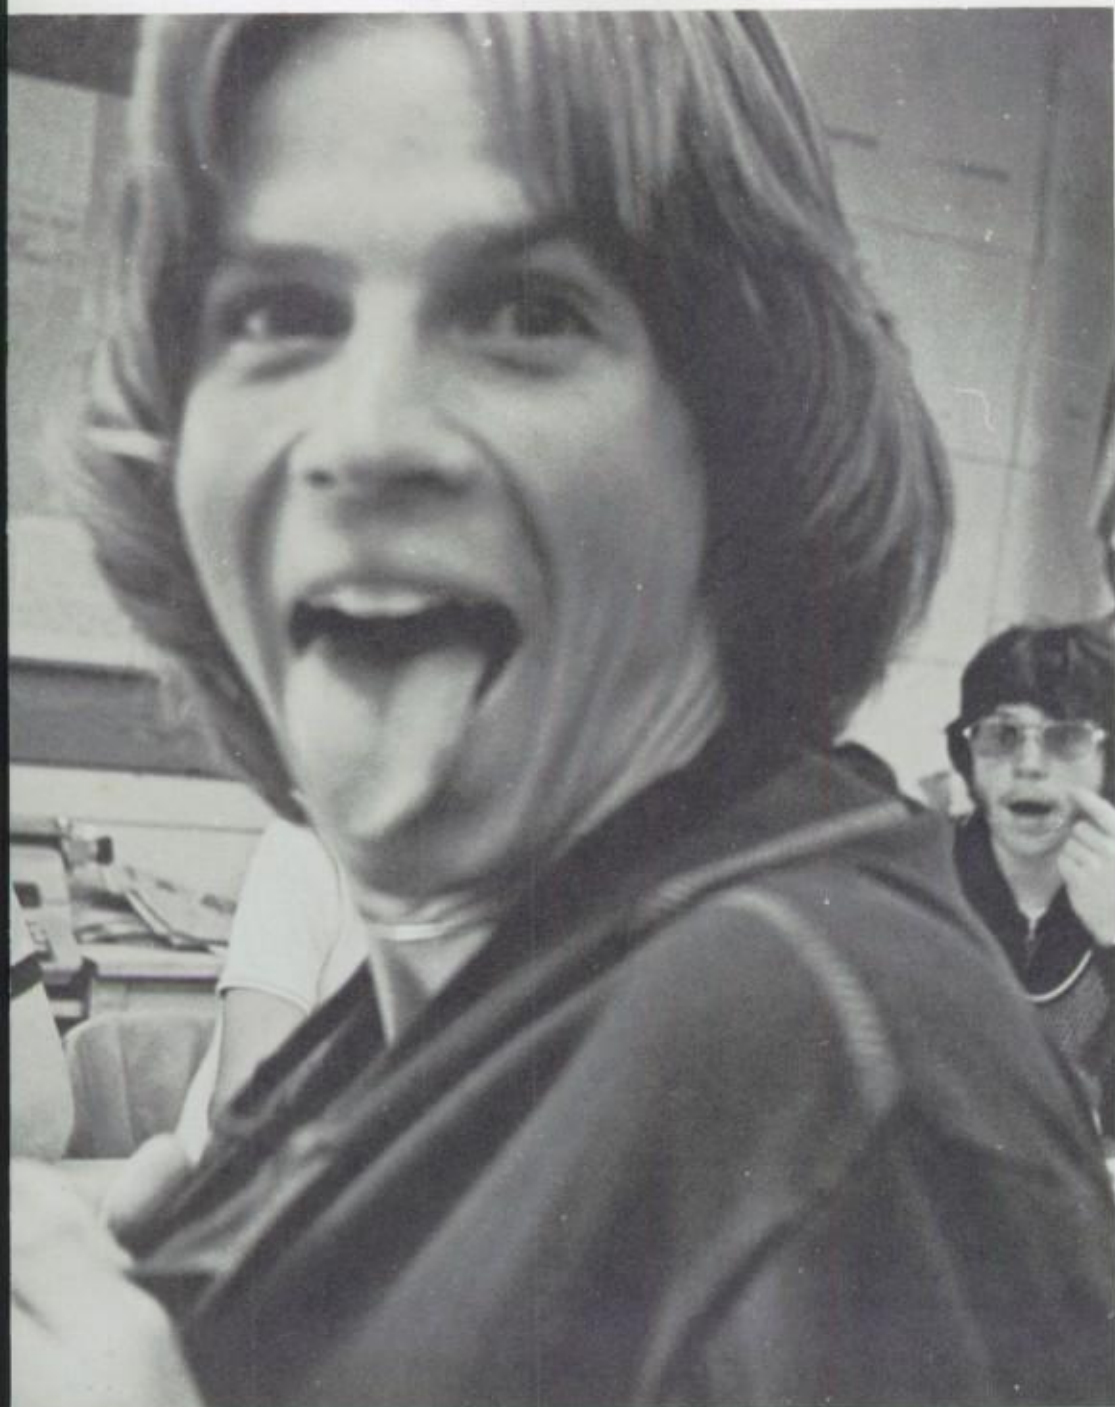

Under the threat of grueling all-night work parties, the 'Kids managed to control their urges to venture to the Kirkland A&W for coneydogs, and to complete work for all deadlines.

All in all, after Whitehorse introductions, it grew to one big happy family, as the "1975 Cougar" emerged from oblivion.

Editorial ideas sprouted freely!

Editor Dolan's reaction to criticism was often uncooperative.

Vicky and Mark, late to class, did their laps without protest...even (as the Advisor suspected) enjoying the extra time out of class.

Raymond and Strom reacted rowdily to week-end work sessions.

Pam pondered how and where to cut too-long copy.

BOTHELL SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

VOLUME XXXVI

1974 - 1975

Again this year it was the policy of the Catamount to keep the school and community informed as to events past, present, and future; commendable programs and individuals; problems that might need rectification, and, at times, to suggest proposals or options for consideration. The school newspaper tried to be the conscience of the community.

Catamount

Published 15 times each school year by the Publications students of Bothell Senior High School, Bothell, Washington 98011. Mrs. Eleanor Wallis, advisor.

CATAMOUNT'S presses continued to roll, proving no advisor is indispensable, thanks to Student Teacher Mike Minor and "All-Around" Substitute Mrs. Pat Habeck. (One consolation about hospitals; you just can't do anything about page make-up there!)

Editor Don Henrikson was ably assisted in organizing for this issue by Assistant Editor Tami Whitaker, Features Editor Rob Dolan, and (especially!) that peripatetic, assign-it-to-everybody-else Sports Editor Ray Krontz.

Creating problems for editors by filling up space with ads were Business Manager Richard West and his crew including Ad Manager Jim Huey; Accountants Marcy Jones and Kathy Jery; sometime salesmen Dan Francis and Terry Landa and miscellaneous staffers worried about grades.

Circulation manager Vicky Maimone was assisted by Jodi Brown and Cheryl Hasenack and anybody she could arm-wrestle into helping.

Staff writers included Brown,

Hasenack, Hopper, Huey, Jory, John Milligan, Char Raymond, Kathi Shotwell, Joy Spear, Mark Starwich and Whitaker.

Copy-editing was handled by Copy Editor Kathy Thomas, with Karin Wells and Elaine Hopper.

Cub reporters included Diane Buehler (she spent all quarter trying to find out about assemblies ("do we get the info soon, Diane"), Kathy Dawkins, Leon Ford, Christi Gabrio, Sharon Hill, Jim Jakubisin, Joe Jensen, Greg Johns, Danelle Lewis, Scott McKennon (), John Moore, Desirae Noia, Ken Paulson, Mike Power, Dawn Rawson, Marla Reinders, Teri Straga, Randy Thayer and Trina Valente.

Photographers (who occasionally developed Road Rally and such pix in clear water, producing nice clear film) were headed by Chief Photographer Mike Ristow, with John Cooke, Rob Kaseberg, Scott Miller, Terry Reynolds, Steve Ritchey, Vivian Saunders, Dennis Weatherly and occasional Photography Class people assisting.

Game programs help fund CATAMOUNT; these were written by Raymond, typed by Patty Schmidt, and printed by escape artists Dave Weber, Larry Howe, Dave McDaniel and Brad Ruis.

(These were the grade points accumulated from the first quarter of the ninth grade to the fall quarter of the senior year. Positions and grade points are subject to revision. Final gpa's are shown in the Senior Edition of the "Catamount".)

Academic recognition went to scholars

Torch activities in 1974-75 included a sock-hop January 17; Valen-gram sales February 13; Selling blue-and-white BHS hats in the fall, and one single induction ceremony in the spring; indefinite at press time were plans for an outing in April or May.

Torch requirements continued high: 3.4 cumulative from 9th grade. Seniors who maintained this through spring quarter were entitled to wear — and keep — the gold honor cord at Commencement. Compounding problems this year was the semester system in use only at Leota; while all other schools were on the trimester; this necessitated recomputation of 9th grade records and delayed determination of eligibles.

Officers were President Paul Peterson, Vice-President Judy Crawford, and Secretary-Treasurer Lori Keller; advisors were Mrs. Ann Currie and Mr. Ted Uerling.

BOYS & GIRLS STATES

American Legion Post 127 and its Auxiliary sent a boy and a girl to Gonzaga U and Central Washington State college, for Boys and Girls States in June, 1974. Delegates were Don Henrikson, with alternates Brian Carter and Randy Nicholls; and Becky Hill, with alternates Julie Knight and Kim Luhn.

The two programs dealt with governmental activities, and model city and state governments were set up.

Scholarships and awards were announced in the graduation issue of the Catamount.

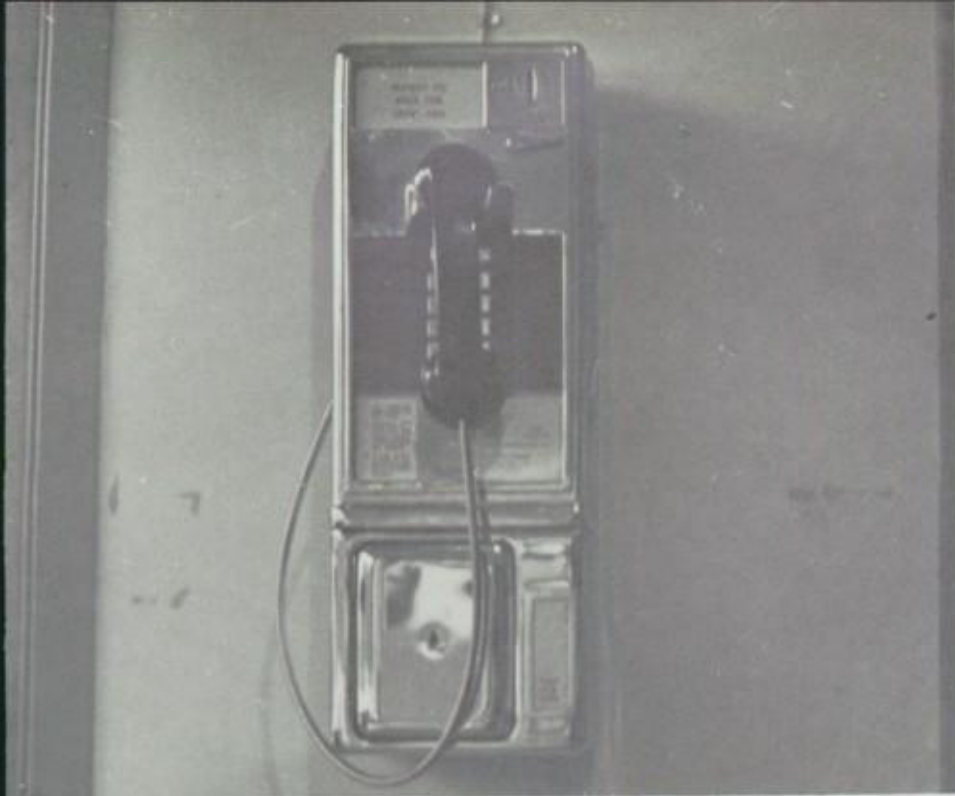

Honor Society officers Judy Crawford, vice president; Paul Peterson, president; and Lori Keller, secretary treasurer, grew friendly in solving the problems of Torch.

Girl's State Becky Hill demonstrated to Boy's State Don Henrikson how to . . .

Bothell's only National Merit Scholar was Laura Austin; Letters of Commendation were received by Audrey Singer, Mike Iwen, and Mike King.

The gym foyer phone took a pre-game rest before the mob attacked to call home for rides.

A mild winter followed...

Things began to get routine as Winter slipped around. Sophomores began to fit into the school picture ... but that couldn't be proved by '77'ers at Pep Assemblies.

Junior "Do-nut" Don Belland entered a regional do-nut eating contest at Seattle Center and wound up stuffed, but number one. Don then traveled to Los Angeles for the nationals and wolfed down 27 do-nuts in 15 minutes for national 4th place.

During Christmas vacation, a book detector system, "Checkpoint II", was installed in the library. Some North-shore residents had to have the "pioneer spirit;; to tough out a three day power shortage during vacation.

Kathy Shotwell aimed her mouth, shot her tongue out, and captured mouth watering snow flakes.

Sparse snowfalls whitened the January scene. As snowballs filled the air, students "Brodied" in the parking lot ... as usual.

Paddle-ball blossomed, flowered and then wilted in the frost; followed by Yo-Yo's and other similar trivia ... and so went the birth and death of fads.

A telephone was installed in the gym foyer allowing kids to call home after games and dances.

As the cold air chilled bones, timely sunny days brought warm reprieve, and a reminder that Spring was not far off.

Rob Dolan was "caught in the act" while attempting a library "rip off".

VICA, FBLA: outlets for involvement.

VICA

This year VICA (Vocational Industrial Clubs of America) operated in three sections; and were advised by Mr. Dick Mitchell and Mr. Mel Kolstad.

One of VICA's projects was to repair old or used bikes and trikes for needy children at Christmas. They also repaired faculty cars, to raise money for conferences and other activities.

The different sections of VICA, and their officers were:

ADVANCED AUTO SHOP: President John Marcell, VP Ken Rousseau, Secretary Terry Landa, Treasurer Dennis O'Leary, Reporter Ted Maus, and Parliamentarian Brandon Crownover.

BEGINNING AUTO SHOP: President Dave Weber, Vice President Buddy Schied, Treasurer Jeff Sande, Secretary Bob Lando, Reporter Bob Elliot, and Parliamentarian Mark Gilstrap.

METALS: President Randy Peterson, Vice President Ken Mikelson, Secretary Steve Miller, Treasurer Bruce Johnson, Reporter David Johns, and Parliamentarian Reuel Kempel.

Advanced Auto Shop

Metals

Beginning Auto Shop

FBLA

FBLA, a career-oriented club for Future Business Leaders of America, completed its second year of activity at BHS. Members again tended the Student Store and planned the promotional Business Education Fair for 9th graders in the spring.

Members also tried to earn enough points to enable them to attend the State Leadership Conference sponsored by the State Vocational Education program. Animal-shaped candles and two-year planning calendars were sold to raise funds.

FBLA officers were President Becky Hill, VP Pam Kuiken, Secretary Kathy Forbes, Treasurer Cynthia Thompson, Historian Lorri Nelson, Reporter Lori Keller and Parliamentarian Rob Dolan. Advisors were Mr. Bob Leifer, Mrs. Pat Lay and Miss Deena Hamilos.

Dance, Drama developed esthetics

THESPIANS

Mrs. Van Horn's drama class was again filled with hopeful actors and actresses trying out their dramatic talents for the enjoyment of others. These were augmented by advanced students who took part in the fall play, winter one-acts, or spring "East Lynne".

Those who earned sufficient points for set decorations and/or stage performances were admitted into the National Thespian Society.

THALIANS

Clad in black leotards, Mrs. Van Horn's modern dance girls whirled away the time during their sixth period class in the old cafeteria. They learned to express themselves with graceful movements and interpreted music, story, and drama. This year the dancers did not appear in the annual Christmas Concert, but directed their thoughts towards concerts and performances later in the year.

Thalians was a society for Modern Dance, to which girls earned initiation by proof of ability.

"The Second Shepherd, a Christmas play was presented by Intermediate Drama students for area elementary students. Miss Kathy Brainard, UW student teacher, directed.

"Let's see some MOTION", instructed Mrs. Van Horn.

Winter quarter Thalians performed for camera man.

Choristers sang for their own enjoyment,

The Arions showed their talent at every performance

plus the audiences'.

Bothell's three singing groups appeared in three all-school concerts; joined in the Walk-a-thon for uniforms; and competed in the KingCo choral and ensemble tests.

Chorus is the beginning group, open to any singer. Choir is the serious performing group, and this year was one of four "best in state" invited to the dedication of the UW's

Meany Hall. Three members were also named to All-Northwest Choir: Sue Pinnt, Tom Paulson, and Evan Holzknecht.

Arions are "the best" — an ensemble which performs by invitation at special community events also. All three groups were directed by Mr. Dennis Behrens.

The Chorus's tunes made Mr. Behrens smile with appreciation.

Melodious voices from the Choir rang through the halls at BHS.

Instrumentalists offer varied music programs.

All BHS instrumentalists joined during the fall football season as the "Bothell Marching Band", and still found time to work on serious music.

Beginning with the second annual Fall Music Festival November 14 (performed by the Jazz Band and Arion Singers), and drawing to a close with the ever-popular Spring Nite Club May 16-17, the instrumental groups again proved welcome. In addition to concerts, the two bands furnished "Pep Band" players at all home basketball games.

Important events for instrumentalists were the Christmas concert December 19; Midwinter February 27; Shoreline Symphonic & Jazz contest March 14-15; KingCo Bands contest April 9; and the Northshore Jazz Festival April 25.

Only one instrumental musician was selected for the All-Northwest Music conference February 14-18 — Flautist Anna Ackerman.

Orchestra, Concert Band and Jazz Ensemble, plus the Pep Bands, were directed by Mr. Judd Aetzel; while Mr. Bernie Ackerman directed the Symphonic Band, which grew gradually bigger all year as musicians "moved up" from Concert Band after exhaustive — and exhausting — auditions.

"Chamber music" was featured by this septet.

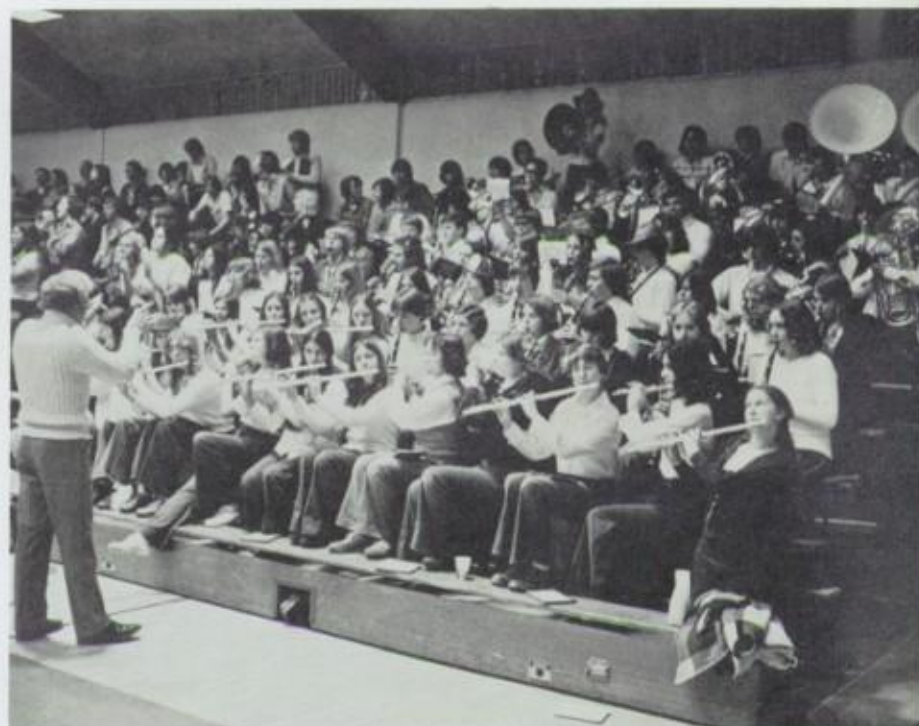

Concert Band provided a training ground.

Symphonic Band was the top group of bandsmen ... oops, bandspeople.

Jazz Band grew in popularity and honors all year.

Pep Bands gave spirit for assemblies and home games.

German Club is reactivated; has busy year

Die Auferklarten, which is German for "the enlightened" was brought back into being after a dormancy of eight years.

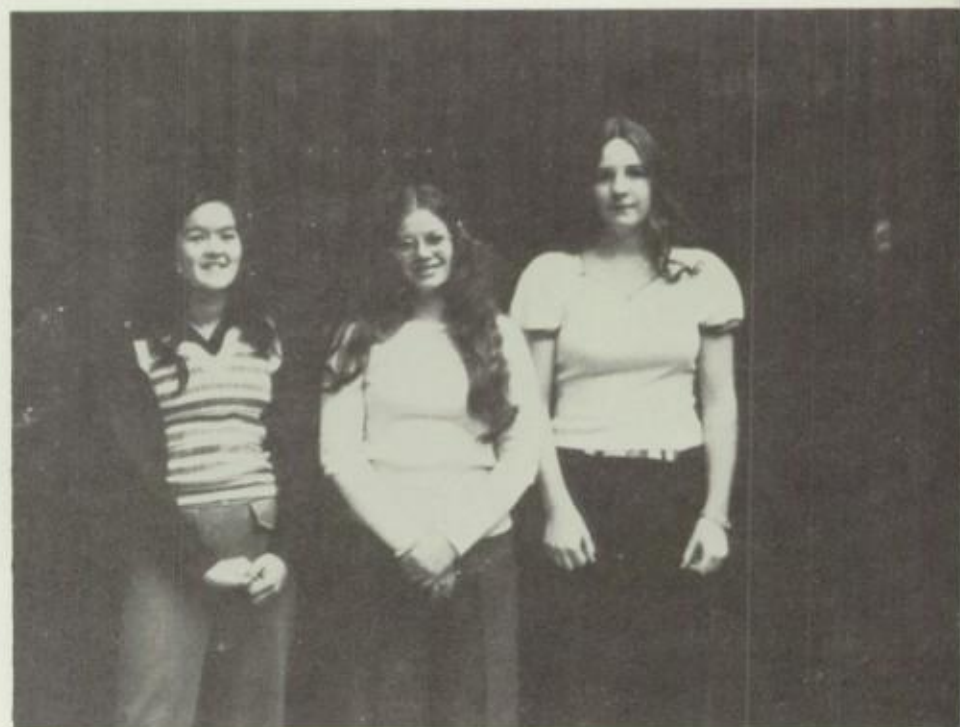

The club celebrated the fall with their Oktoberfest to raise activity money; held a Christmas Party; had guest speakers to talk about Germany, and other fund raising projects.

They hoped to use the money raised for either a trip to Vancouver's German colony or to a German restaurant for dinner.

Officers for this year's 21-member club were President Becky Puls, Vice President Tammy Hasenyager, Secretary - Treasurer Grace Emanoff and Advisor Ingrid Wiegand, assisted by TEPFO Intern Dan Olsen.

French Club continued... but Spanish died.

With Mlle Matalon as advisor the French Club met Thursdays after school. They sold creche scenes for Christmas and celebrated Mardi Gras in February. All fund-raising projects were geared to a trip to a French area such as Quebec; or at least dinner at a French restaurant.

This year officers were President Laura Austin, Vice President Dee Eaton, and Secretary Jane Dewey.

Spanish Club never got under way despite the largest enrollment of language students. A number of Latin American students were hosted as Exchange program guests, however.

French Club officers this year were, kneeling on left, Vice President Dee Eaton; Kneeling on right, President Laura Austin and Secretary Jane Dewey above Laura.

French Clubbers set up their Creche and Christmas spirit.

Service clubs helped school and community

INTERACT

Interact served the community with a variety of projects. Members sold donuts in the student store, parked cars at home games, collected old toys at Christmas time, sold refreshments at school play productions and also at some of the dances.

As in years before, Interact sold UNICEF cards during Christmas time to promote International understanding. Overseeing it all was Mr. James Thumlert.

Interact executive board: (Right to Left) Gloria Santamaria, president; Tammy Hasenyager, vice-president; Jane Dewey, secretary; and Allison Pollard, treasurer.

CANDYSTRIPEERS

Candystripers volunteered at Northshore Manor and Northwest Hospital. The money-raising projects included a car wash in the fall and a carameled apple sale in February. Advising as in previous years was Mrs. Edith Kilgren.

Candystripers (Back Row): Carol Adams, president, Eileen Cox, vice-president and Nancy Brown, secretary. Front: Elizabeth Beal, Kathy Turner and Gloria Santamaria, treasurer.

This was the active core of Pep Club "consisting of over a hundred members."

Pep Club Officers: Joy Spear, president; Becky Puls, vice-president; Pam Gilstrap, secretary; and Sandy Meyers, treasurer.

Pep Club kept the Guardian Angel tradition alive by supplying goodies to various sports team members. Members recruited good will and much spirit into the student body. Work parties were organized to construct posters to cheer all the teams. Officers were on hand at assemblies to help with activities.

Guardian Angels worked hard to decorate lockers before games.

Major projects were completed by the Guardian Angels, while officers supervised other activities, including the very frequent Pep Assemblies. Pep Club sponsored sock-hops and assisted at the Football Banquet. New this year were spring sports assemblies and sock-hops. Pep Club concluded one of its most quiescent years.

Cougar Cheerleaders showed high spirit.

The Cougar Pep Squad was increased to eight girls this year. Additions were made to better represent the high spirits of Bothell's student body.

Advised by Miss Mary Ellen Green, this year's squad consisted of Seniors Kathy Graves, Sue Pearson and Carole Vanden Akker; and Juniors Karen Baptie, Linda Clutter, Kolleen Kilpatrick, Leslie McMillan and Kerri Shandorf.

Fall Queens were Vanden Akker and Clutter; Kilpatrick and Graves took their places for winter sports.

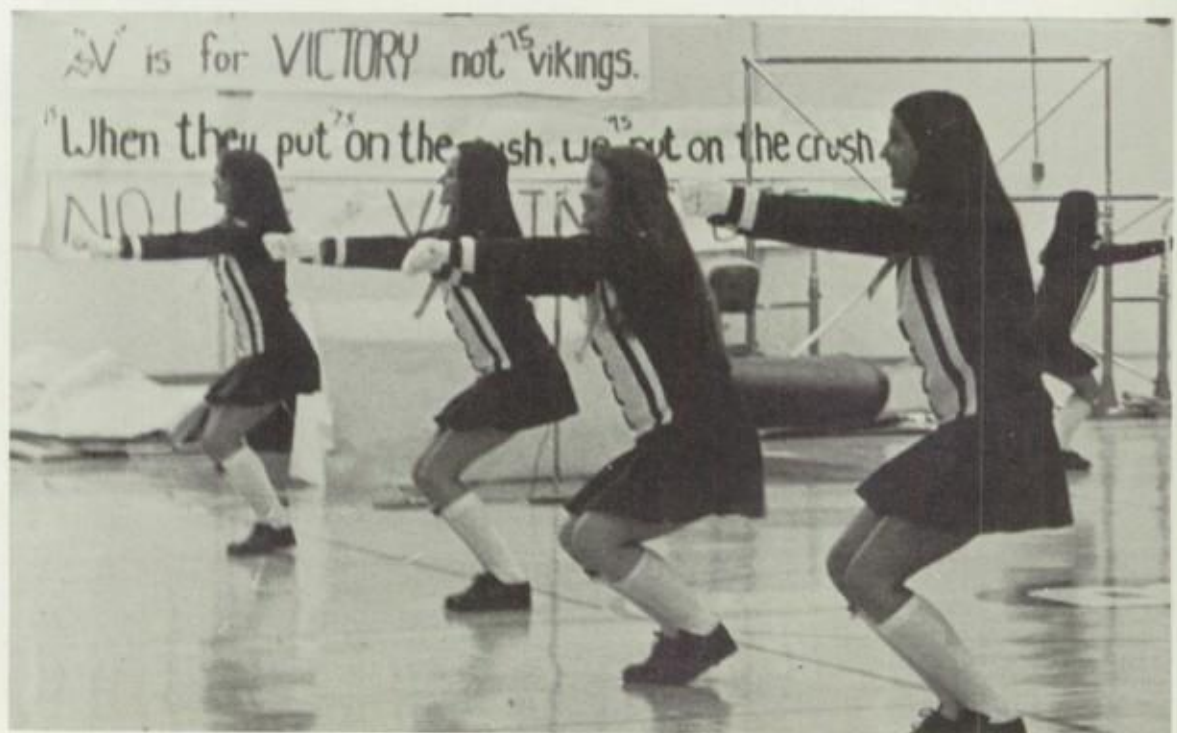

Leslie and Carole rode in style.

"I'm a raindrop . . ."

Kerri shared spirit with a smile.

The cheerleaders showed their good form and style.

Change was also in the wind for Pep Club as new officers were elected. They are Vice President Jo Cochran, Activities Director Dea Lund, President Diane Doerflein, Secretary-Treasurer Sue Longhom and Activities Director Cheryl Hasenack.

Pawns were puzzled in Mr. Max Jacobs' room, as the BHS chess squads criss-crossed their boards. An 8th-place showing in KingCo was not discouraging, since only one Varsity player was lost to graduation, John Gamalielson (2nd board). Fiona Liston, 3rd board, cracked the male-oriented team for the first time in many years. Also on Varsity were Sophomore Glen Ossiander, 1st; Juniors Steve Hopper, 4th, and Glen Broman, 5th.

Debaters concentrated on developing speech skills and individual thinking more than winning, this year, as an inexperienced squad planned for a brighter future with Coach Paul Dahlquist.

Spring brought changes.

Chess Clubbers Ossiander, Liston, Hopper and Broman pawned their rooks.

'74-'75 DEBATE--BACK ROW: Vance Remmey, Mark Brewster, Tim Erwin, Lance Warrick, Randy Nicholls, Delia Radeck. FRONT ROW: Sandy Ormbrek, Tom Nash, Steve Bowen, and Jerry Stults.

Spring not only signified a change in seasons, but also an election of cheer leaders. The 1975-76 Cheer staff includes: Karen Baptie, Lisa Eie, Sharon Hill, Gina Holmes, Kolleen Kilpatrick, Carol Lester, Leslie McMillan and Kerri Shandorf.

A new method of tryouts was introduced this year. It involved a month of training; a tryout in front of a panel of adult experts on May 1, and the usual appearance before the student body on May 2. Each tryout was counted 50%, making the choice based on factors other than popularity alone.

Honors were awarded ...

Recognized by Rotary as Boy and Girl honorees were Laura Austin and Todd Krieger. ... Senior Kathi Shotwell won special recognition, winning the Betty Crocker Homemaker award with the highest BHS scores on a multiple-choice test given by General Mills. ... Competing in the State VICA skills contest were Dan Montemayor, welding, and Ken Rousseau, auto. In the State Industrial Arts meet, Junior Steve Miller won "Most Outstanding Project" for his disc sander; and blue ribbons were brought home by Arnie Conyers, Hal Grimm, Brian Hirschy and Mike McIntosh.

Steve Miller, Arnie Conyers, Brian Hirschy and Hal Grimm were winners at the State IA conference in Wenatchee.

Kathi Shotwell demonstrated the talents that helped her win the Betty Crocker Homemaking Award.

Four girls from Bothell FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America) competed in their State Conference at Central Washington State in April: Seniors Becky Hill, Lori Keller and Shelly Wallace; and Junior Pam Kuiken. They competed for state championships in skills such as accounting, typing and shorthand; Shelly won a Certificate of Merit in shorthand. Several scholarships had been awarded by press time: Puget Power four-year scholarship to Dave Loukusa; Seattle U to Laura Austin; and Lake City Elks Most Valuable Student Leader to Bruce Ansell; Vocational to Mike McIntosh.

Chosen by the American Legion to represent BHS at Boys and Girls States, both June 8-13, were Juniors Brian Eklund and Kathy Schaeperkoetter. Gary Peterson was 1st Alternate for Boys; Cathy Helgeland, Sharon Hill and Denise Owens for Girls alternates. Winners will take part in mock governments -- Boys State at Gonzaga University; and Girls State at Central. Candidates were first nominated by faculty, then selected by Legionnaires and Auxiliary members.

ASB OFFICERS for 1975-76 -- SEATED: Vice President Lea Knight, Treasurer Wendy Lance and Secretary Joanne Bibbins. STANDING: Activities Coordinators Gary Peterson and Joe Jensen.

TOP MAN: Home from hospital in his neck brace, new ASB Prexy Chris Holzknecht.

McNUTT: Who can take his place?

Winners . . . and Leaver

Final elections for officers for 1975-76 were held following a second-period assembly May 15. Finalists (after preliminary balloting for at least two candidates for each office) were (with winner starred and named first): President Chris Holzknecht* vs. Dan Sullivan; Vice President Lea Knight* vs. Jerry Carter; Secretary Joanne Bibbins* vs. Carol Berg; Treasurer Wendy Lance* vs. Rob Sande; and Activities Coordinators Joe Jensen* and Gary Peterson* vs. Brian Crabb and Trina Valente.

Spring was saddened by the resignation of Mr. Tom McNutt, a 29-year veteran of BHS (teacher 12 years, chief counselor three years, vice principal six years, administrative assistant the past five years). He resigned to become principal of St. Monica's, a grade school on Mercer Island (he called it "a rest"). Resigning their coaching, but not teaching, assignments were Head Basketball Coach Allan Kollar and Assistant Robert Andrews.

After exhaustive interviews and balloting by staff seniors, top positions were chosen for Volume 37 of the "Cougar" and Volume 37 of the "Catamount". Ray Krantz and Pam Kuiken will be editor and business manager for the newspaper, while Char Raymond and Diane Doerflein will do the same for the yearbook.

Editorial Board members for the "Catamount" will be Managing Editors Greg Johns, Scott McKennon and Tami Whitaker; Copy Editor Karin Wells, and Exchange Editor Cheryl Hasenack.

"Cougar '76" will have as its Editorial Board Managing Editors Rob Kaseberg and Don Wirta; Advertising Manager Jean Fries; and Assistant Editors John Cooke, Sharon Hill, Joe Jensen, Debbie McDonald, Pam Middleton and Kathy Schaeperkoetter.

A swinging year was predicted for 1975-76 as Diane Doerflein and Char Raymond, for annual; and Ray Krantz and Pamala Kuiken, for newspaper, got into the swing of things.

Rotary named only one set of Boy and Girl of the Month; they were Laura Austin and Todd Krieger.

"It seems to me a crime that we should age ..
These fragile times should never slip us by:
A time you never can or shall erase,
As friends together watch their childhood fly."
-- Elton John & Bernie Taupin

Realizing that their high school days were quickly coming to an end, Seniors and friends looked to the Senior Ball to highlight their years at BHS.

Nile Country Club, overlooking Lake Ballinger, was the setting for the Saturday, April 12, occasion. Couples danced to the music of "Blue Mountain Eagle" from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Few will soon forget the moments of friendship shared.

Tina Dixon served as general chair, assisted by Landy Alo, backdrop; Denise Chavez, decorations; Debbie Jefferson, programs and publicity; and Randy Nicholls, ticket sales.

Chaperones were the Bangers, the Dixons, the Johnsons and the Luckenbachs; with Dance Advisor Edith Kilgren and Class of 1975 Counselor Gary Reul. They were joined by many faculty couples for the evening of enjoyment.

During the fast moving dances couples often lost sight of one another.

Friends together watched the evening fly.

Dancers embraced during the soft rhythmic tunes of "Blue Mountain Eagle".

Delia Radeck and Mike Stultz shared magical moments by candlelight.

Blue Mountain Eagle's large repertoire of hits made it a favorite with Bothell High.

Lori Keller, Mark Starwich, Cheri Eader, Tim Erwin, Kathy Graves, and Rick Herring found an intimate refuge from the crowded dance floor.

Swinging partners jived, boogied, and bee-bopped to their hearts' content.

"Variety in Music" seemed to be the theme of the Mid-Winter Concert presented February 27 with all musical units participating. Proceeds from this event went entirely to the uniform repayment fund. Fitted into a very busy Lenten season, the concert nevertheless drew a capacity crowd.

Student Teacher Paul McNutt conducted several elements of the Mid-Winter Concert.

Concerts brightened the seasons; 'Oklahoma!' was another hit.

Bob Eaton, Greg Wilson and Jay Smith, three of Director Bernie Ackerman's wild Indians, drew rounds of applause in an instrumental special.

"Oklahoma!" was the theme of this year's Spring Nite Club, May 16-17 in the gym. Both bands, Jazz and String Ensembles, as well as Choir and Chorus, wore costumes symbolic of the western expansion theme.

A new Bob Sutherland ('73) Memorial summer campership was announced; the first winner was Sylvia Gladstone. Two scholarships and five camperships were awarded by Bothell Music Boosters president Mr. Wayne Hovde — $200 each to Kevin Mueller and Sue Pinnt; and summer awards to Anna Ackerman, Peggy Howard, Fiona Liston, Jeff McKinney and Nancy Pinnt. US Marine Band "District Musician" was Colin Funai; and Mrs. Bev Wilson was given the "Booster" award.

Four awards are voted annually by the musicians themselves. Winners this year were, at left, Dianne Nelson, receiving the Arion award from Mr. Dennis Behrens; and, at right, Rob Sande, National School Orchestra award recipient. Bill Martorano, who was attending a special clinic and Arts Festival at Fort Worden, won both the John Philip Sousa Band and Louis Armstrong Jazz awards, in absentia.

Romance bloomed, but Curly (Evan Holzknicht) and Laurey (Sue Pinnt) worried that "People Will Say We're In Love".

Barb Kaskes as Ado Annie had a few doubts, but Will Parker (Ron Korneliussen) demanded "All er Nuthin" from her.

SECONDARY LEADS were played by Choir members: Aunt Eller by Lee Meserve; Judd by Tom Paulson; Old Man Carnes by Jon Steeb; Ike by Glen Stevens; Fred by Rick Lysen; and Cord Elam by John Tessem. The SSA Ensemble of Robin Carraher, Sue Dupar, Jean Fries, Dee Lund, Gwyn Matthews, and Dianne Nelson added color; as did a "Can-Can" number by Ann Holzknicht, Staci Howe, Becky Liles and Sandi Axelsson.

"Wilson" froze as "Joyce" scolded.

"Hi-Ho!" cackled "John Dill" to "Miss Corny".

'East Lynne' won plaudits...

"Miss Barbara Hare" listened intently as "John Dill" spoke to her of "Archibald".

Villain "Sir Francis Levison" tried his wiliest to seduce the winsome heroine, "Lady Isabel". (Hiss-s-s!)

A box-office success, the Drama Department presented "East Lynne" as the spring play, April 30 and May 1-3. Mrs. Joanne VanHorn directed the production.

"East Lynne", an English "mellerdrammer", was set on a large estate in 1870 England. Songs and dances in the style of British music halls of the period were presented between acts.

Cast members were Brian Bellile, Perry Brewster, Jane Dewey, Mike Dougan, Julie Dutro, Loreen Flanagan, Barb Kaskes, Chris Knight, Julie Knight, Bill Martorano, Sharon Nevaril, Diana Nol, Peggy Platt, Cheryl Robison and Mark Starwich.

...and Faculty earned cash.

The moment of truth arrived for "Comin' Round the Mountain", the faculty hit play.

Faculty "corn" was harvested for more than $700 - to be used for scholarships and school service, with the production of "Comin' Round the Mountain" and assorted "vaudeville" acts.

Faculty members taking play parts included Bob Andrews, Steve Cottinair, Robin Gray, Dee Hawkes, Lynn Nothdurft, Clare Roberts and Suzie Schaumberger; with Joan Fennell directing the hill-billy production.

Mary Sloan and Mary Ellen Green directed the 'tween-acts numbers, which included a jug band (Ron Church, Max Jacobs, Ron Juzeler, Doug Sanford and Jim Sullivan, led by Judd Aetzel); and numbers by Paul Dahlquist, Dave Gay, Adaline Good, Marianne Gregersen, Mike Hill, John Jacobs, Donna Knopf, Al Kollar, Pam Lowry, Al Lutz, Deena Maroutsos, Irene Matalon, Gurina McIlrath, Cal Schultz and Sally Strand.

Following too soon after Spring Vacation, Spring Week stumbled through the days of April 28-May 2. Loyalty sponsored the function, for which various activities were scheduled (and re-scheduled), including "Hobo Day" "Dress-Up Day" and "Female Chauvinist Day". The only events to draw much participation were the naming of "Mr. Irresistible" - Dale Supplee; and "Miss Sunshines" Kellie Warrick and Audrey Singer. Annual Staff claimed victory in volley-ball, by default.

Irresistible Sunshines perched loyally in a spring-blooming tree.

"Oh-h-h, life on the farm is fun in the cafe."

Daisy Mays grabbed Li'l Abners and headed out for foot-stompin' fun, as Moonshine Madness gripped BHS, the night of February 20. The tolo sponsored by Choir took place in the barn-like atmosphere of the old cafeteria. Couples received ceramic moonshine jugs as favors, and danced to the sounds of "Changes". Susie Dupar chaired the dance, and "Best Dressed Couple" award went to Tom Paulson and Stacy Howe, who received a puppy apiece, as prizes.

Moods and merriment mingled at the Sadie Hawkins tolo.

Loyalty Club had active year.

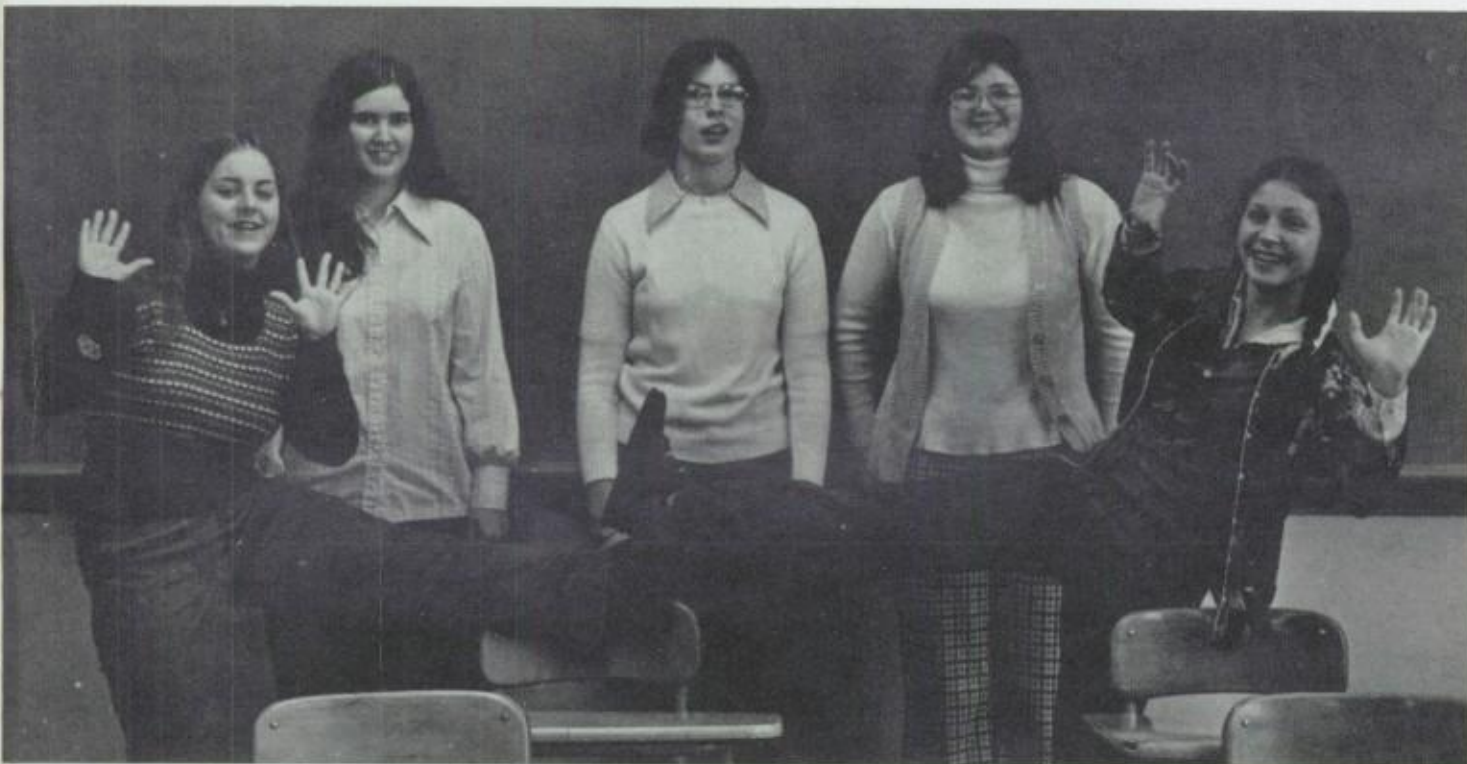

"So YOU did it!" exclaimed Tina.

Girls who wished to join Loyalty this year did not have to go through the traditional, embarrassing initiation of past years. President Colleen Pike headed the group. She was assisted by Vice President Dee Eaton, Secretary Tina Tsakonas and Treasurer Cheryl Farley.

Loyalty girls were kept busy selling candy, sponsoring a road rally, and paying monthly visits to Northshore Manor Nursing Home. Some of the money made in the projects was given to the Konlum Hospital Fund.

Greaser Day, a 50's dance, and Spring Week were among the other activities organized by Loyalty.

The woods often brought out the true spirit of class officers and Mr. Reul.

1972-73 ... During a student's first year at high school, an important part of growing up and maturing takes place. Through most of their sophomore year, that's what the Class of '75 did — growing not in size, but in unity and love. Led in their initial year by Class President Theresa Jeffery, they worked to arouse class spirit. Although their work didn't pay off — when Homecoming results were announced, Sophomores were third, with their theme "Whomp 'em" — they did defend their name against the upperclassmen, and conceived the idea that if they worked together, they could do almost anything.

1973-74 ... When their Junior year rolled around, a lot of things had to be done. They started out "in-between", taking 2nd in Homecoming with the theme "Head 'em off at the pass!". But taking 2nd only made them more determined and united. Historically, the Junior Prom had lost money instead of earning; but not for this class. With the theme "Happiness is a warm heart" they danced their way to a profit. Jon Steeb was their president their Junior year.

1974-75 ... Working their way up from 3rd to 1st made it easy for the Class of '75 to win overall and in all categories except Window at Homecoming. Class President Randy Nicholls brought new ideas and plans to boost their bank account. The Christmas Tolo added funds, and they took praised part in the Sophomore-sponsored Talenghetti.

The Class of '75 graduated June 7 as Bothell High's 62nd class. No one can really write the history of a class, because every student has made his own individual history. The Class of 1975 is that kind of class — each student has made his own history; and each can only remember it for himself.

Academics

*New

Northshore's

Mr. Lee Blakely

Dr. Richard Lance

Mr. John Sutherland

Mr. Ted Johns

Mrs. Janet Nelson

Mr. Dick Ramsey

Replacing long time Superintendent Julian Karp was Lee Blakely, himself a Northshore School District veteran administrator.

Assisting Mr. Blakely is Dr. Frank Love, Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Instruction, and Mr. Lee Maxwell, Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Business. Mrs. Florence Sperling continued as Director of Curriculum and Research.

Board members included Chairman Ted Johns, Dr. Richard Lance, John Sutherland, Janet Nelson and Dick Ramsey, who took into their hands the health, education and welfare of Bothell High Students.

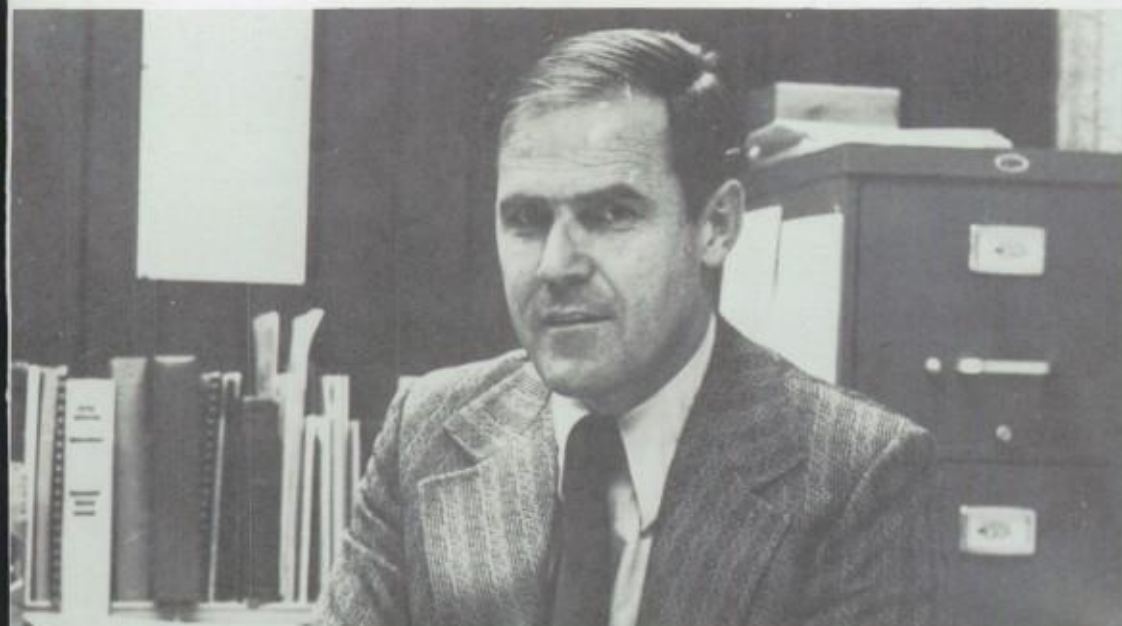

Dr. Frank Love

Mr. Lee Maxwell

The Board met once a week almost all year.

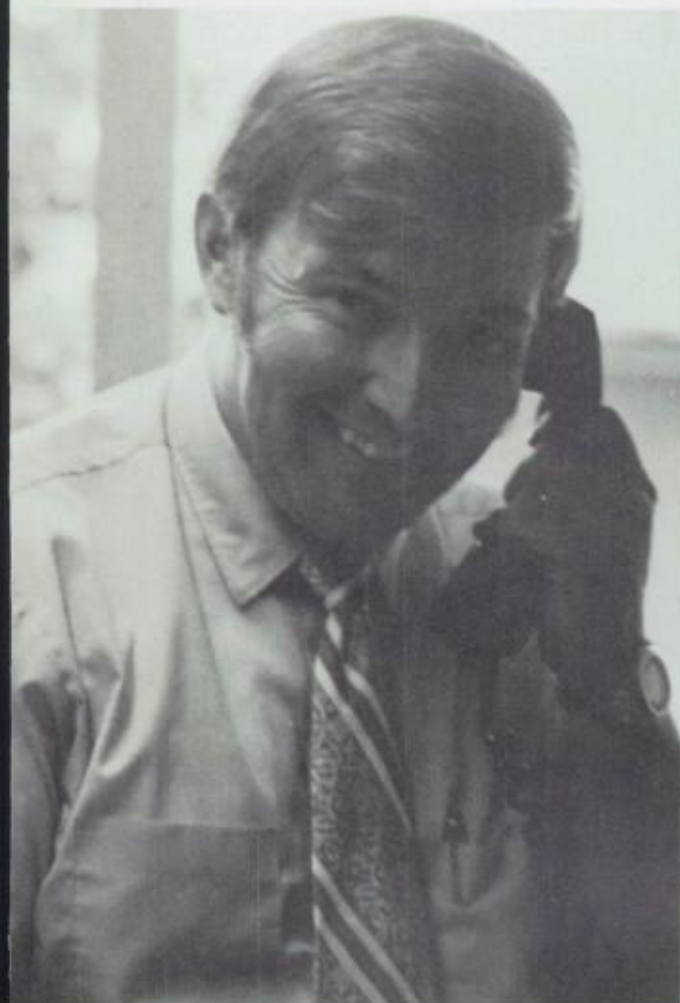

Mr. Larry Peterson

The growing interdependence of man is certainly a reality. Technological advancement, accelerated change, and the depletion of earth's resources all contribute to turmoil and interdependence. We have no choice but to learn to live together, to understand one another's needs and frustrations, and to work toward common goals.

Many have responded to the challenge with commitment and constructive action; the result is satisfaction and self esteem. One should not shy away from involvement as his contribution may be necessary to achieving a worthwhile goal. We hope that each student, remembering that no man liveth unto himself, will not lose sight of his or her opportunities and responsibilities to make the world a better place to live.

Realizing the turbulent times facing the class of 1975, I extend my wishes that each member will receive the true happiness and satisfaction that comes from working with and for others.

Larry Peterson

Mr. Ron Beckstrom

Mr. Tom McNutt

Mr. Bill McKennon

Mr. Larry Peterson assumed the role of Principal from retiring Arne Strand, for his twentieth year at B.H.S.

Taking over the job of Vice President from promoted Larry Peterson was ex math department head, Mr. Ron Beckstrom, who inherited the offices' disciplinary headaches.

Administrative Assistant Tom McNutt worked closely with Principal Peterson in supervising academic activities.

Activities Director Bill McKennon handled discipline with an iron hand and coordinated all extra curricular events.

Elective choices were wide

ARTS & CRAFTS

Offered again this year were various arts and activities classes, plus some new and unusual courses to broaden the curriculum of the Art department. Among these were a team-taught Home Design course; Macrame, Rug Making, Crocheting and Weaving—all taught team fashion. Students offered results of their training at the December Country Store and the Spring Art Fair.

Intermediate Drama was added to the performing arts program, with Drama Coach VanHorn assisted by UW Intern Kathy Brainard. Students learned staging and set decor as well as the expected acting.

Mr. JERRY BALDWIN: Ceramics; Batik; Design. BA in Art. 6th year.

Mr. PAUL DAHLQUIST: Art photography; Debate. BS in Hist, MFA in Fine Art. Extra-Curr: Debate. Hobbies: Painting, art, travel, family. 4th year.

Mrs. JOAN FENNEL: Department chairman; Weaving; Jewelry; Macrame; Needlecraft; Home Design; Oral Interpretation. BA. Extra-Curr: Faculty Play; Commencement. Hobbies: Playing bridge; riding; competition shooting. 11th year.

Mr. ALLAN KOLLAR: Drawing; Painting; Art History; Printmaking. BFA, working on MFA. Extra-Curr: Basketball (head).

"Oh, goodie goodie, I know that one!" said an ecstatic Mr. Kidder.

"I know it must be here somewhere" stated Mr. Wartes.

"Let me see. How many points for thumping a police car?" pondered Mr. Ristow.

She thought he didn't see her, but Mr. Hunter knew better.

NON-DEPARTMENTAL

Many "One-only" type classes do not fit into departmental categories, but are integral and important parts of a curriculum dedicated to offering each student the opportunity to reach his maximum potential. These ranged from Drivers' Education through Work Training and Special and Pre-Vocational Education.

Drivers' Theory offered an innovation called Driving Range, which provided for practice on simulated road situations.

Pre-Vocational Education prepared students for later jobs; students actually held jobs for credit and/or pay.

Special Education offered help to students with special handicaps and problems.

Mr. JOHN HUNTER: Drivers' Education. BA. Hobbies: Insurance. 3rd year (returning from IHS).

Mr. RON JUZELER: Pre-Vocational. BA. Extra-Curr; NSEA; Soccer. Hobbies: Sailboat racing, downhill and cross-country skiing, mountain climbing. 3rd year.

Mr. JOHN KIDDER: Special Ed. BA, MA 1/2 days at IHS. 2nd year back at BHS after stint in '60's.

Mrs. GURINA McILRATH: Department chairman; Pre-Vocational. BA, MA. Extra-Curr: Norwegian night school. Hobbies: Family. 10th year.

Mr. GENE RISTOW: Drivers' Education; Traffic Safety. BS. Hobbies: All sports, indoor and outdoor. 2nd year.

Mr. JON WARTES: Pre-Vocational. BA, MA in Ed/Counseling. Extra-Curr: Search & Rescue; King County police. Hobbies: Mountaineering. 3rd year.

Mrs. McIlrath wondered how many more shots the photographer would need.

Mr. Juzeler made out his schedule.

"That should do it" thought Mrs. Van Horn.

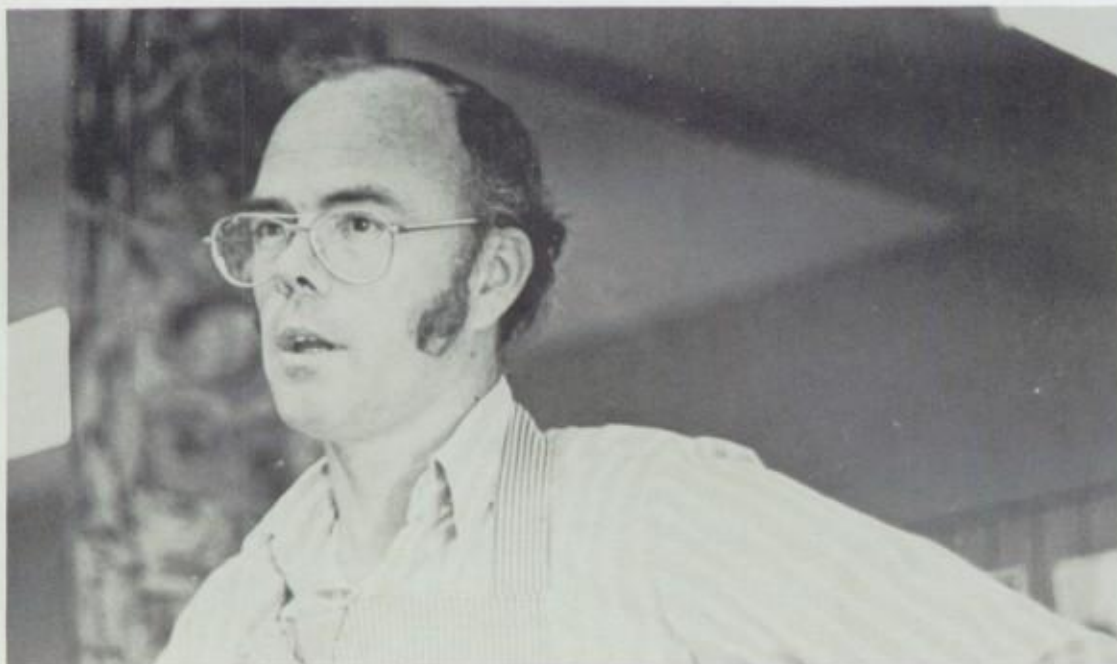

"A seven foot transfer!" smiled Mr. Kollar.

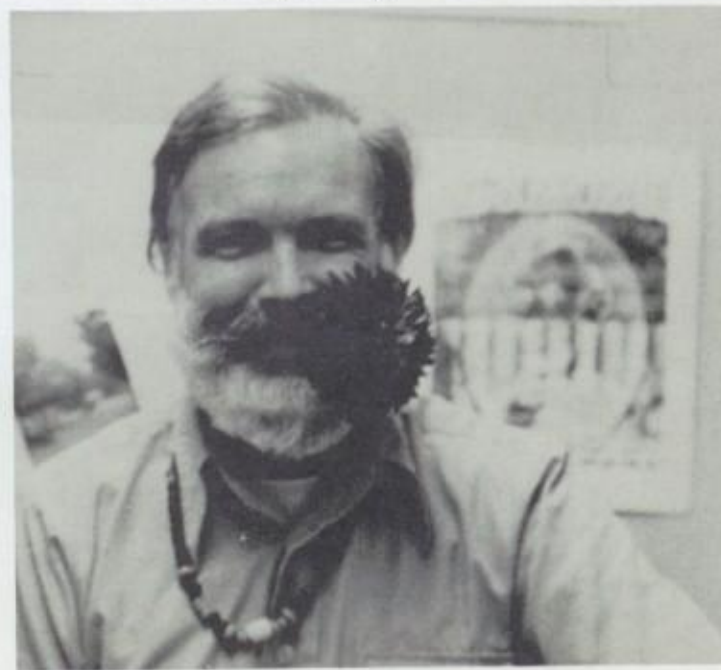

"Great cast!" exclaimed Mrs. Fennell.

"All right! Who threw that piece of clay?" questioned Mr. Baldwin.

"Isn't everyone great?" grinned Mr. Dahlquist.

Skills were readied to be put to use

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Business Education readied students for the challenge of the business world by offering Typing, Shorthand (beginning and advanced), Business Machines, Accounting, Record Keeping, and Clerical Lab.

The department was headed by Mr. Robert Leifer, who was also the ASB Accountant and an advisor to FBLA. New to the department was Miss Deena Hamilos.

Mrs. DEENA MAROUTSOS: Beginning & Advanced Typing; Beginning Shorthand. BA in Ed. Extra-Curr: Girls Softball. Hobbies: Hiking, sewing, travel. 1st year.

Mrs. PAT LAY: Clerical Lab; Advanced Shorthand; Beginning Shorthand; Business Machines. BA, MA in Bus Ed. Extra-Curr: FBLA. Hobbies: Sports watching. 6th year.

Mr. ROBERT LEIFER: Department chairman; Accounting; Record Keeping. BA in Ed. Extra-Curr: ASB Accountant; Student Store; FBLA. Hobbies: All sports. 9th year.

HOME ECONOMICS

Headed by Mrs. Edith Kilgren, this program offered more than the usual cooking and sewing courses. Child Development, Personal Tailoring, Lingerie, Family Living, Bachelor and Bachelorette Living, and Gourmet Cooking enlivened the program and sought to enrich and fulfill individual student needs.

Bachelor and Bachelorette, and Gourmet classes held dinners to which they invited friends, parents and teachers; and a luncheon each quarter for eight residents of Northshore Manor Nursing Home.

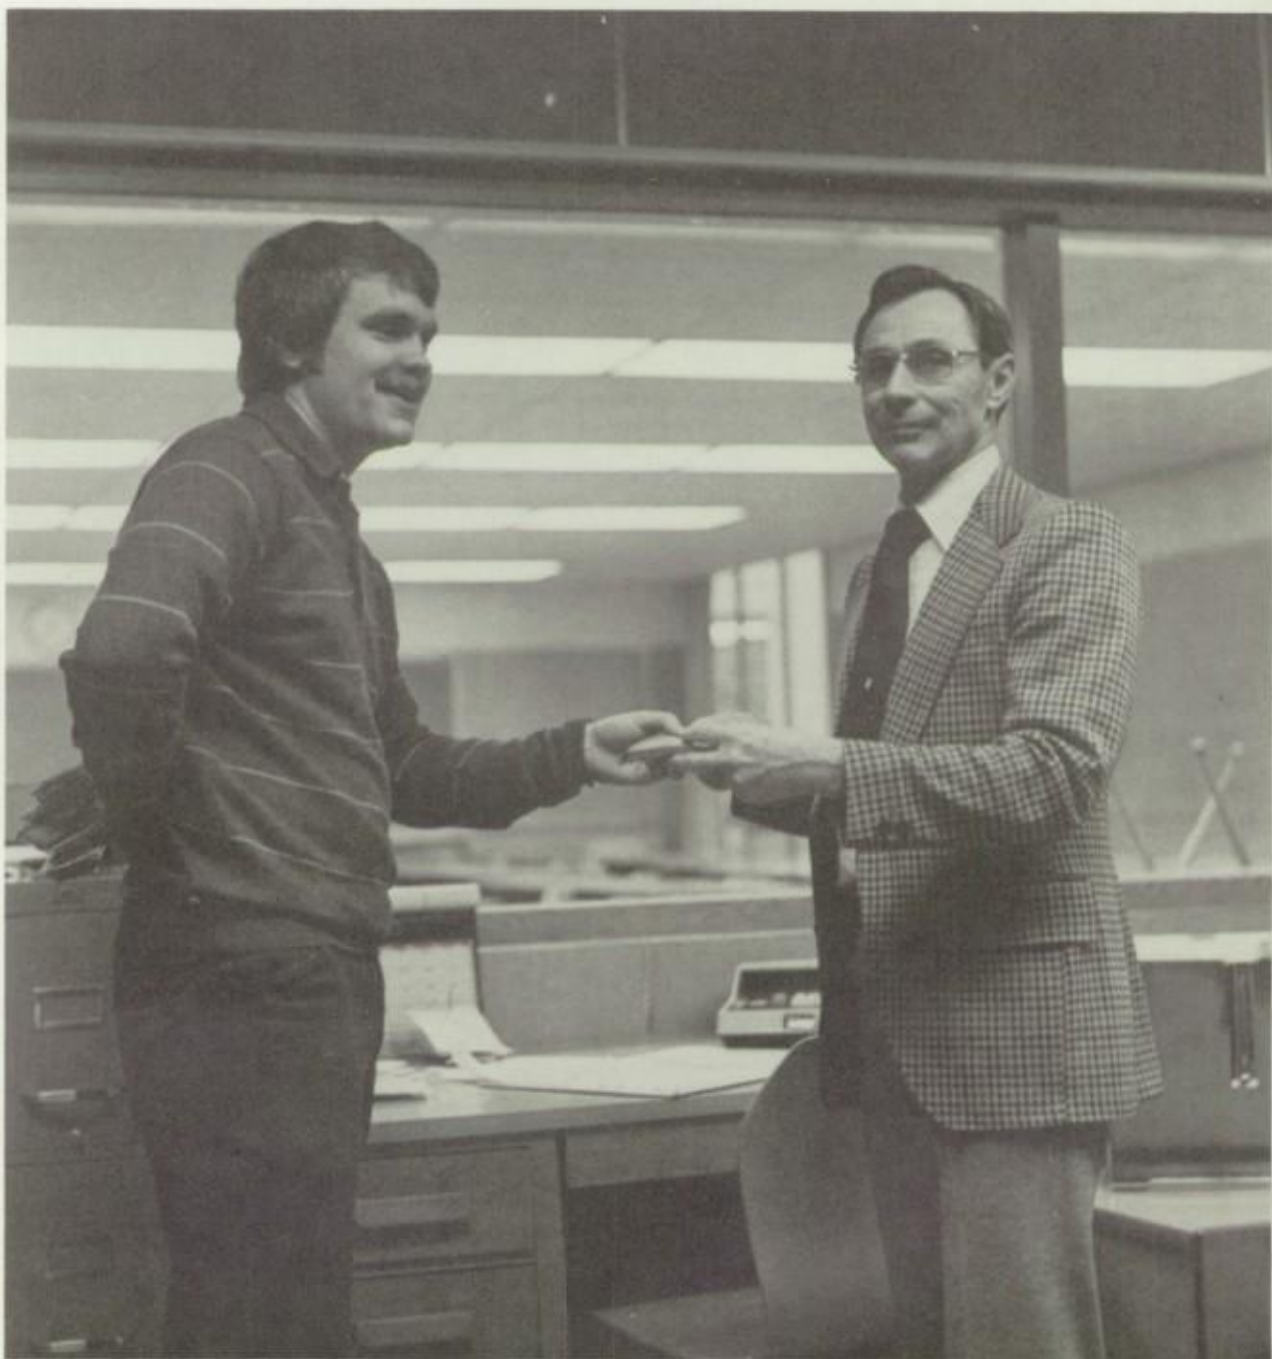

Mrs. EDITH KILGREN: Department chairman; Clothing; Foods; Family Living. BA in Home Ec. Extra-Curr: Candy Strippers. Hobbies: Folk dancing, travel, gardening. 8th year.

Mrs. GLENDA KIMSEY: Child Development; Clothing; Foods; Typing. BS in Home Ec. Ed. Extra-Curr: NSEA. Hobbies: Swimming, sewing. 2nd year.

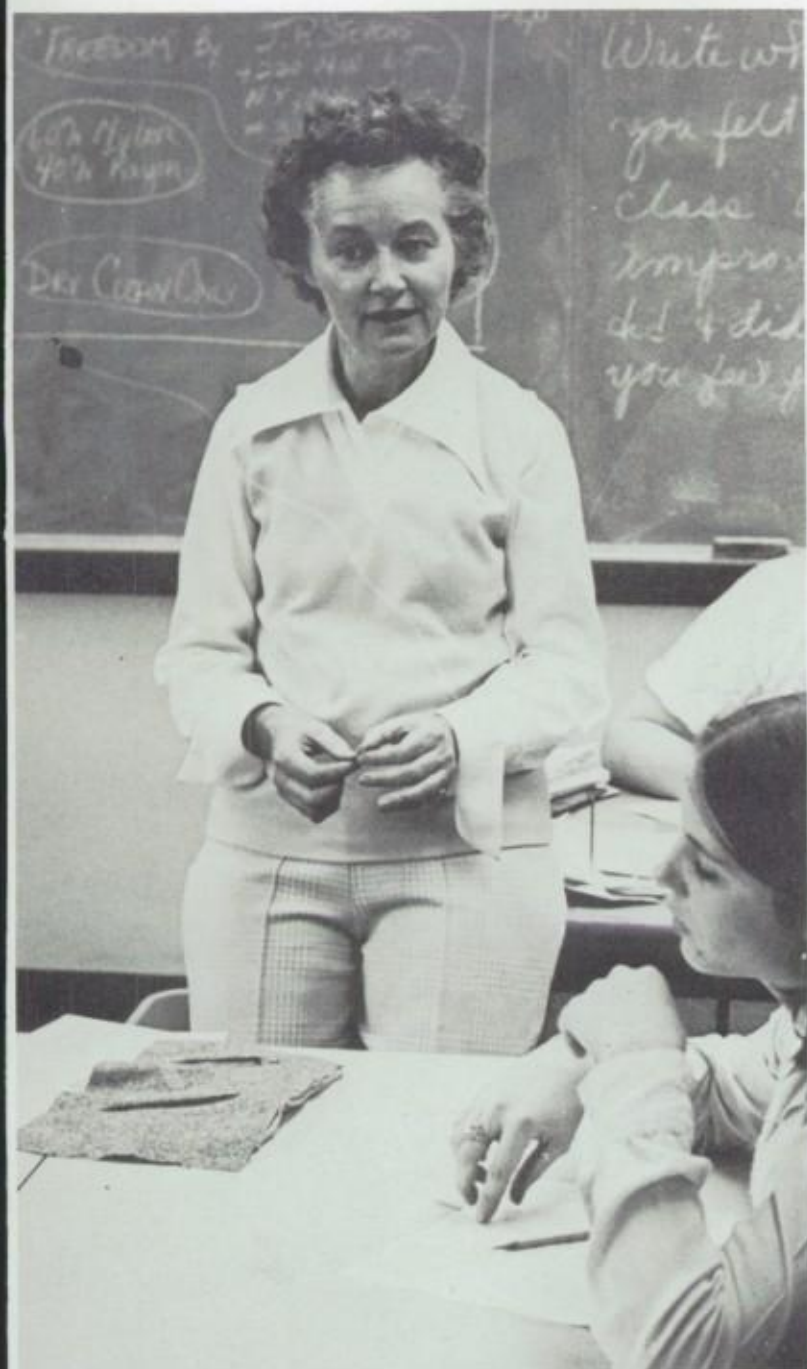

Miss SUSAN SCHAUMBERGER: Foods; Clothing; Bachelor Living. BA in Home Ec. Extra-Curr: PTSA Country Store. Hobbies: Knitting, water-skiing, bicycling. 3rd year.

"Is it a suzette? A pizza? Surely not a meringue?" pondered Miss Schaumberger.

Intern Mike Minor thought he'd found a way to earn a salary while student teaching; but ASB Accountant Mr. Leifer knew!

"Well, that's one way," stated Mrs. Kilgren.

Mrs. Kimsey searched for the unknown.

"You're not really going to turn that in!" exclaimed Mrs. Maroutsos.

Mrs. Lay and her ever present grade book.

Languages and math tested skills

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Other than a new French text, nothing new had been introduced in the department of Foreign Languages this year.

Beside learning to converse more or less ably in French, German or Spanish, students gained valuable insight in the traditions and life styles of various countries ... and a little more, also, about English grammar!

Interest was renewed in Exchange students, primarily from Latin America and Japan; and BHS students who came in contact with them invariably felt richer for it.

Miss IRENE MATALON: French 100, 200, 300. BA. Extra-Curr: French Club. 3rd year.

Mr. GARY OMAN: Department chairman; Spanish 100, 200, 300, 400. BA. Extra-Curr: Ski Coordinator; Exchange program. Hobbies: Sailing, skiing, hiking, travel. 8th year.

Mrs. INGRID WIEGAND: German 100, 200, 300. BA in German. Extra-Curr: German Club. Hobbies: Canoeing, camping. 7th year.

MATHEMATICS

Mrs. Pam Lowry joined staff to replace Vice-Principal Ron Beckstrom in the classroom, while Mrs. Bev Culpepper took over as Math department chairman. The only other significant change was a brand-new, BHS-only computer, making it possible for each high school to offer full-year computer courses.

Despite an entry of 36 students and four faculty from BHS, the annual mid-year, actuarial-sponsored Math Contest found no winners from Bothell, for the first time in many years.

Mr. RON CHURCH: Algebra II; Trigonometry; Beginning & Advanced Computer; Geometry; Refresher Math. BA in Math Ed. Extra-Curr: Basketball. Hobbies: Hiking, basketball, skiing. 5th year.

Mrs. BEVERLY CULPEPPER: Department chairman; Algebra I, II; Trigonometry; Math Analysis; Computer. BA in Math Ed. Extra-Curr: Homecoming Central. Hobbies: Family. 15th year.

Mr. MAXWELL JACOBS: Remedial Math, Math Fundamentals; Reading. BS. Extra-Curr: Chess Club. 2nd year.

Mrs. PAMELA LOWRY: Algebra I & II; Trigonometry; Geometry. BA in Math, BA in Psych. Extra-Curr: Girls Gymnastics. Hobbies: Skiing, sailing, water skiing. 1st year.

Mr. ALBERT LUTZ: Geometry; Intensive Geometry; Electronics; Industrial Math; Computer; Math Fundamentals. BA. Extra-Curr: Homecoming Central. 5th year.

Mr. DOUGLAS SANFORD: Mathematics; Regular & Intensive Geometry; Algebra; Trigonometry. BA. Extra-Curr: Sports ticket taker. 5th year.

"What a wonderful bunch of uh ... students," commented Mademoiselle Matalon.

"Not a bad decoration job," Frau Weigand said with pride.

Shh ... Senor Oman was about to spew forth another wise Spanish saying.

"My ... finger ... is ... stuck ... in ... the ... drawer!" Senora Roberts said in pain.

Mr. Sanford sagged after a long day's hard work.

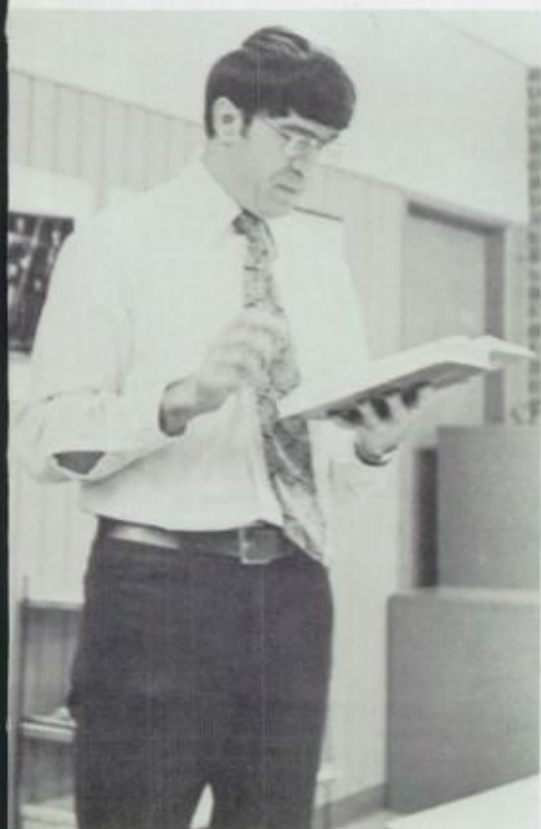

" $3+4=...$ uh ... 7 , $8+6=...$ uh ... 14 , now see how easy that was," Mr. Church explained to a future calculus student.

"You say you deserve an A? Well prove it!", exclaimed Mrs. Culpepper.

"Life is just a barrel of 4,098,984 cherries," Mr. Lowry said with a sigh.

Left: "After teaching calculus for a few years your hands would shake like this too," Mr. Lutz told his students shakily.

Mr. Jacobs rescued a damsel in distress from the dreaded Homework frizzes.

Music, industrial arts strove for perfection

MUSIC

Sporting new uniforms and robes, Bothell's vocal and instrumental classes continued the tradition of bringing good music to BHS audiences.

Concerts don't just happen—they are the result of long hours of practice and planning. BHS offers a complete range of classes from Chorus and Concert Band, which accept beginners, to Advanced Instrumentation, with a wide range of instruments.

Mr. BERNIE ACKERMAN: Marching Band; Symphonic Band; District Music Coordinator. BA, MA, nearing PhD in Music. Extra-Curr: Music. 19th year.

Mr. JUDD AETZEL: String Orchestra; Jazz Ensemble; Concert, Symphonic Bands; Marching Band; Instrumentation. BA, MA in Music Ed. Hobbies: Boating, sports, home entertainment systems. 5th year.

Mr. DENNIS BEHRENS: Choir; Chorus; Arion Ensemble; Guitar; Department Chairman. BA, MA in Music Ed. 14th year.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Industrial Arts remained one of the few male strongholds at BHS, despite Women's Lib. Drafting and Commercial Lettering were infiltrated by females, but most other IA classes were predominantly male, this year.

Auto Shop, Welding, Drafting provided learning experiences nearly the equivalent of apprenticeship programs, and were valuable for job seekers.

Lighting fixtures in the shops were strengthened after one bank crashed—without hurt—in November.

Mr. ROBERT BRADFORD: Drafting; Outdoor Education; Home Design; Commercial Lettering; Blueprint Reading. BA in IA Ed. Extra-Curr: Cross Country; Track. Hobbies: Camping, hiking. 6th year. Department chairman.

Mr. MELVIN KOLSTAD: Industrial & Technical Welding; Introduction to Metals; Metal Fabrication; Pattern & Foundry. BA in IA Ed. Extra-Curr: VICA. 5th year.

Mr. RICHARD MITCHELL: Auto Technology; MA in IA; Vocational Cert. Extra-Curr: VICA. Hobbies: Boating, music. 10th year.

Mr. DAVID NYLAND: Woods; Plastics; Home Appliance Repair. BA in IA Ed. 2nd year.

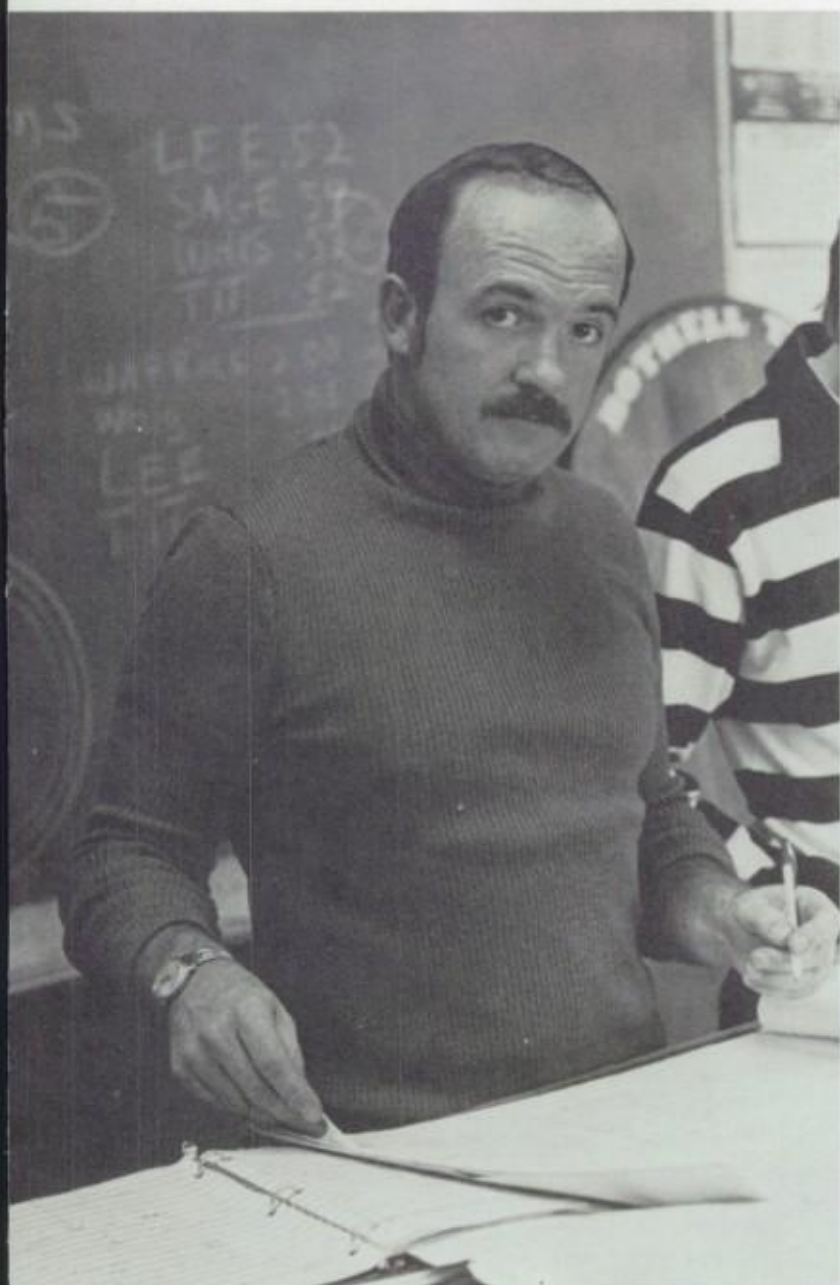

Ackerman addressed the assembled marchers.

Mr. Behrens pondered a student's questions.

A one-a, a two-a, a three-a . . . wunnerful: Aetzel

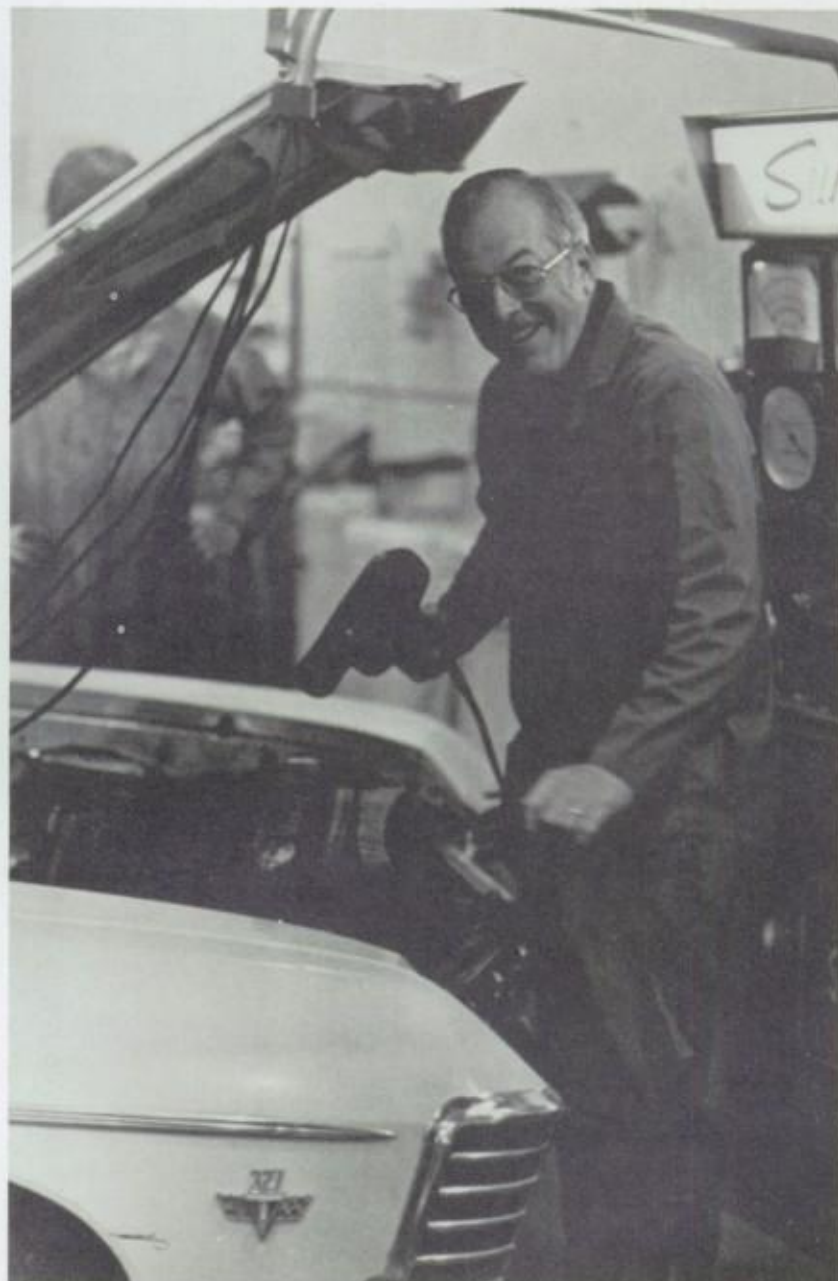

Mr. Bradford was not amused by the spitwad.

"These are pliers, P-L-I-E-R-S!" explained Mr. Nyland.

"Who's taking our picture?" asked Mr. Kolstad.

"This car needs help", laughed Mr. Mitchell.

Four new classes broadened the choices for all would-be English students, or just for those seeking the necessary English required credits (two English 10 + Speech; English 11 + two electives; none in Senior year).

Taught by Miss Anderson was "The Good, the Bad and the Ugly"; by Miss Harvey, "Television Script Writing"; and (for seniors, college-bound) "Shakespeare" was taught by Mr. John Jacobs. "Reading Adventure and Mystery" was redesigned and taught by Mrs. Knopf.

New emphasis was given to an understanding of grammar and usage in a "Special Problems in English" offered by Mr. Gay. The aim of the entire department was to ensure that every BHS graduate had at least a smattering of skill in his own language.

New classes broadened English electives, requirements

MISS NANCY ANDERSON: English 11; Children's Lit; Pre-College Writing; Speed Reading; The Good, Bad & Ugly. BA, MA. Extra-Curr: Pep Club. 4th year.
MR. ROBERT BASTASCH: English 10, Basic English; Speech; Creative Writing; Reading Adventure & Mystery. BA Eng; MA-Ed Adm.; Extra-Curr: Girls Basketball; Tickets. 5th year.

MRS. ANN CURRIE: English 10 & 11; Pop Novel; Science Fiction; Basic English. BS Eng Ed. Extra-Curr: Torch. Hobbies: Reading, gardening, travel. 7th year.

MR. DAVID GAY: English 11; Pop Novel; Soph Speech; Problems in Language; BA, MA. Extra-Curr: District English coordinator. Hobbies: Fly-fishing, reading. 10th year (+ 5 at Inglemoor).

MISS KATHLEEN HARVEY: English 11; Speech; Basic English; TV Script Writing. BA-Ed. 3rd year.

MR. JOHN JACOBS: English 10; Speech; Shakespeare, Pre-College Writing; College Scholarship counseling. BA, MA Eng. Hobbies: Athletics, drama. 4th year (+ 8 at IHS).

MRS. DONNA KNOPF: English 10; Speech; Reading Adv & Mystery. BS-Eng. Extra-Curr: NSEA Rep. Hobbies: Piano, indoor plants, cooking. 5th year.

MRS. BEVERLY LEONARD: English Skills; Reading Development. BA, MA-Ed. Hobbies: Riding, reading, family. 3rd year.

MR. LYNN NOTHDURFT: Film Study; English 10; Speech; Literary Puzzles; Small Appliance Repair. BA Eng. Extra-Curr: Boys Tennis; Dance Sup'v'r; NSEA Treasurer. 8th year.

MRS. JILL SKOG: English 11; Speed Reading; Pre-College Writing; Pop Novel; Science Fiction. BA. 5th year.

MRS. MARY SLOAN: Department Chairman. English 11; Children's Lit; English 10; Speech; Poetry. BA Eng. Hobbies: Attending plays & films. 5th year.

MRS. JOANNE VANHORN: Drama; Modern Dance. BA-Ed. Extra-Curr: Drama, Set Design, Sunshine Committee. Hobbies: Dance and drama classes, golf, sewing, quilting. 6th year.

MRS. ELEANOR WALLIS: Psychology & Adv Psych; Journalism; Annual; Cmu Lab/Graphic Arts; Paper. BA Journ. Extra-Curr: Publications. Hobbies: Knitting, crocheting, reading, daughters; WICI committee for HS Journalism prep. 15th year.

Spring fever hit Mrs. Sloan early in the year.

"OH, NO! Not another photographer," wailed Mr. Gay.

"Free periods are a real drag!" exclaimed Miss Anderson.

"It WAS t-h-i-s big," insisted Mr. J. Jacobs.

Mr. Bastasch: "Hey, you're holding up the hall traffic."

Mrs. Wallis and her fractured elbow of fate.

"Set sail with a rubber ducky, mates" exclaimed Mrs. Knopf.

"I'll trade my pencil for a cookie" asked Miss Harvey with a hopeful look.

"Currie's corner to be cancelled? Oh no!" thought Mrs. Currie.

"Did I see a bean jump?" marvelled Mrs. Skog.

"You're not leaving this class until you can read 900 words a minute," smiled Mrs. Leonard.

"Some of these movie critiques get pretty . . . well, uh, somewhat . . ." mused Mr. Northdurft.

Social Studies expanded horizons

The second largest discipline at BHS, Social Studies offered a wide variety of history electives for students showing an interest in the field. US History and three quarters of Senior classes continued as the only requirements.

Joining the staff this year were Mr. Michael Hill and Mrs. Grace Hofrichter. Mr. Hill, after November, spent mornings teaching at BHS, and afternoons as District Coordinator of Indian programs.

Mr. CHARLES BAKER: Government, Middle Ages, Youth & Law, Outdoor Ed. BA in Ed. Extra-Curr: Wrestling, Track. Hobbies: Hunting, fishing, camping. 8th year.

Mr. STEPHEN COTTNAIR: American History, American Minorities. BA in Hist. Ed. Extra-Curr: Football, Baseball. Hobbies: Basketball officiating. 7th year.

Miss JOANNE DUNN: CPS, Economics, Pol. Phil; Department Chairman, Extra-Curr; NSEA. 10th year.

Mr. DALE HEDDEN: CPS, US History, Am. Govt, Sociology. BA in Hist. Extra Curr: Wrestling. Hobbies: Science Fiction reading, backpacking. 2nd year.

Mr. MICHAEL HILL: US History, Early Man, Middle Ages, Modern Europe; NS District Indian Coordinator. Hobbies: skiing, photography, cooking. 1st year.

Mrs. GRACE HOFRICHTER: US History, World History, Government. BA. Hobbies: Anything outdoors. 1st year.

Mr. TED UERLING: US History, American Govt, Sociology. BA. Extra Curr: Honor Society. Hobbies: Sailing, cycling, camping. 11th year.

Mrs. MARY WATSON: US History, Current Prob, CPS. BA in Sec. Ed. Extra Curr: Girls Track. Hobbies: Gardening, old movies, painting, spectator sports. 5th year.

"No, the world is NOT round", explained Mrs. Watson.

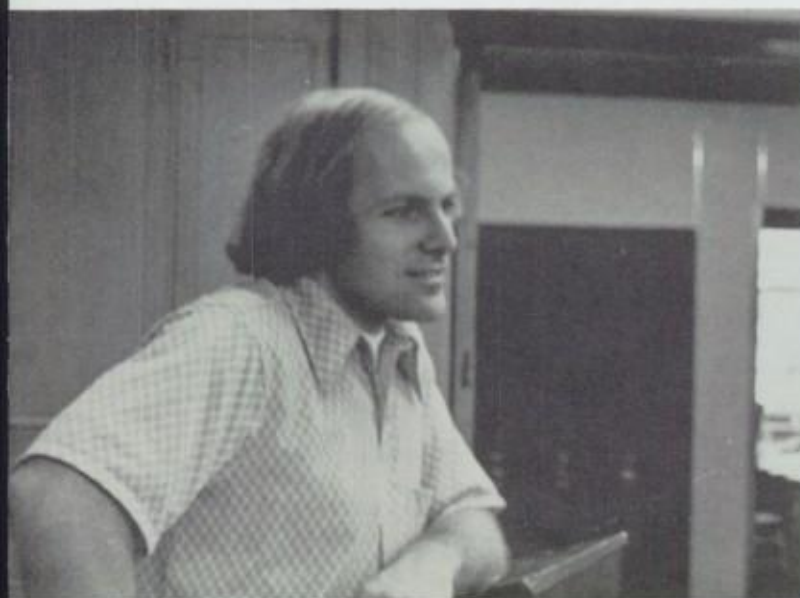

Mr. Baker's thoughts were on hiking.

Miss Dunn was pleased to find all Pol. Phil. reports were in.

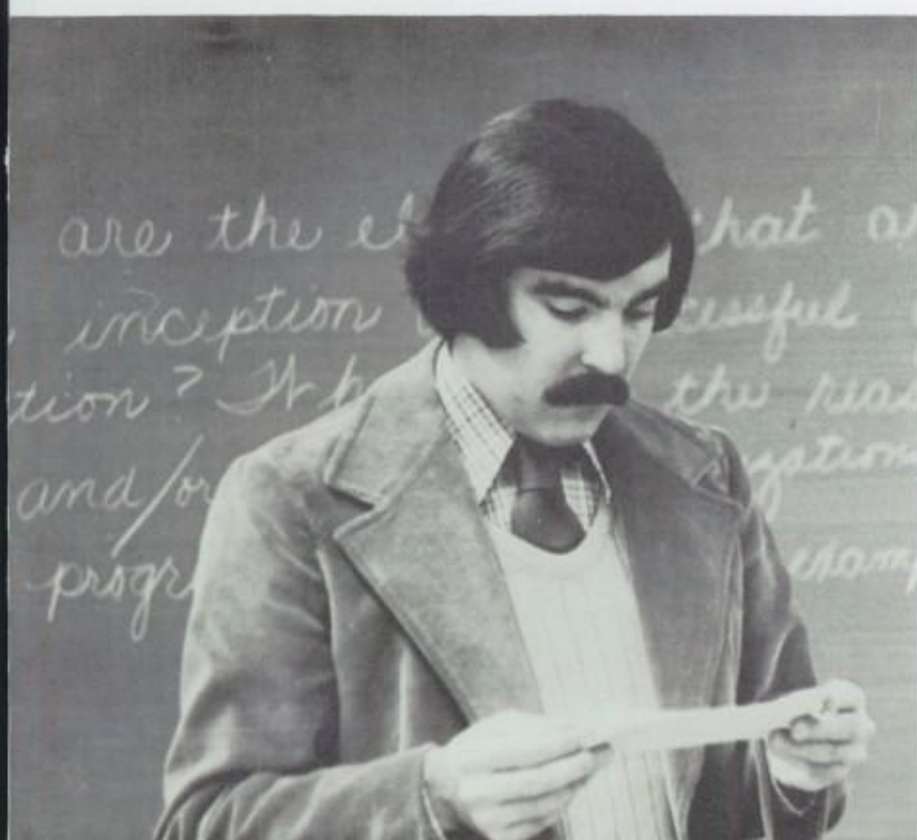

"Not that again," exclaimed Mrs. Hofrichter, disgustedly.

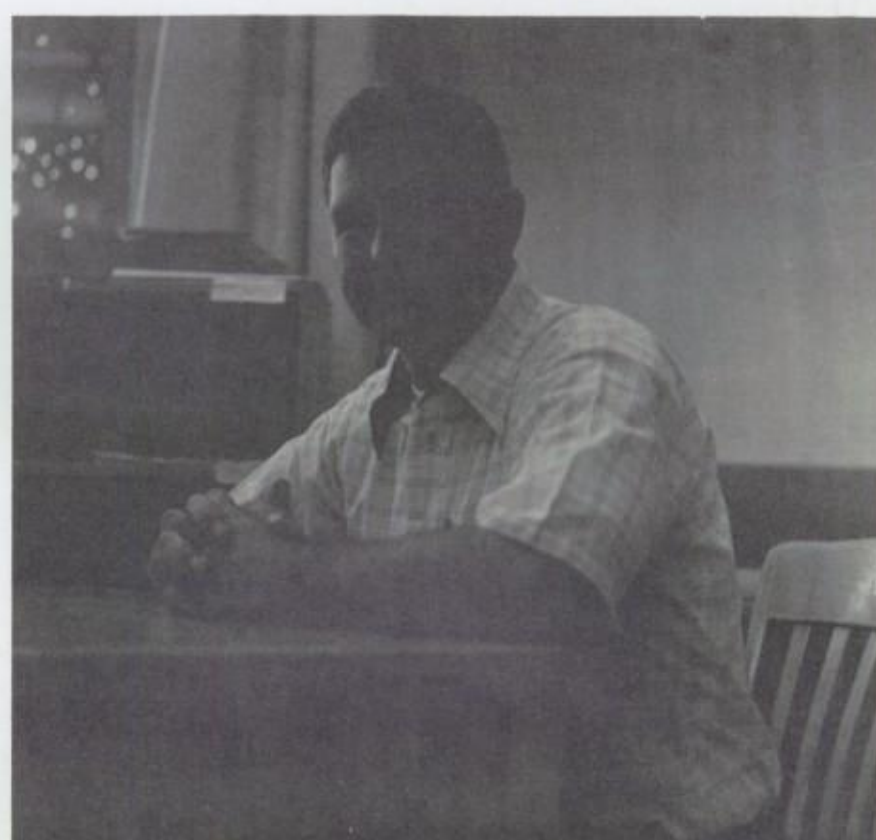

"Now that wasn't nice at all!" said Mr. Hedden.

"Ole!" exclaimed avid Mickey Mouse fan Cottnair.

"H-m-m, I could have sworn I made more money than that!" said Mr. Hill, mystified.

"Hello out there, all you TV fans," commented Mr. Uerling.

Science and P.E. sought perfection

SCIENCE

The Science department, headed by Mrs. Sally Strand, covered a wide range of disciplines: Chemistry (basic, advanced and accelerated); Biology (yellow, green, basic and advanced); Entomology; Physics; Botany and Astronomy.

Some of the year's activities included field trips, such as Advanced Biology's trip to see open-heart surgery; and a variety of guest speakers. The Physics department debated geocentric and heliocentric ways of thinking.

Highlighting the science year was Bothell's walk-away win over Inglemoor at the November Science Contest. The score: BHS 16, IHS 8; Leota 2.

This year's addition of an accelerated chemistry course, for students with strong math backgrounds, allowed all chemistry classes to move at their own rates of comprehension.

MR. ROBERT ANDREWS: Chemistry. BA in Chem Engrg. Extra-Curr: Basketball. 3rd year.

MR. MICHAEL HALL: Biology; Micro-Biology; Botany. BA in Bio. Extra-Curr: Football, basketball. Hobbies: Skiing, sports. 3rd year.

MR. CALVIN SCHULTZ: Green Biology; Basic Bio; Microbiology; Entomology. BS. Extra-Curr: Gymnastics. 4th year.

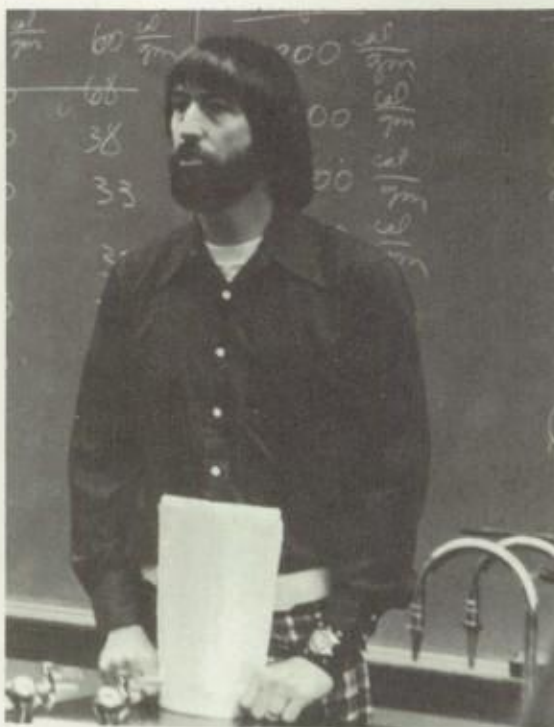

MRS. SALLY STRAND: Yellow Bio; Genetics; Botany; Invertebrates & Vertebrates; Department Chairman. BS in Bio. Hobbies: Skiing, hiking. 13th year.

MR. JIM THUMLERT: Physics; Astronomy; District Science Coordinator. Extra-Curr: Interact. 14th year.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

One new PE elective came into existence this year: "Co-Ed Intramurals" — a combination of normal team sports, both indoors and out, and a variety of other activities. It was an outgrowth of the continuingly popular Co-Ed PE, with its swimming, bowling, square-dancing, etc.

Otherwise, PE continued with classes too big, and facilities too small.

"y'all falla?" inquired Mr. Andrews.

Mr. Thumlert appeared amused.

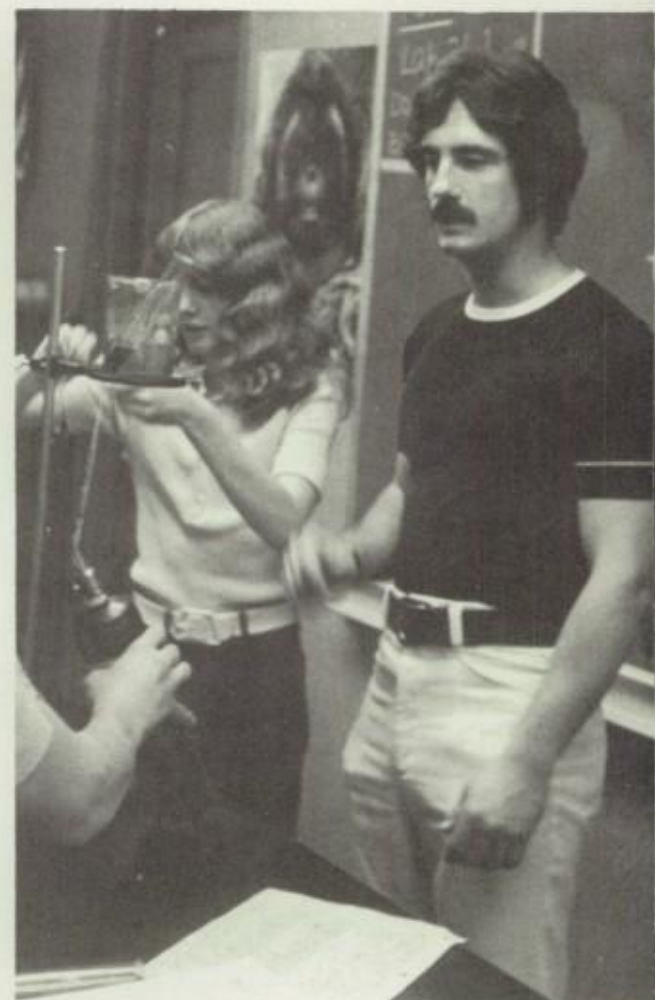

MISS MELRA BOHNEN: Co-Ed PE; Girls' 10 PE; Girls Apparatus Conditioning. BS, MS in PE. Extra-Curr: Volleyball, Bowling, Track. Hobbies: Bowling, hiking, camping. 18th year.

MR. DEE HAWKES: Boys 10 PE; Intramurals; Boys' Conditioning; Yellow bio; Basic bio; Work Study. Extra-Curr: Football (head). Hobbies: Writing, movies, sports.

MR. JIM SULLIVAN: Boys PE; Co-Ed PE; Boys Apparatus. BS, MS in PE. Extra-Curr: Golf; Girls & Boys Gymnastics. Hobbies: Fishing, hiking. 16th year.

MISS CECILIA TRUJILLO: Girls PE 10; Co-Ed PE, Intramurals. BA, MS in PE. Extra-Curr: Tennis; Basketball; Track & Field; NAGWS officer. Hobbies: Music, art, drama, travel. 6th year.

MR. RON WAYMAN: Boys' PE; Conditioning; Intramurals. BS in PE. Extra-Curr: Baseball (Head); Wrestling (head); Football. 10th year.

Mr. Hall and Tammie Mackay concocted some fiendish substance.

Miss Trujillo introduced a new sport, pencil pushing.

Mr. Schultz's insects were bugging him.

Mrs. Strand and her boney buddy.

"Now what is he going to do?" wondered Mr. Sullivan.

Coach Wayman grinned at a sophomore's antics.

Coach Hawkes, in his traditional football pose.

Martha Herrick and Miss Bohnen discuss the finer points of gymnastics.

Backbone people tried to keep everyone happy

LIBRARY STAFF

Equipped with an abundant knowledge of reading materials, Miss Gregersen and Miss Green were excellent resource people. Mrs. Nagy added her talents by working with A-V equipment, keeping records, and helping whatever need arose. New this year: Checkpoint II, an excellent "reminder" system for absent-minded students prone to carry out unchecked materials.

Miss MARIANNE GREGERSEN: Head Librarian. MA in Lib. A-V advisor. Hobbies: Reading; spectator sports. 7th year.

Miss MARY ELLEN GREEN: Librarian, A-V supervisor. BA Eng. MLS. Pep Staff advisor; Basketball scorekeeper. Hobbies: Spectator sports, camping, hiking. 5th year.

Mrs. MARIA NAGY (Bouchard): Library Secretary. 4th year.

"Not a Measles Hot Line call!" dreaded Mrs. Purdy.

"Whatever you're up to, stop!" thought Miss Gregersen

"Can I help you?" asked Mrs. Nagy.

"How many transcripts will you NEED?" puzzled Mrs. Liedley.

No matter what, her hair held up . . . how, Mrs. Gray?

Attendance excuses often left Mrs. Webster slightly stunned.

"Ah you're kidding me." was often Mrs. Good's smiling retort.

MAIN OFFICE & ATTENDANCE

Although always hard at work, the Main Office secretaries were never too busy to help a student needing assistance. Mrs. Good, as secretary to Mr. Peterson, headed the office staff, while Mrs. Gray worked with supplies. Mrs. Webster took over as Attendance Secretary, with that office moved from the 92nd street entrance to the former (and enlarged) ASB office; ASB officers met in the Guidance area.

Mrs. ADALINE GOOD: Principal's Secretary. BA. Hobbies: Square dancing. 9th year.

Mrs. RHODA WEBSTER: Attendance Secretary. Hobbies: Crafts, swimming, spectator sports. 9th year.

Mrs. ROBIN GRAY: MO Secretary. Office procedures; machines. Hobbies: Travel, boating, camping.

NURSING & HEALTH

Nurse Betty Purdy and her staff of volunteer aides battled sickness and disease, and patched cuts and bruises throughout the school year. Trained in counseling, they also gave students advice on health-related problems.

Mrs. BETTY PURDY: School Nurse. BS. King County Health Dep't. 3rd year.

Miss Green welcomed a long-lost library book.

COUNSELING OFFICE

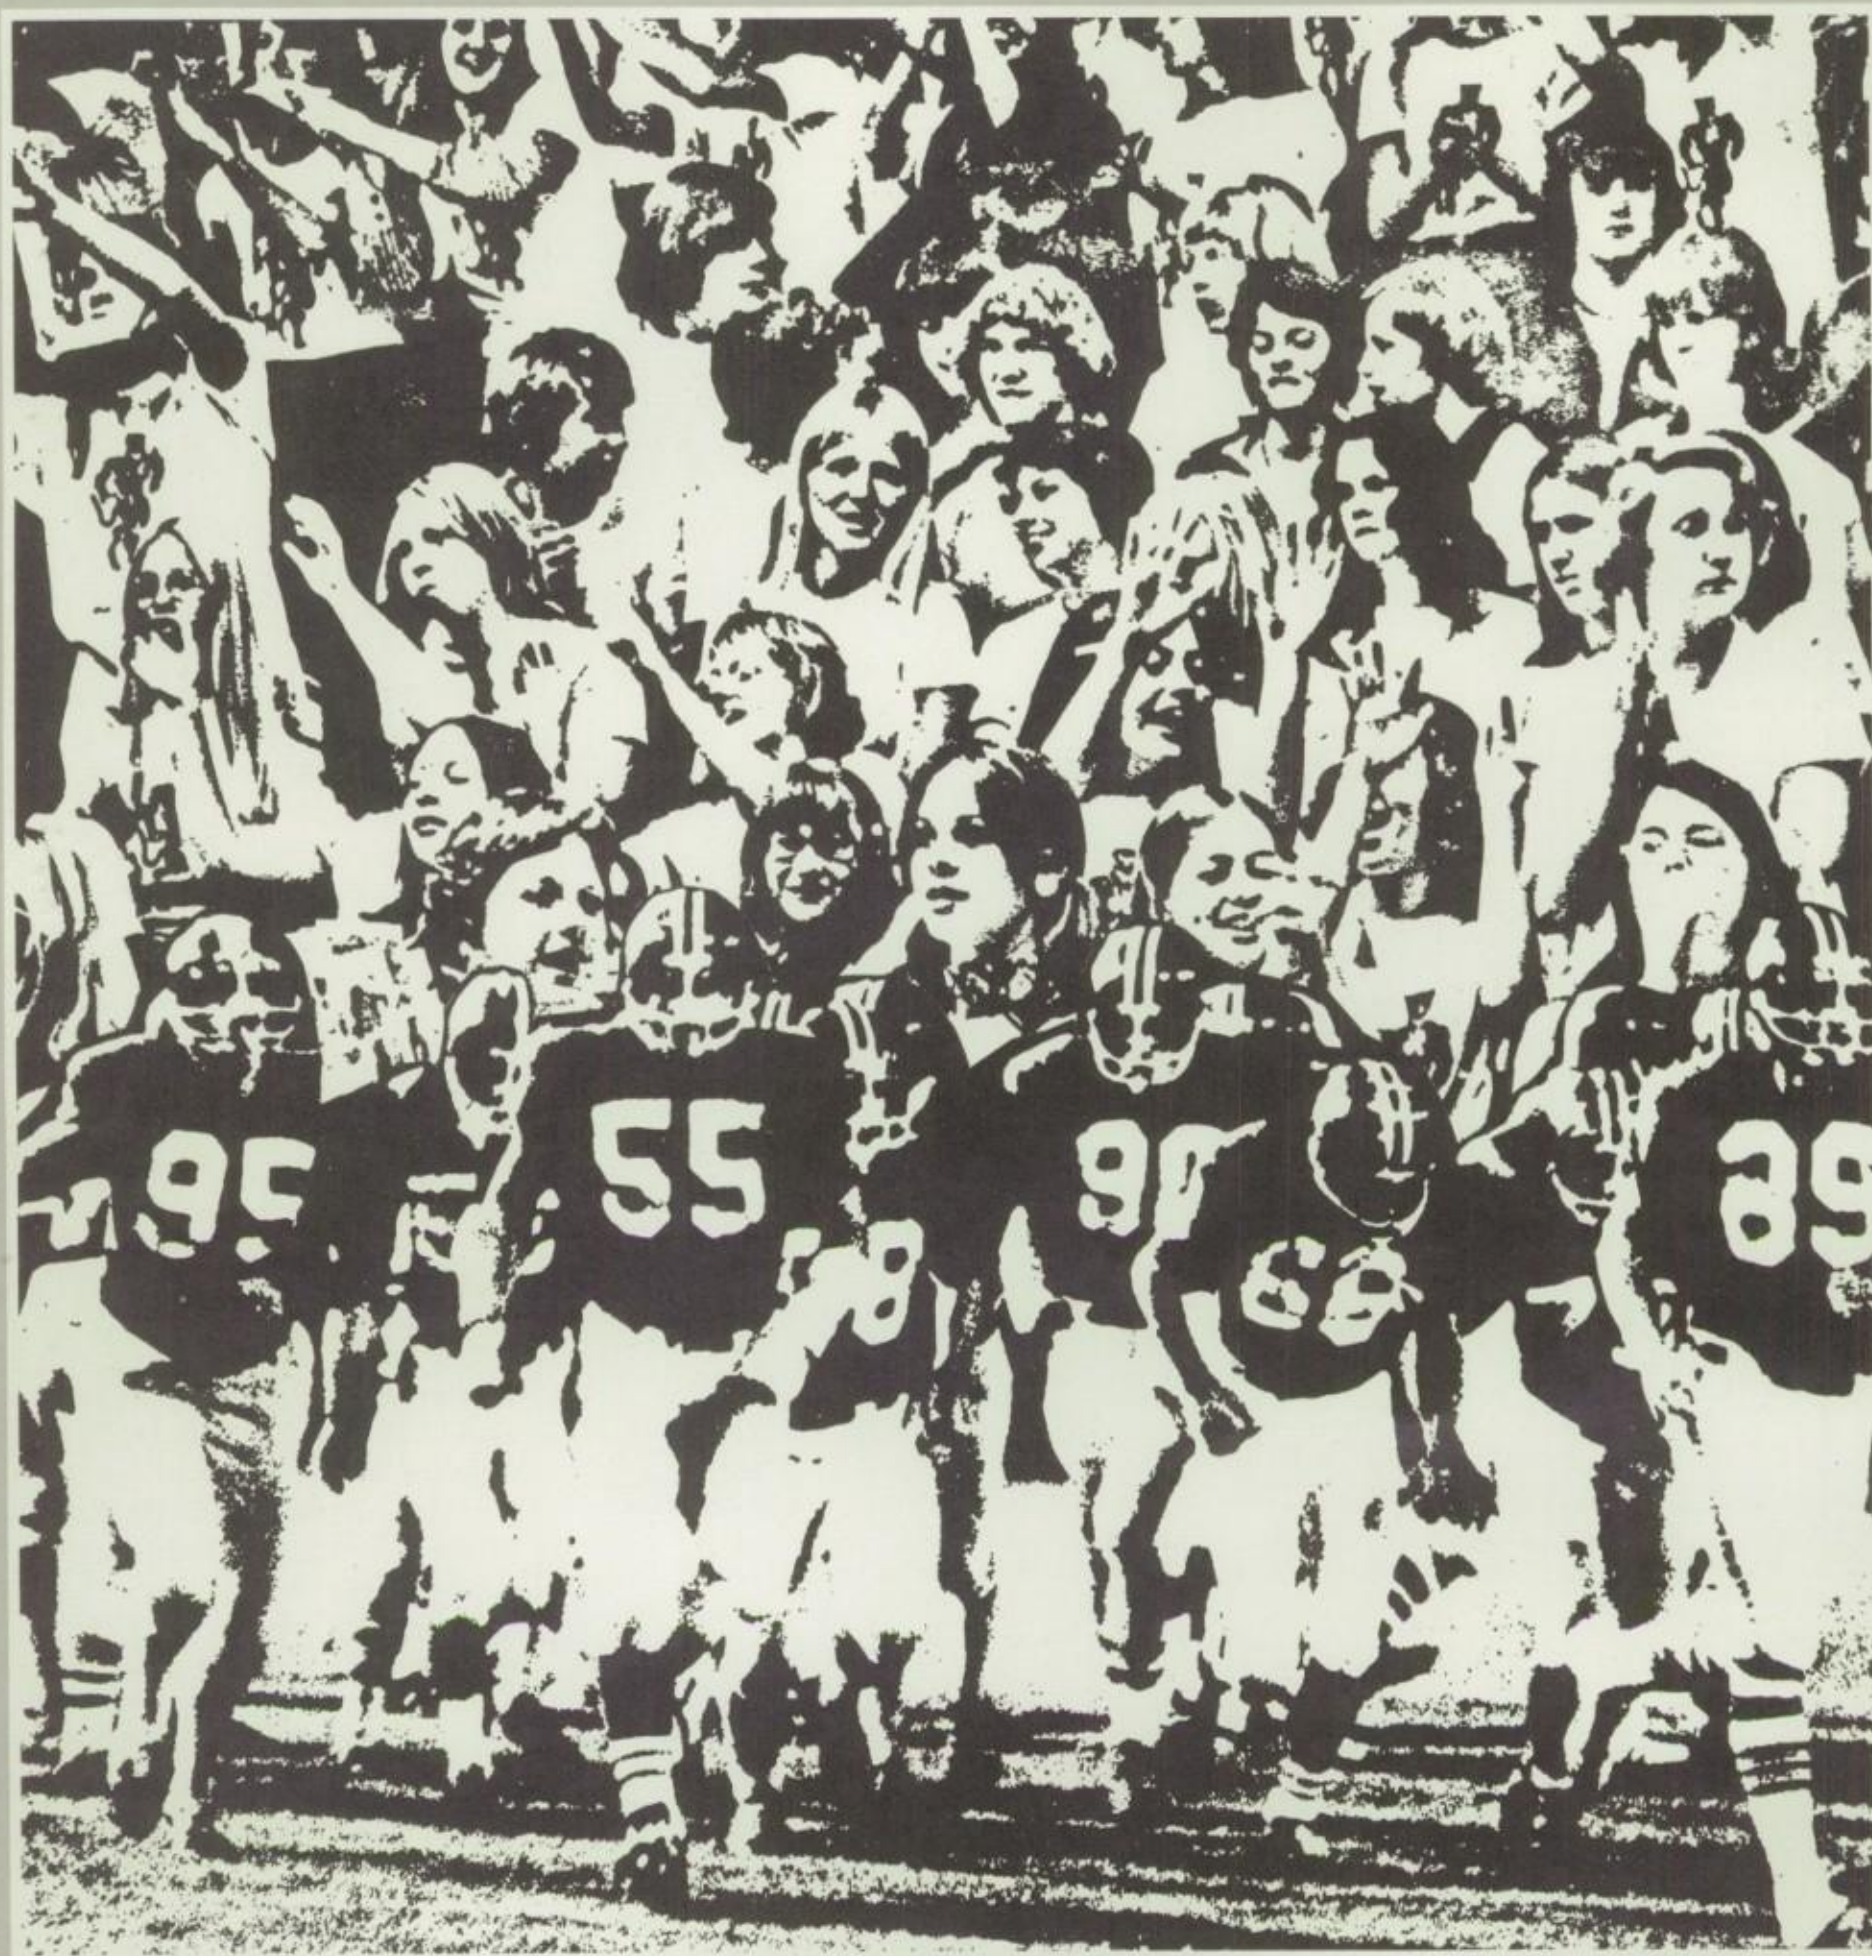

Aiding confused sophomores, bemused juniors, and amused seniors were Counselors Moscrip, Freed and Reul, AHR teachers helped assume some course counseling; and vocational counselors visited the school on regular basis all spring. Mr. John Jacobson aided with scholarships; and Mrs. Liedle was their right arm at phone and files.

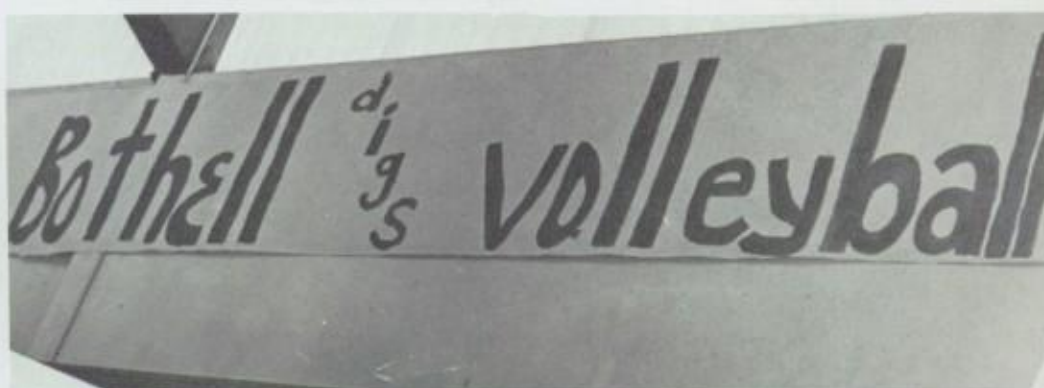

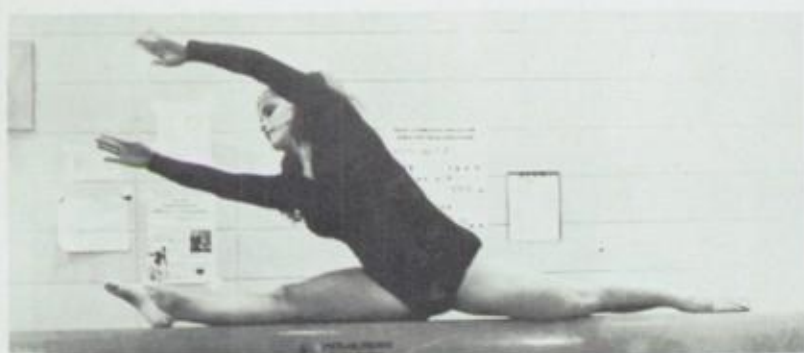

Mrs. CLAIRE MOSCRIP (Weatherford): Sophomore Counselor. BA. Soph Class activities. Hobbies: Gardening, golf. 7th year.
Mr. DENNIS FREED: Junior Counselor. MA Couns & Guid. Jr Class activities. Hobbies: Farming, hunting, fishing. 2nd year.
Mr. GARY REUL: Senior Counselor. BA Ed; MEd School Adm. Senior Class activities. Hobbies: Photography, NEA service. 6th year.
Mrs. LYNNE LIEDLE (Coughlan): Guidance Secretary. 3rd year.

COOKS & CUSTODIANS

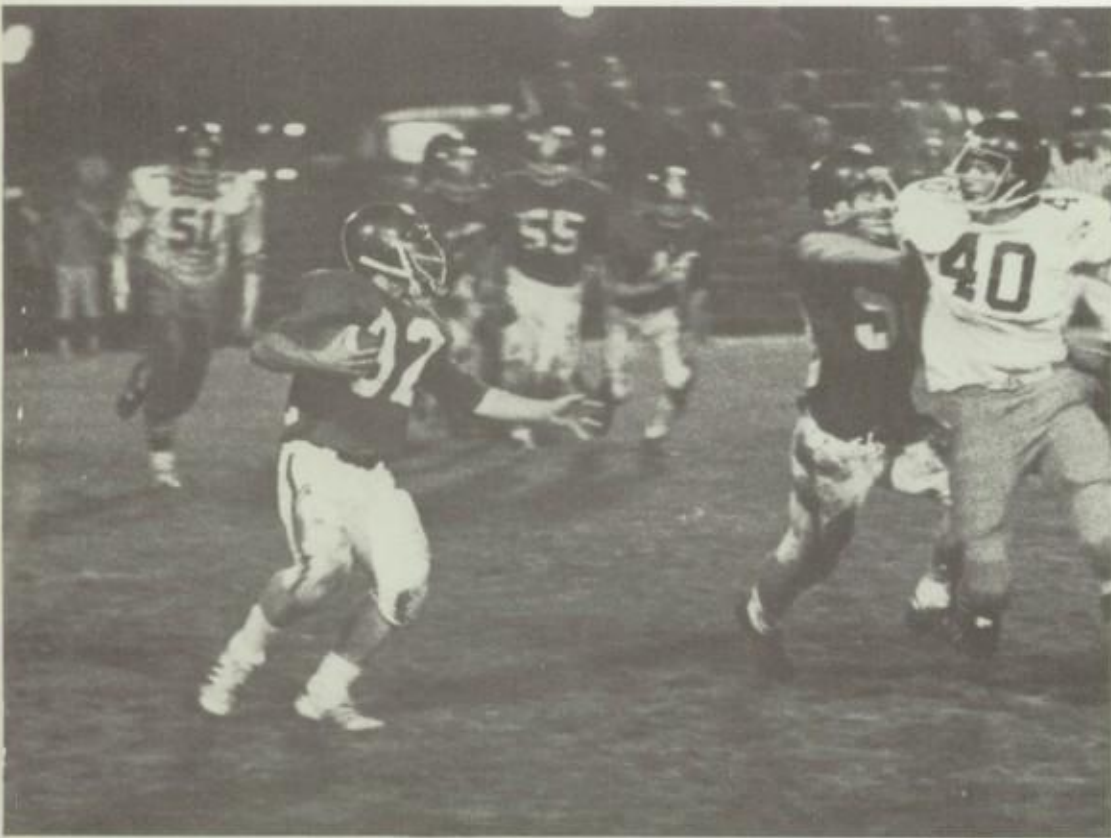

Vending machines were promised again this year, but had failed to materialize by the end of Winter quarter. An Alternate Lunch program, offering soup-and-sandwich or salad-and-sandwich for 35¢ was inaugurated March 1. Mrs. Beckmann continued as cook-manager.

A capable custodial staff worked to maintain a pleasant working facility. No longer were there "matrons" as well as custodians; but all were listed under one liberated title. Mr. Earl Arnold again was head custodian; but Mrs. Vera "Cookie" Ayers could claim the title as the longest-term employee — predating Bothell High's move up from Bothell Way in the 50's.

Gridders proved BHS could and did win...

Evan Holzknecht gained yardage despite Redmond's defensive efforts.

The ref's arms told the story: Another BHS Touchdown!

Bothell's defense dumped Inglemoor's Brossman for little or no gain.

QB Steve Campbell unleashed another long bomb — this time to help beat Juanita.

3rd in KingCo!

Under the direction of Dee Hawkes, the Cougar gridders compiled a spectacular six-win, four-loss record — the best to electrify Bothell in 18 years, since 1956 when the Cougs won seven out of nine contests. 1974 was the first winning season in ten years.

Bothell shocked their KingCo counterparts by taking 3rd place in the 11-team conference, and winning five out of eight games. The team's mental attitude was stressed throughout the season, and it helped the Cougs roll for a KingCo average of 20 points per game, while "Wayman's Warriors" held opponents to only 12 average. Bothell avenged last year's upset loss to rival Inglemoor by crushing the Viks 38-10. They were always ranked near the top in League offense and team defense.

Bothell's 1974 varsity football team will be remembered as the team that never gave up hope and had the spirit and determination to put an end to the losing grid seasons of the past. They looked always toward the top for the future. Next year, KingCo will join in the State play-offs.

The Cougar Jay-Vees wrapped the '74 season with a 5-3 record — an extra win over last year's tally of 4-4.

Their defensive "stop squad" demonstrated mastery by allowing their opponents very little opportunity to score. In the thriller against Bellevue, the stingy defense scored the Coug's only TD. As the Wolverines' quarterback dropped back to pass, five Cougars caused him to fumble. The loose ball was picked up by Joe Hammer, who dashed 61 yards to score the winning TD.

The offense scored highest in their battle with Lake Washington, when Bothell shut out the Kangs 38-0.

In light of the current season, prospects for the future look bright, in the eyes of Coach Steve Cottnair.

"I'm ready to claw 'em, Coach", said Marty.

Cou-Babes conquered most comers

McKennon, Hall and men were ready for action.

With grit and determination to make this season one of success, the Cou-Babes closed with a 5-1-1 record. They played all teams which had Sophomore squads, except Bellevue, who forfeited.

The Sophs' biggest triumph was when they stomped Lake Washington 29-7. In the years to come the Cou-Babes give promise to prove prominent. They were coached by Bill McKennon, assisted by Mike Hall and Intern Mike Parker.

Golfers bogied

Cougar Golfers putted through the disappointing '74 season with a 1-5 win-loss record. In the KingCo tourney at the Glendale Country Club, no one from BHS placed in the top ten.

Receiving Varsity letter awards were; third year—Collin Funai; second year—Ron Korneliussen, Jeff Sattler and Mike Iwen; first year—Kevin Black and Ron Wick. Junior Varsity letters went to Steve Burnett, Mike Stern and Jeff Ferguson.

Cross country kept on truckin'

The Cross-Country team ended its season on a winning note this year, despite a rough beginning due to many injuries.

After having lost four of their first six starts, they put it together and demolished four of their last five opponents, closing their season with a respectable six wins to five losses.

Top runners for the team were Lance Warrick (8th in KingCo), Don Wirta (24th in KingCo), Team Captain Darrell Lee, Dave Titterington, and Larry Whisenand. Warrick, competing in District as Bothell's sole representative, had the flu and finished 54th.

Julie showed backhand form.

BHS Girls' Tennis scored a winning season by coming in 3rd in KingCo. Starting on the wrong foot by losing their first two matches, the Cougirls showed they had as much skill as spirit by causing an upset victory over 2nd place Bellevue, to end their season in the KingCo play-offs. The doubles duo of Kolleen Kilpatrick and Kari Elliott advanced all the way to 3rd place.

The J-V squad also did well in competition and gave the Varsity close challenges.

Senior Judy Crawford earned her 3rd letter. 2nd year letters went to Kolleen Kilpatrick, Kari Elliott and Debbi McDonald; 1st years to Julie Peterson, Sherri Otteson, Kari Olson, Robin Reed, Jean Meyers and Karen Ramsden.

Bothell 'dug' volleyball!

Bump! Set! Spike!!

Girls Volleyball centered their major strategies around these concepts this year. With their "building years" finally behind them, the girls came into their own in 1974.

Sporting new uniforms, but with worn knee-pads and taped-together tennis shoes, they placed 5th in KingCo competition.

At their awards banquet, trophies were presented to Honorary Varsity Captain Joy Spear; Honorary JV captain Keri Nelson; and Inspirational Award Winner Lynda Griffin. Miss Melra Bohnen was their coach.

"Basketball is here to stay!" was the rallying word from Coach Cecilia Trujillo, as the girls team, young in experience but filled with natural talent and ability in movement and ball-handling, played its way into mid-league status.

Though Girls Basketball was still in its infancy at BHS, it already had full league standing, with regionals and state play-offs; and was becoming steadily more popular.

Team members expressed appreciation to Marion McNally for three years of score-keeping; and to Managers Sue Erickson and Cathy Farley.

Jim Harvey went for two on a fast-break lay-in.

Ted Korn outhustled his opponent as he dribbled the ball downcourt.

Soph Cougs awaited tip-off against Bellevue.

Coached by Bob Andrews, the Cougar Junior Varsity won their first seven of nine games. Then several players moved up to Varsity, and the team did a reverse for the worse, losing their next seven of nine. Coach Andrews touted the 24-point victory over Inglemoor as their best game of the season.

Sophomore B-Ball was geared toward readying squad members for bigger and better things in upcoming years, with emphasis on improving endurance, skills and techniques. Coach Mike Hall rated the team's over-all season as "very rewarding" despite the book record. Coach Hall also claimed the Cougbabes' best game was against Inglemoor, as they blistered the Vikings by 18 points.

Jim Pederson tipped the ball in for the Cougs against Inglemoor.

Cougbabes passed the ball as they worked against a zone defense.

Scores were close... but not close enough

Triple overtime once, against Interlake; double overtime against Inglesmoor and Redmond; and a single overtime against Bellevue, marked a season where the Cougs rarely lost a game by more than six points.

Most B-ball nights found BHS supporters at both home and away gyms, cheering their team on to hopeful victory; but the Cougs couldn't produce and wound up with a 5-15 record, in KingCo.

The Cougs were coached by Al Kollar, Bob Andrews and Mike Hall. Losing only four seniors, Coach Kollar has hopes for a better next year. Those seniors were John Tessem, Jay Griesel, Dave Wells, and Ron Korneliussen. Other team members were Rob Sande, Steve Campbell, Ron Wick, Jamie Stewart, Jeff Sande, Jim Peterson, Gary Langstaff, and Dave Preisinger.

Jay Griesel soared high to check an attempted layup by a Mariner foe.

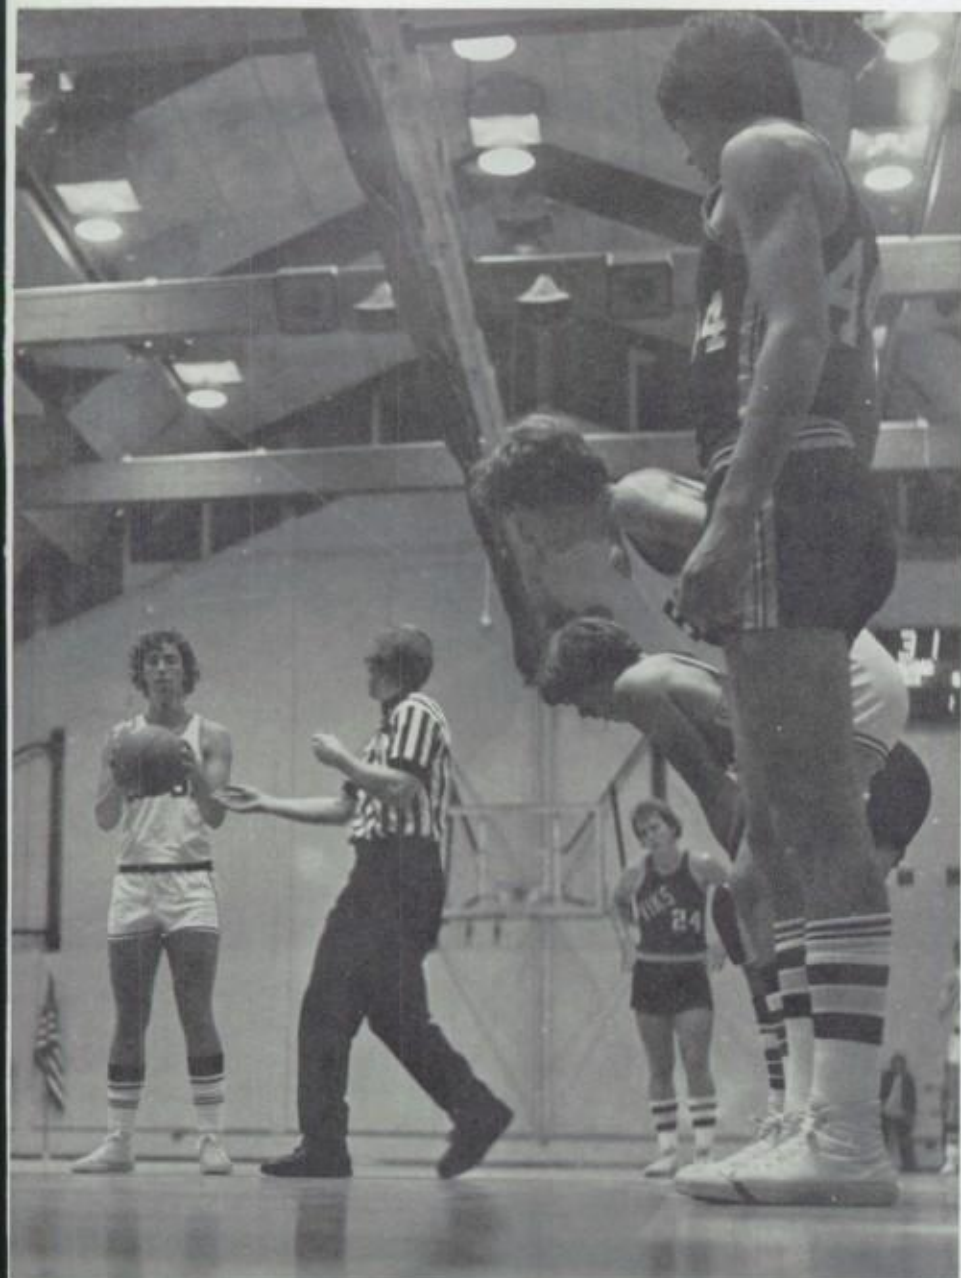

Head Coach Al Kollar stressed the game plan, seconds before the tip-off.

All eyes were on the ball as anxious John Tessem and Rob Sande awaited the rebound.

At the line Dave Wells got psyched for a foul shot.

Steve Campbell tried to regain control of the ball amidst rival Inglemoor players.

6'11" John Tessem eyed the hoop as he stretched out his long frame for a jumper.

Girls Varsity bowlers finished 2nd in KingCo this year, and took a #1 trophy at the Metro Jamboree. State meets March 8 and 9 were too late for press time. Girls earning varsity letters were Diane Bottem, Cheryl Farley, Sandy Hasund, Leslie Olson and Robin Reed.

Junior Varsity Cougirls won the top spot in their league—a 12 team set from KingCo and North Seattle. The four juniors were Bonnie Benefiel, Terry Berto, Becky Klemmel and Karen Korneliussen. They won 3rd in Jamboree.

Boys JV finished at the bottom spot in KingCo, but also grabbed a #1 spot at the Jamboree. Letters went to Senior Bill Norman, Junior Steve Miller and Sophomore Mark Lightner. All four teams were coached by Miss Melra Bohnen, in a change of winter coaching assignments this year.

Grapplers ground to 3rd in KingCo

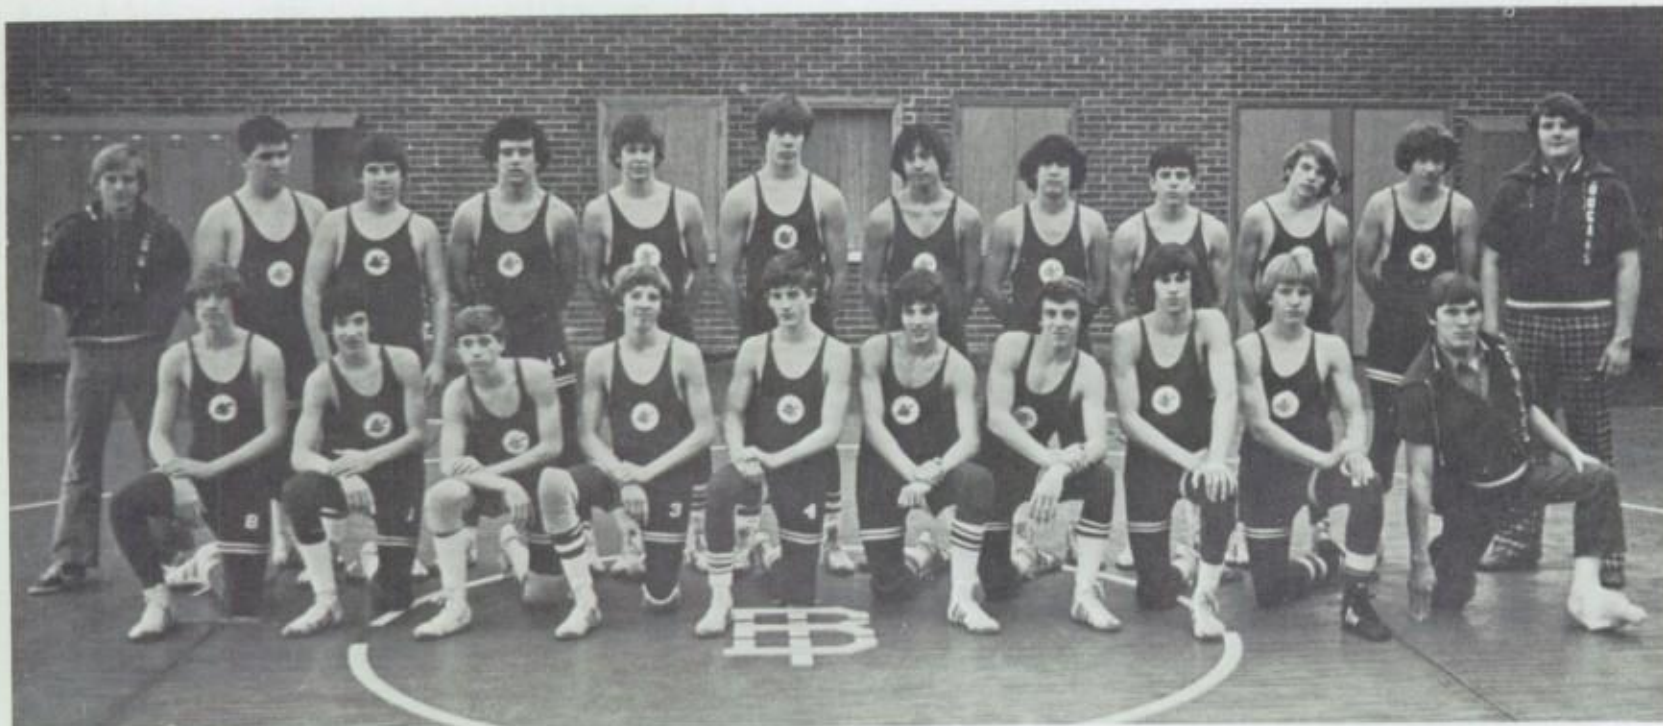

Wrestling their way to the Number 3 spot in KingCo, Cougar matmen lost only three meets: against Mariner, Lake Washington (#1) and Issaquah (#2), for an 11-3 season. They took 2nd at the early-season Bellingham tourney against 18 schools.

Three Cougs—Holzknecht, Luckenbach and Arango—captured KingCo titles, where Bothell took 3rd but sent 12 of its 13-man squad on to Regionals—more than any other school.

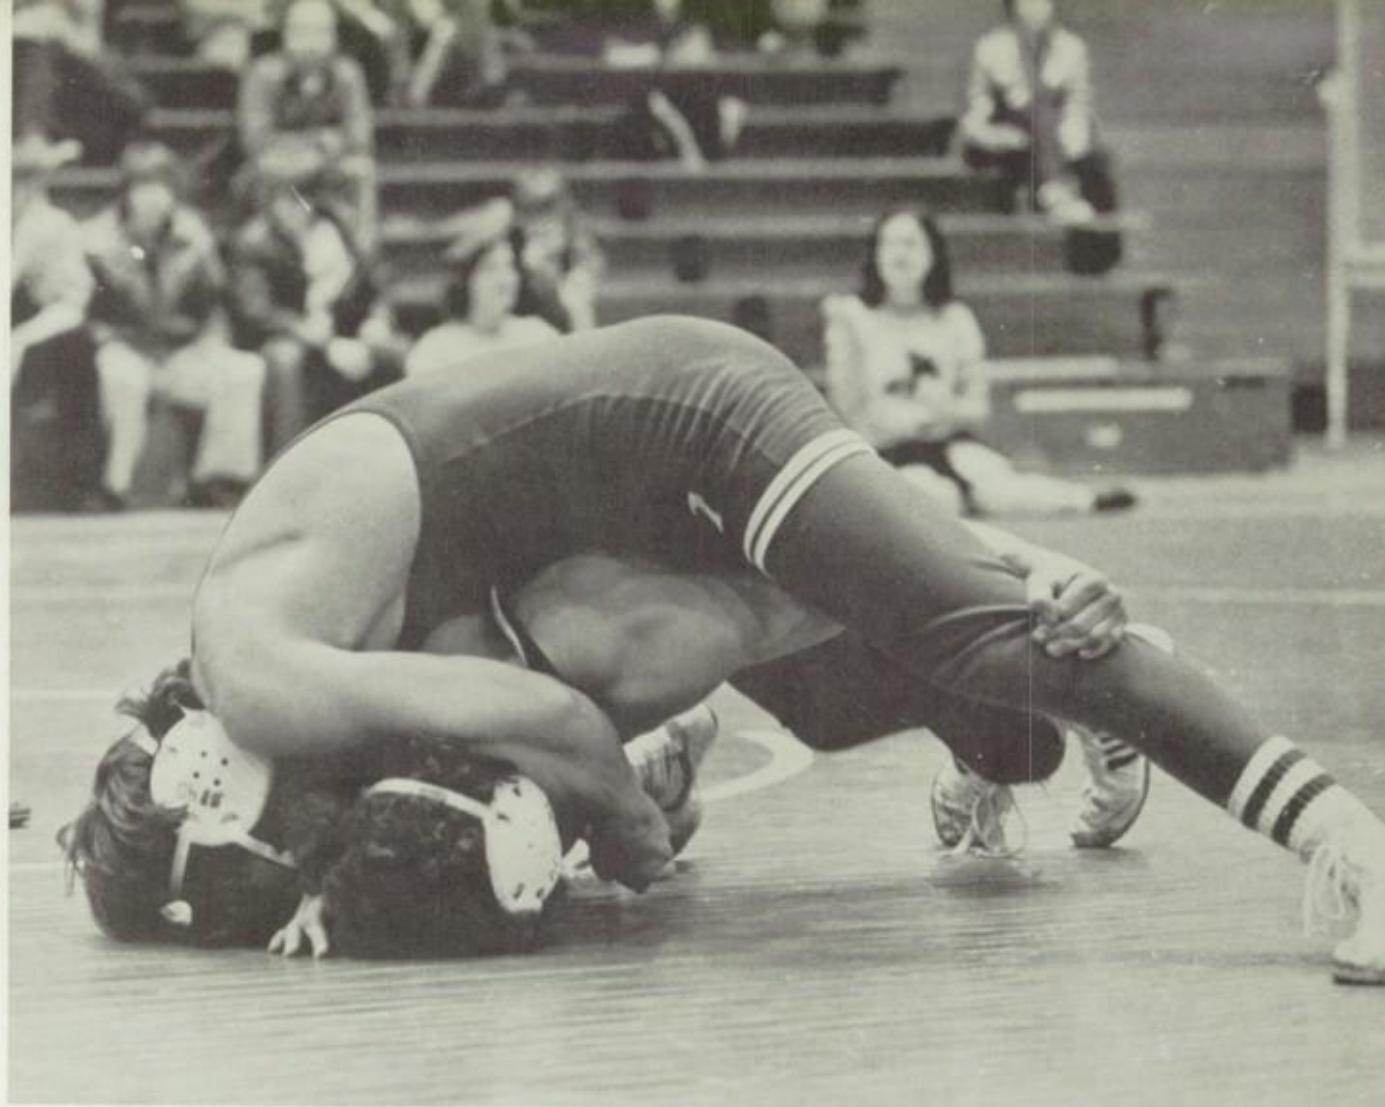

Holzknecht won the Regional 158-lb crown at Sedro-Woolley, and Arango took 2nd, unlimited. With them at State, at U of Puget Sound, was Elledge (5th), as an alternate. Only the top five in each weight make Regionals, from each league; so BHS's "sweaty dozen" had stiff competition. Making Regional were Seniors Arango; Luckenbach 190; Johnson 135; Fritschen 129; and Jerry Femling 122. Juniors were Folsom 178; Elledge 168; Holzknecht; West 141; Tunell 115; Jim Femling 108; Littlefield 101.

Cougar grappler imposed his sinewy will on a struggling adversary.

Holzknicht often pinned his man in the first round, as in this case.

Luckenbach went for a take-down.

Coug Matmen repeatedly ripped opponents.

An arm and an ankle, for another Bothell 2 points.

Gymnastics developed competitive girls.

Poetry in motion . . . a sport that requires grace, coordination, body control, and long, dedicated hours of practice . . . that is Girls' Gymnastics at Bothell High.

Although two girls made it to State, the Cougar team placed only 7th in KingCo, and no farther. The poor showing was due to inexperience, as only three seniors lettered: Patty Kinney, Donna McCarty and Joy Spear. Ten "excellent" sophomores, however, gave new Coaches Jim Sullivan and Pam Lowry strong hopes for the return of high State placings next year.

Junior Laurel Knowlton took the Regional championship in tumbling, 6th on unevens, and 6th in vaulting. Kinney placed 7th in tumbling to earn her State berth. Results from State were too late for the "Cougar" deadline.

Other girls lettering were Juniors Kolleen Kilpatrick and Patty Nolan; and Sophomores Cherie Eader, Dori Folk, Ann Holzknicht, Debbie Howe, Stacy Howe, Becky Liles, Jeanette Nelson, Kelly Power, Kristi Sorell and Kathy Schaaf.

Donna McCarty prepared to dismount.

Sophomore Stacy Howe danced across the mats in floor exercise.

Team Captain was Charlie Fritschen. The injury to Chris Holzknecht near the season's end failed to stop the team.

Only four men were lost to graduation: Paul Coates, Fritschen, John Marcell and A-A man Ron Zsigmondovics.

"A pretty good season" was the way Coach Bob Bradford summed up the 1975 BHS track season. They lost only three out of eight meets -- and those by small margins.

BHS had "highest team placing" at Shoreline Invitational, and finished in the top ten at all other invitationals -- due mostly to outstanding performances by three seniors: Darrell Lee, Dave Titterington and Lance Warrick; plus scoring by Junior Jim Pedersen in hurdles and high jump. Four other seniors, Jim Arango, Mike Dedman, Dan Hottowe and Larry Whisennand, all lent strong support.

Records reset this year included the triple jump (42'4") by Tom Pierce; a new meet record at the Shoreline Invitational for the Mile Relay (3:30.4) by Whisennand, Lee, Warrick and Titterington; and new records in the two-mile (8:00.0 school, 8:14 for KingCo) by Lee, Warrick, Titterington and Junior Don Wirta. Dave's 1:55.5 for 1st in 880 at the very stormy KingCo tourney gave promise of a state title in that event.

1975 TRACK SQUAD -- BACK ROW: Coach Bob Bradford, Manager Pam Kuiken, Vic Rose, Lonnie Long, Tom Pierce, Lew Sadowski, Rob Sande, Tom Porter, Mike Dedman, Jim Pedersen, Bob Jarosky, Chris Lyon, Mike Erickson, Bart Johnson, John Earley, Don Wirta, Rick Woods, Manager Aileen Oppelaar, Ass't Coach Chuck Baker, Manager Tim Wright. FRONT ROW: Jerry Carter, Mike Lindman, Marty Folsom, Rick Morgan, Lance Warrick, Keith Livingston, Dave Titterington, Joe Bodmer, Darrell Lee, Bill Kusulos, Larry Whisennand, Greg Sage and Manager Dave Snyder.

Lead Coug Littlefield and Anchor Pulley were half of the record-setting mile relay squad (with Nelson and Schaeperkoetter), and Pulley pulled many 1sts in speed events.

CouGirls had another "building" season, with the team's major components being sophomores and juniors. They had some of the best-scoring girls in the state, but the 18-roster squad's lack of depth proved too big a problem.

At press time, "Super-Jockettes" Julie Pulley and Kerry Nelson, plus Terry Littlefield, Rosalind Liston, Kathy Schaeperkoetter and Dawn Rawson were all headed to KingCo finals. Nelson and Pulley were also sure to be contenders for State, with Kerry holding 5th in hurdles and 3rd in high jump; and Pulley a firm first in the mile and 880, in KingCo standings.

The mile relay team broke the 1974 record with a 4:20, (Littlefield, Schaeperkoetter, Nelson and Pulley). Nelson set, then broke her own high jump record, leaping to 5'4".

Lost to graduation were the team's only seniors: Sue Erickson, Cathy Farley and Littlefield. The girls were coached by Miss Cecelia Trujillo and Mrs. Mary Watson.

And boys and girls kept trackin' on . . .

Nelson, Rawson and Holzknicht drove for the finish.

Nelson flopped over for another first.

Courtmen served up smashing season.

Combining a strong 1-2-3 singles punch (Bob Wilson, Jaiduk Jo, Gary Peterson) and good team depth Boys Tennis smashed, volleyed and lobbed their way to a 7-3 record, good for 4th in KingCo.

Coach Lynn Nothdurft claimed it was "the strongest team I've ever coached" and pointed out their 4-spot was a respectable record, since KingCo is recognized to be the "toughest league in the State." None of the players made it past KingCo however.

Graduating seniors were Landy Alo, Rob Dolan, Mike Iwen, Jo, Mike Ristow and Wilson.

Landy viciously went after a service ace.

Jaiduk demonstrated his precision placement in a back-hand lob.

Bob showed his fluid form as he readied for a jackhammer backhand.

Robin Worl zoomed on to 3rd base.

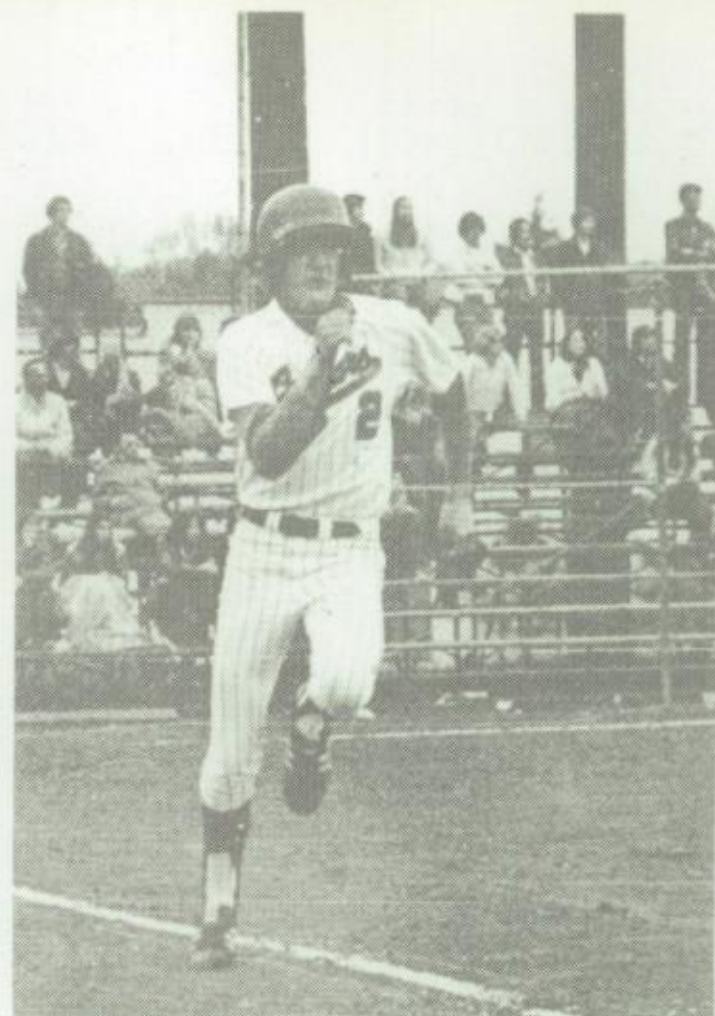

Another sport was added to the Cougar spring schedule this year - Girls Softball. The co-eds did their best starting from scratch. Old jeans and tattered tennis shoes were "uniforms." Old hand-me-down bats and balls and other equipment were rounded up. A coach was found in February, and the season got under way late.

It was a season of losses, with a non-win record at press time; but the girls kept the faith, and plan to have a team next year -- hopefully with better equipment and some kind of uniform.

"The girls gave a lot of heart and hope next year will be a better season", said Coach Deena Maroutsos. She was assisted by Volunteer Mike Minor.

Dan Sullivan and Joe Knabe paid very close attention to Coach Wayman's "pep talks".

Gene Girdley legged it to first.

Jay-Vees swung through a so-so season

Bothell's CouBabes fought through a tough season, and pulled through with a 4-10 record. The J-V's hit game was their 10-0 smashing of the Bellevue Wolverines April 10.

Although the Cougs were under the .500 mark, they were never demoralized. "Next year holds promise for victories," promised Coach Cottnair.

"Let's go, last inning!" "I hope!"

Close, but no KingCo!

With just five returning let-terms from the 1974 squad, this year's Varsity scored a winning season -- 2nd in the Northern Division of KingCo, and 4th in the League.

The mittmen played Newport in the KingCo playoffs, but were nipped 0-3 to end their play.

Highlight game of the 1975 season was the battle against rival Inglemoor, when Mark Strom threw a no-hitter and claimed the 2-1 victory.

High batters for the season were Steve Campbell, .400; Dan Sullivan, .368; and Gene Girdley, .314.

Senior star Strom pitched a 5-3 record, had a great earned run average of 0.98. Senior Joe Knabe followed with 3-2, and a fine 1.31 ERA. The only other grad was Brian Ehle -- leaving a strong team.

Coach Ron Wayman expressed satisfaction for the season, and high hopes for next.

A soggy season taught:

This season's soccer team had a win-loss conference record of 5-4 for the Varsity squad and 4-0 for the Jay-Vees -- much better than was the first year's record for this relatively new sport.

Coach Ron Juzeler and Assistant Coach Dale Hedden felt that team members had gained valuable experience and looked forward to an "even better" performance next year -- despite the loss of 10 seniors. Graduating will be Geraldo Guimaraes, Hans Hagbrandt, Don Henrikson, Evan Holzknecht, Ron Korneliussen, Todd Kreiger, Rick Moisant, Tom Paulson, Jeff Sattler and Mike Zaretzke.

*Bothell High
a successful year.*

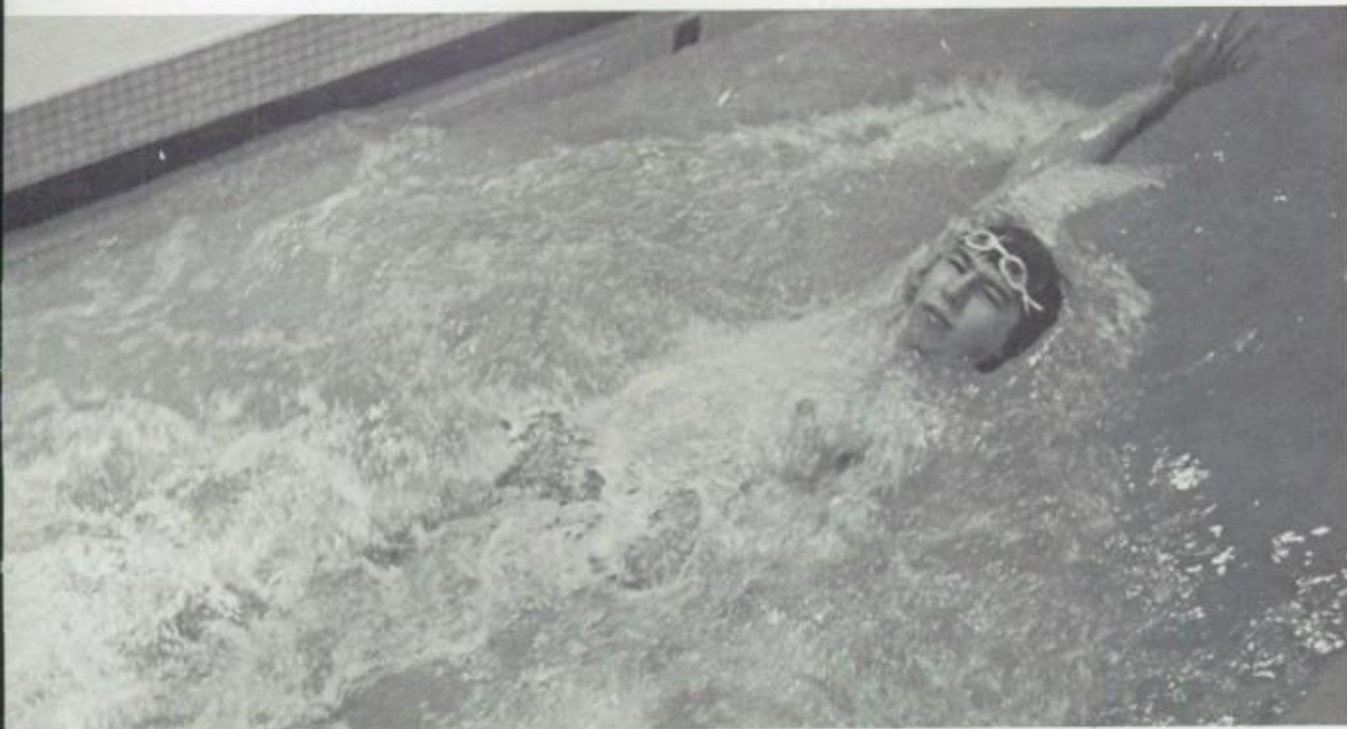

Girls Coach Judy Brown

Patty Nolan executed a near-perfect dive as team members watched intently.

Kay Erickson plowed through the water as she swam the breaststroke.

Scott Seaton showed the strain of the backstroke.

"The water is great!", said Bruce Johnson as he left the pool temporarily.

For a second year, both girl and boy swimmers were combined with swimmers from Inglemoor into Northshore Swim teams. The merger, unique in KingCo, barred both teams from title competition, but gave swimmers and divers a chance to qualify for regional and state.

BHS members of the Girls Swim team, who competed during the fall season, were Patti Nolan, Kay Erickson, Judy McClory and Anna Meyers. They were coached by Mrs. Judy Brown, elementary PE teacher.

BHS boys on the swim team were Rick Badgely, Bruce Johnson, Marshall Johnston, Ross LaTorra, Kevin LaTorra (9th grade), Mike Malone, John Milligan, Mike Ristow and Dave Worley. Their coach was Mr. Robert ("Scully") Hester, from IHS, and their season was winter.

An Unidentified Swimming Object (the Loch Ness monster?) raced for the finish line.

Innovations kindled sparks in Ski School...

From novice to hot-dogger, all skiers profited from new-fangled initiations of Northshore Ski School, '75. John Mohan was director; Founder Mrs. Sally Strand, district coordinator; and Mr. Gary Oman, BHS director.

Most apparent were 5th and 6th graders, new to the program. Another variation was a "Pre-Snow" session Jan. 4, to give beginners an opportunity to learn some basics, so they could spend more snow time skiing. The November Ski Swap was revived; and an emergency-driver system begun to speed injured skiers from mountains to home or hospital.

New levels of instruction were teamed with past curricula to provide more variety; and a new schedule of resort areas for Senior High classes arranged. Saturdays, Sundays, or Saturday nights, they jaunted to Alpental, Ski Acres, or Stevens Pass.

Operating independently of Ski School was the BHS Ski Club. Money-raising efforts ended with a seven-day trip in late February to Big Mountain, Mont. Among other excitements there, Lance Warrick won a Senior Division title, and Tom Howell a Junior Division 1st, in the weekly race held there for guests.

Instructor Randy Smith helped a student who had problems "getting it all together"!

Henry Miller strove for perfection at the royal christie.

*and brightened
Ski fun!*

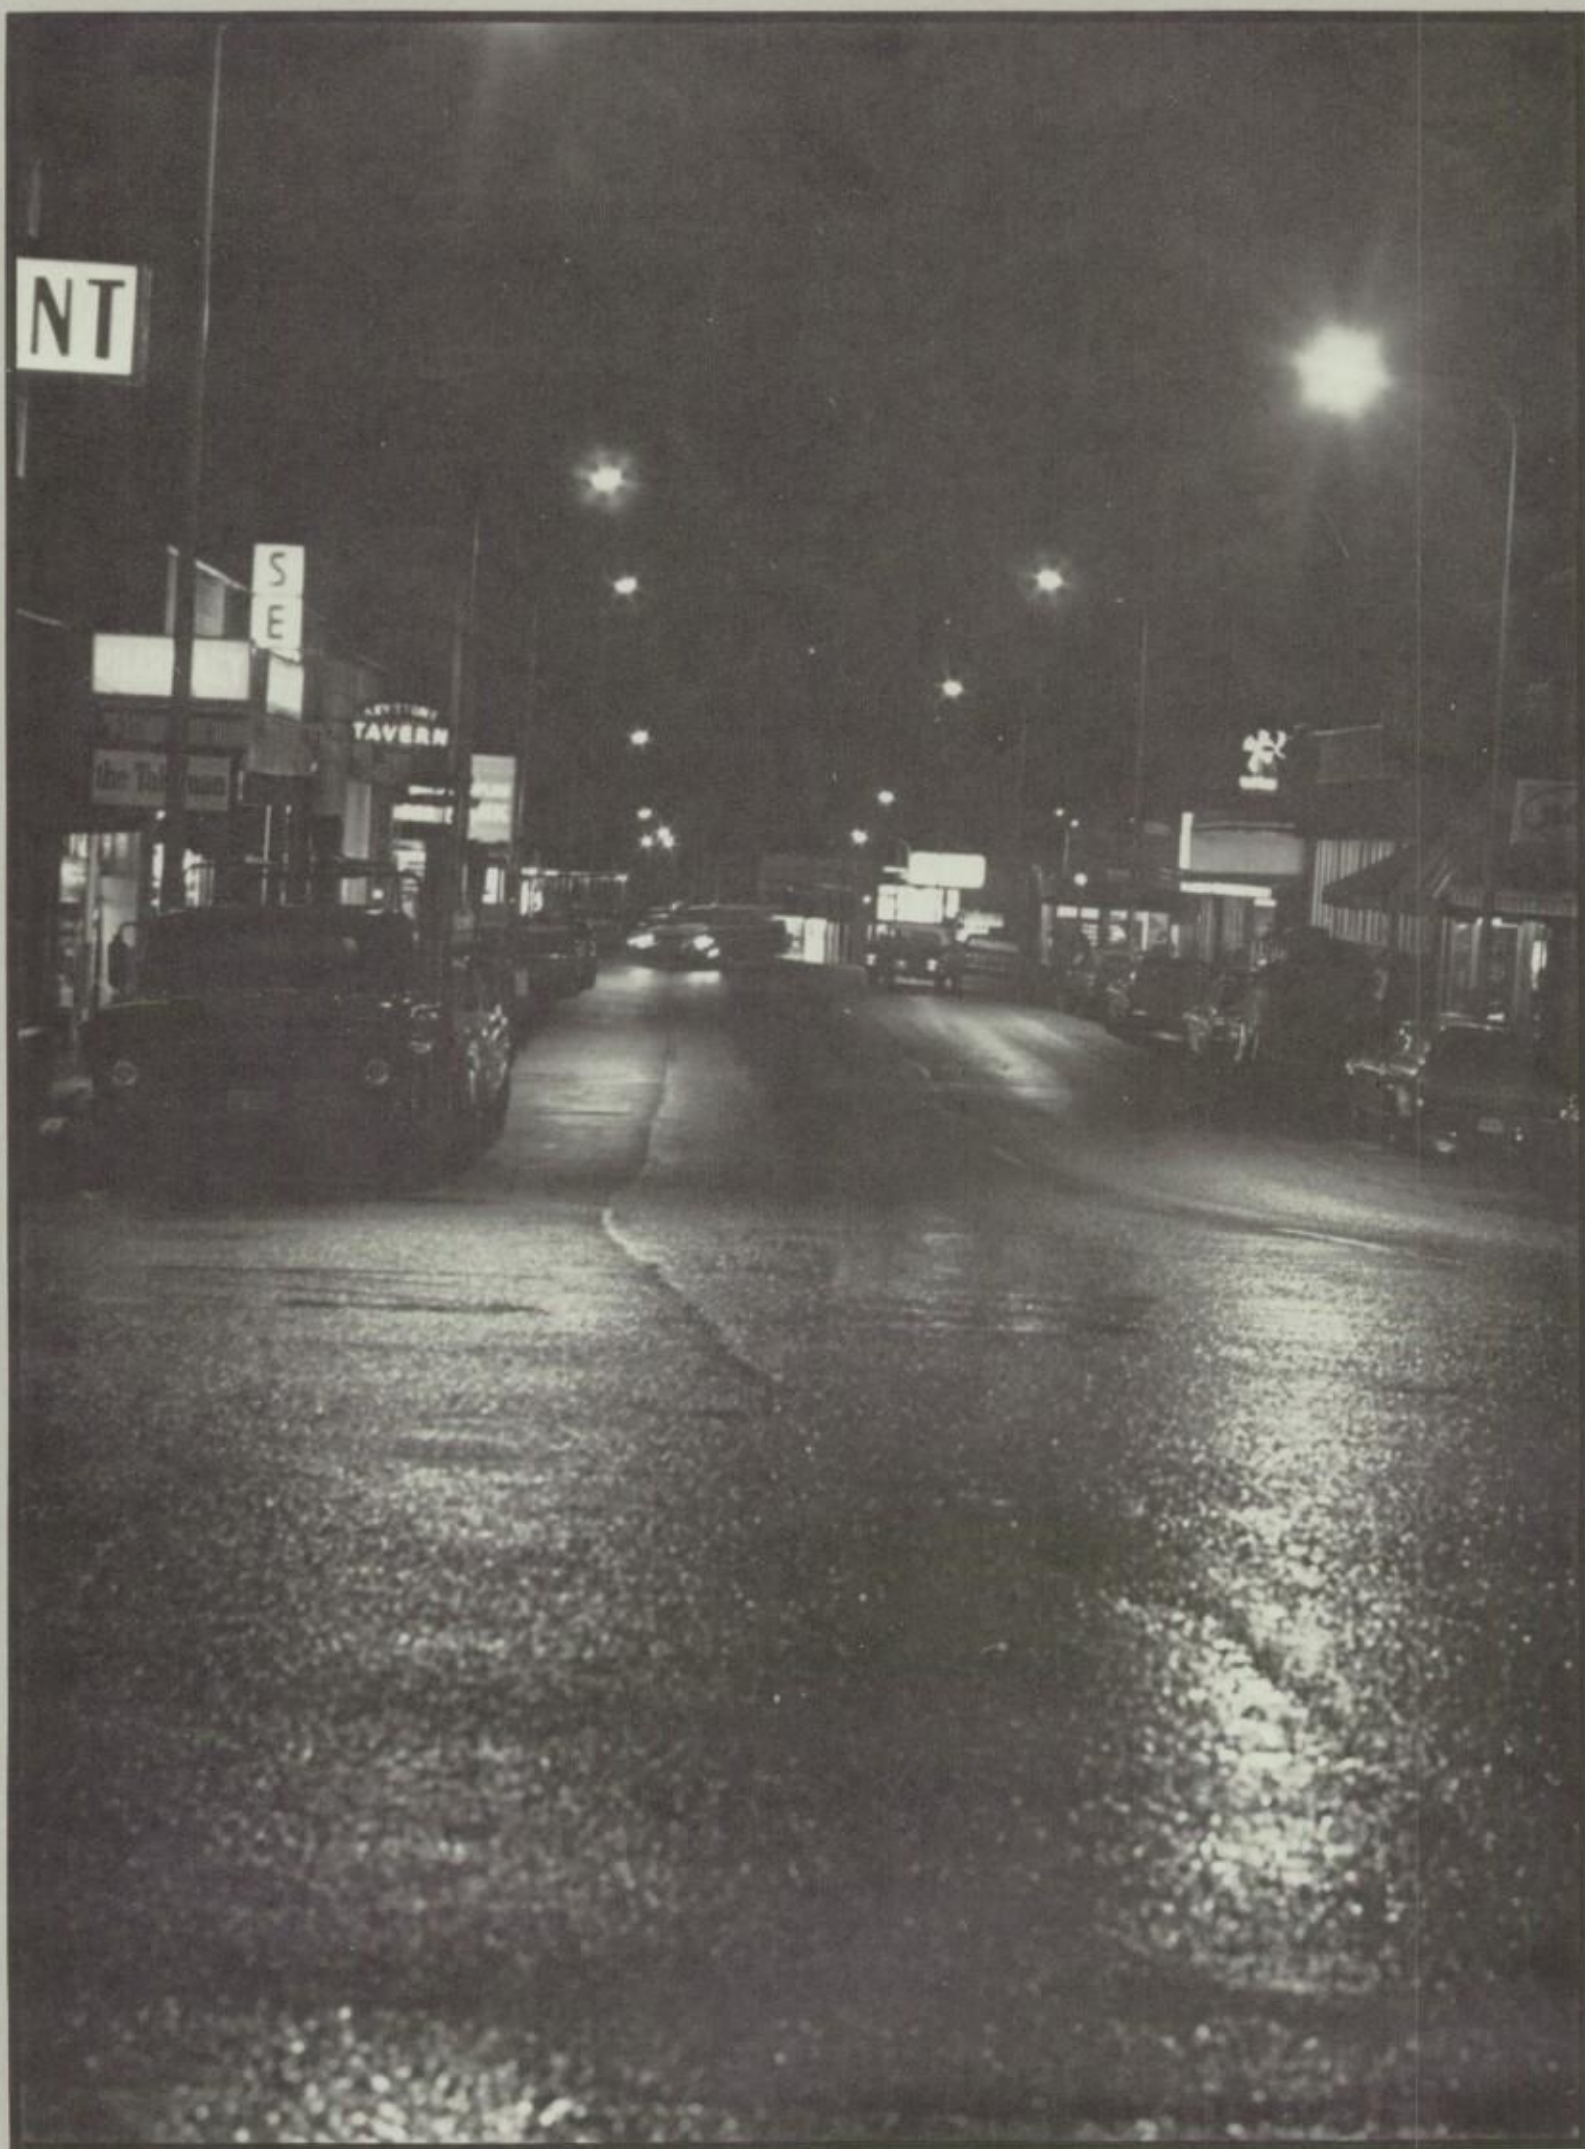

All sorts of new leaps and jumps were developed—both by intention and accident!

Students at the pre-snow session practiced kick-turns as instructors looked on.

Poor Mark Starwich managed a rueful smile, on the way to the rental shop with his broken ski!

Dear BHS —

We've been with you for three years. What an impact you've had! You brought us together, gave us a goal. Go, Cougars! We were loyal. Really. We gave our hearts for you. Most of all it was the people. Friendships. Experiences. Memories eternal. But most of all, people. That's what the world's all about.

It's been a blast. Thanks for the good times. But we've had our stint; we can't stay. We've eaten our Wheaties; we're ready to go it on our own. So many beautiful experiences lie ahead . . . we're excited!

On behalf of the Seniors on Annual Staff . . .

Rob Dolan

Rob Dolan, Editor-in-Chief

COUGAR '75 owes thanks for help to: Jim Palm of American Yearbooks; Bill McGovern of Bert Perler Photography; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Strand, Northshore Citizen, Time magazine, Sports Illustrated, and, for Junior Prom pictures, to Hellriegel-Dellwink studio, and Senior Ball, to Rowland Studio.

Our special thanks to Mrs. Good, Mrs. Webster and Mrs. Liedle for lists, schedules . . . and selling our book.

Most of all, a big hug for Mrs. Wallis, for her unerring patience and overwhelming love — broken arm and all.
